Declaration Notice

Pursuant to Regulation 15 of the Marine Mammals Protection Regulations 1992, I, Michael Slater, Deputy Director-General, Operations, Department of Conservation, declare that for a period of 12 months from the date of this notice:

- a. no new permits shall be granted for commercial operations to view whales, dolphins or seals, or to swim with dolphins or seals, in those waters between Cape Soucis (173°35'E, 41°3'S) and Cape Campbell (174°16'E, 41°43'S) of the Marlborough Sounds, and extending out seaward to four nautical miles.

For clarity, clause a. of this declaration does not apply to:

- i. any application to renew, amend, or transfer (in whole or part) an existing commercial permit for the location specified above, if there is no material increase in the amount of contact of any type with marine mammals; or
- ii. any application for the purpose of filming marine mammals where there will be no paying passengers.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of June 2017.

MICHAEL SLATER, Deputy Director-General, Operations, Department of Conservation (pursuant to an instrument of delegation dated 9 September 2015).

Ministerial Exemptions Under the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009

In accordance with section 157(6)(b) of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 ("Act"), the Associate Minister of Justice hereby gives notice that he has granted the following exemption from the Act:

Ministerial Exemption: The Roman Catholic Archbishop of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Wellington, a corporation sole pursuant to the Roman Catholic Bishops Empowering Act 1997 (Archbishop), also referred to as the Archdiocese of Wellington (ADW).

1. As the Associate Minister of Justice, and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 ("Act"), I exempt the Roman Catholic Archbishop of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Wellington, a corporation sole pursuant to the Roman Catholic Bishops Empowering Act 1997, also referred to as the Archdiocese of Wellington (ADW), from all provisions of the Act.
2. For the avoidance of doubt, the exemption only applies to services provided by ADW via the Catholic Development Fund (CDF) to parishes, Churches, schools, chaplaincies, religious orders and other entities under the common control of ADW (within the definition of clause 48 of Schedule 1 of the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013) and within the Diocese of Wellington ("Church entities").
3. The exemption is made subject to the following conditions:
 - a. the CDF can only accept deposits from Church entities;
 - b. ADW remains a registered charity pursuant to the Charities Act 2005; and
 - c. ADW remains a corporation sole pursuant to the Roman Catholic Bishops Empowering Act 1997.
4. The exemption has been made for the following reasons:
 - a. there is a low risk of money laundering and terrorist financing through ADW. This is because ADW, through the CDF, only manages funds for the restricted purpose of providing pastoral, charitable, and religious education services to parishioners and school students;

- b. the ADW only conducts transactions with other Church entities within the Diocese. When entities provide services for a related entity (which is effectively part of itself), there is low money laundering and financing of terrorism risk;
 - c. the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Wellington cannot rely on Regulation 16 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism (Exemptions) Regulations 2011 because the Church entities are not all bodies corporate and therefore not related within the meaning of section 12(2) of the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 as required by Regulation 16;
 - d. ADW only operates in New Zealand and does not conduct transactions or activities in overseas regions, which exposes it to money laundering and terrorist activity;
 - e. the ADW, through the CDF, generates income from the earnings of its reserves, any grants received, and through donations and bequests. Donations and grants cannot be returned to their original donors, unless they are subject to restrictions. The ADW no longer accepts any deposits from the public; and
 - f. due to the low money laundering and terrorism financing risk associated with the ADW and the significant compliance costs to ADW that would arise from not granting this exemption, I consider that any benefits of requiring compliance with the Act are not justified by the associated costs.
5. This exemption comes into force on the day after the date I grant this exemption.
 6. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2020.

Any person wishing to provide comment on this notice should contact the Criminal Law Team at the Ministry of Justice by emailing international.crime@justice.govt.nz.

Ministerial Exemptions Under the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009

In accordance with section 157(6)(b) of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“Act”), the Associate Minister of Justice hereby gives notice that he has granted the following exemption from the Act:

Ministerial Exemption: Hallmark Life Insurance Company Ltd and Hallmark General Insurance Company Ltd.

