Application for Approval of Variation Under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957

Notice is hereby given that The New Zealand Guardian Trust Company Limited, as trustee of the will of Gladys Valentine Howey, late of Auckland, retired, deceased, has filed in the office of the High Court at Auckland an application for approval of a