1. As the Associate Minister of Justice, and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“Act”), I exempt Hallmark Life Insurance Company Ltd and Hallmark General Insurance Company Ltd from the following provisions of the Act:
 - A. Sections 10–71 inclusive.
2. This exemption is made subject to the following conditions:
 - a. The entity granted the exemption must inform the Ministry of Justice of any changes that may affect the exemption and/or conditions imposed by this written instrument within 14 days from when the change affecting the exemption occurs.
 - b. This exemption only applies to the following financial activity offered by the Hallmark entities:
 - i. Consumer Life Policies.
3. This exemption has been made for the following reasons:
 - a. The loans to which these consumer life policies relate will have been checked and verified from an anti-money laundering perspective by the underlying credit providers.
 - b. According to international findings, consumer life policies are considered to be lower risk products for money laundering and terrorist financing.
 - c. The compliance burden to which both entities would be subjected if this exemption was not granted would be disproportionate to the money laundering and terrorist financing risks involved in the products offered.

4. This exemption comes into force on the day after the date I grant this exemption.
5. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2020.

Any person wishing to provide comment on this notice should contact the Criminal Law Team at the Ministry of Justice by emailing international.crime@justice.govt.nz.

Ministerial Exemptions Under the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009

In accordance with section 157(6)(b) of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“Act”), the Associate Minister of Justice hereby gives notice that he has granted the following exemption from the Act:

Ministerial Exemption: Habitat for Humanity New Zealand Limited and its Habitat Affiliates

1. As the Associate Minister of Justice, and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“Act”), I exempt Habitat for Humanity New Zealand Limited (“Habitat NZ”) and its 11 regional affiliate organisations (“Habitat Affiliates”) from the following provisions of the Act:
 - A. Sections 10–71 inclusive.
2. The exemption is in relation to the services Habitat NZ and the Habitat Affiliates provide to individuals and families under the “Assisted Home Ownership” programme and the “A Brush with Kindness” home repair programme.
3. This exemption is not subject to any conditions.
4. The exemption has been made for the following reasons:
 - a. It is considered there is a low risk of money laundering and terrorist financing through Habitat NZ and the Habitat Affiliates because Habitat NZ uses a rigorous selection process to choose the partner families who receive the services;
 - b. payments are made directly between the Habitat Affiliate and the partner family without third party involvement;
 - c. the relationship between the Habitat Affiliate and the recipient continues over a long time period of time (up to 10 years);
 - d. the income that Habitat NZ generates from the earnings of its reserves, grants and donations cannot be returned to their original donors unless certain conditions apply; and
 - e. due to the low money laundering and terrorism financing risk associated with Habitat NZ and the Habitat Affiliates and the significant compliance costs to Habitat NZ that would arise from not granting this exemption, I consider that any benefits of requiring compliance with the Act are not justified.
5. This exemption comes into force on the day after the date I grant this exemption.
6. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2020.

Any person wishing to provide comment on this notice should contact the Criminal Law Team at the Ministry of Justice by emailing international.crime@justice.govt.nz.

Ministerial Exemptions Under the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009

In accordance with section 157(6)(b) of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“Act”), the Associate Minister of Justice hereby gives notice that he has granted the following exemption from the Act:

Ministerial Exemption: Trustees of the Funeral Directors Association of New Zealand Incorporated Prepaid Funerals Trust Fund

1. As the Associate Minister of Justice and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“Act”), I exempt the trustees of the Funeral Directors Association of New Zealand Incorporated Prepaid Funerals Trust Fund (“Trust”) from the following provisions of the Act:
 - A. Sections 10–71 inclusive.
2. The exemption is made subject to the following conditions:
 - a. Enhanced customer due diligence (CDD) in accordance with the Act is required on account balances that have accumulated an amount over the threshold value of $29,999;
 - b. Suspicious transaction reports are to be carried out in accordance with subpart 2 of Part 2 of the Act;
 - c. Standard CDD in accordance with sections 14–17 of the Act is required on any refunds made during the “cooling off period” of over $9,999;
 - d. Standard CDD in accordance with sections 14–17 of the Act is required on all funds returned for the purposes of permanent emigration or due to hardship;
 - e. Standard CDD in accordance with sections 14–17 of the Act be carried out on any amount returned to an estate over $9,999 after a funeral has been paid for; and
 - f. When customers apply to have funds refunded due to permanent emigration from New Zealand or due to hardship, levels of proof of emigration or hardship consistent with the KiwiSaver regime are required.
3. This exemption has been made for the following reasons:
 - a. Whilst generally the Trust is a low risk target for money laundering and terrorist financing, there are a number of risks of the Trust being used for these purposes that have been covered off by conditions. These are set out below:
 - i. There is no maximum limit on the amount paid into the Trust or on the amount accumulated. There is a risk that a person could place a lot of money in the Trust, the source of which is unknown. The requirement to undertake Enhanced CDD on account balances that accumulated an amount over the threshold value mitigates this risk;
 - ii. Applicants have a 21 day “cooling-off” period from the date of initial payment. During this period an applicant can effectively cancel the contract and withdraw their funds without reason. There is obviously a risk that money launderers could place illicit money in the Trust and ask for an immediate withdrawal of funds in a form that has been “cleaned”. This risk is mitigated by requiring the trustees to undertake standard CDD on any refunds over $9,999;
 - iii. Payments are returned to an applicant in cases where the applicant is permanently emigrating from New Zealand or where there is hardship. There is a risk that a person may abuse this ability to extract funds. This risk is mitigated by requiring a level of proof consistent with existing regimes and a standard level of CDD; and
 - iv. If any money remains after the cost of a funeral or a joint application has been met, it will be returned to the participant’s estate. There is a risk here that money is laundered for the benefit of a person who is a beneficiary of the estate of the participant. This is mitigated by requiring standard CDD to be carried out on any amount returned to an estate over $9,999.
4. This exemption will come into force on the day after the date I grant this exemption.
5. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2020.

Notice of Application to Vary the Conditions of a Registered Trade Name Product (Notice No. MPI 787)

Maree Zinzley, Manager Approvals Operations of the Ministry for Primary Industries (MPI), acting under delegated authority from the Director-General of MPI, gives notice, under section 14(1) of the Agricultural Compounds and Veterinary Medicines Act 1997 ("Act"), that the following variation application has been made to a registered trade name product under section 9(2) of the Act:

Trade Name: Zolvix Plus Broad Spectrum Oral Anthelmintic for Sheep and Cattle

Reference: A011107-04

Active Ingredients and Concentrations:

Monepantel 25mg/mL

Abamectin 2mg/mL

Formulation Type: Liquid

Current Claims:

Monepantel is a member of the class of anthelmintics called the Amino-Acetonitrile Derivatives (AADs) while Abamectin is a member of the Macrocytic Lactone (ML) class of anthelmintics.

ZOLVIX PLUS is effective for the treatment and control of sensitive strains of nematodes (roundworms), including nematodes that have single, dual or triple resistance to macrocytic lactones (including moxidectin resistant strains), benzimidazoles (white drenches), imidazothiazoles (levamisole and morantel (clear drenches) and salicylanilide (eg closantel)-resistant strains, in sheep. ZOLVIX PLUS is also effective against AAD-sensitive immature (L4) stages of Haemonchus contortus and Teladorsagia circumcincta where a combination of a macrocytic lactone and derquantel is less effective.

Proposed New Claims (changes in bold):

Monepantel is a member of the class of anthelmintics called the Amino-Acetonitrile Derivatives (AADs) while Abamectin is a member of the Macrocytic Lactone (ML) class of anthelmintics.

ZOLVIX PLUS is effective for the treatment and control of sensitive strains of nematodes (roundworms), including nematodes that have single, dual or triple resistance to macrocytic lactones (including moxidectin resistant strains), benzimidazoles (white drenches), imidazothiazoles (levamisole and morantel (clear drenches) and salicylanilide (eg closantel)-resistant strains, in sheep, beef cattle and non-lactating dairy cattle. ZOLVIX PLUS is also effective against AAD-sensitive immature (L4) stages of Haemonchus contortus and Teladorsagia circumcincta in sheep where a combination of a macrocytic lactone and derquantel is less effective.

Any person may make a written submission to the director-general concerning this application.

Under sections 16 and 17 of the Act, a written submission:

- must state in full the reasons for making the submission; and
- may state any decision sought on that application; and
- must be received by the director-general no later than 30 working days after the date of notification in the New Zealand Gazette.

Under section 18 of the Act, a copy of every submission will be forwarded to the applicant for the applicant's information.

The following address is:

- a. where submissions on this application are to be sent; and
- b. where requests for copies of the public information relating to the application can be sent; and
- c. where public information relating to the application can be viewed; and
- d. the director-general's address for service:

4. Location—

(1) Transmit Location: All New Zealand.

(2) Receive Location: All New Zealand.

5. Special conditions—

1. These frequencies are, or may be, allocated for use by other services. Amateur operators must accept interference from, and must not cause interference to, such other services.
2. These frequencies are designated for industrial, scientific and medical (ISM) purposes. These frequencies may also be allocated to Short Range Device (SRD) services. Amateur operators must accept interference from ISM and SRD services within these frequency ranges.
3. Allocated to the amateur service on a temporary basis until further notice.
4. Use is limited to telemetry or telecommand.
5. These frequencies may also be used for amateur satellite communications in the earth-to-space direction.
6. These frequencies may also be used for amateur satellite communications in the space-to-earth direction.
7. Amateur operators must ensure that unwanted emissions from 800-915 MHz must not exceed -79 dBW (-49 dBm e.i.r.p.). The reference bandwidth for emissions is 100 kHz.
8. The maximum power is the radiated power in dBW e.i.r.p.

6. General conditions applying to all transmissions under this licence—

1. The use of callsigns, including temporary and club callsigns, must be in accordance with publication PIB 46 “Radio Operator Certificate and Callsign Rules” published at www.rsm.govt.nz.
2. Callsigns must be transmitted at least once every 15 minutes during communications.
3. National and international communication is permitted only between amateur stations, and is limited to matters of a personal nature, or for the purpose of self-training, intercommunication and radio technology investigation, solely with a personal aim and without pecuniary interest. The passing of brief messages of a personal nature on behalf of other persons is also permitted, provided no fees or other consideration is requested or accepted.
4. Communications must not be encoded for the purpose of obscuring their meaning, except for control signals by the operators of remotely controlled amateur stations.
5. Amateur stations must, as far as is compatible with practical considerations, comply with the latest ITU-R recommendations to the extent applicable to the amateur service.
6. In accordance with Article 25 of the International Radio Regulations, amateur operators are encouraged to prepare for, and meet, communication needs in support of disaster relief.
7. Amateur beacons, repeaters and fixed links may not be established pursuant to this licence.
8. Unwanted emissions outside the frequency bands specified in this Schedule must comply with the requirements of technical standard ETSI ETS 300 684 published by the European Telecommunications Standards Institute (ETSI).
9. The frequency ranges, maximum power of transmissions within those frequencies ranges, and designated uses of frequencies are those prescribed in this licence. All transmissions in a given frequency range must comply with any special conditions relating to that frequency range.
10. Should interference occur to services licensed pursuant to a radio licence or a spectrum licence, the chief executive reserves the right to require and ensure that any transmission pursuant to this licence changes frequency, reduces power, or ceases operation.
11. Except as provided to the contrary in this notice, maximum power in dBW is the peak envelope power (PX) of the radio transmitter, as defined in the International Radio Regulations Article 1, No. 1.157.

7. Terms, conditions and restrictions applying to New Zealand amateur operators

1. Persons who hold a General Amateur Operator’s Certificate of Competency and a callsign issued pursuant to the Regulations may operate an amateur radio station in New Zealand.
2. The callsign prefix of “ZL” may be substituted with the prefix “ZM” by the callsign holder for the period of,

and participation in, a recognised contest, or as the control station for special event communications.

3. Operation on amateur bands between 5 MHz and 25 MHz is not permitted unless a person has held a General Amateur Operators Certificate of Competency for three months and logged 50 contacts during this period. The person must keep the logbook record for at least one year and, during this period, produce it at the request of the chief executive.

8. Terms, conditions and restrictions applying to visiting amateur operators

1. Persons visiting New Zealand who hold a current amateur certificate of competency, authorisation or licence issued by another administration, may operate an amateur station in New Zealand for a period not exceeding 90 days, provided the certificate, authorisation or licence meets the requirements of Recommendation ITU-R M.1544 or CEPT T/R 61-01 or CEPT T/R 61-02 and is produced at the request of the chief executive.
2. The visiting overseas operator must use the national callsign allocated by the other administration to the operator, in conjunction with the prefix or suffix "ZL", except where subsection (3) applies, which is to be separated from the national callsign by the character "/" (telegraphy), or the word "stroke" (telephony).
3. The visiting overseas operator may use the prefix or suffix:
 1. ZL7 when visiting the Chatham Islands.
 2. ZL8 when visiting the Kermadec Islands.
 3. ZL9 when visiting the Sub-Antarctic Islands
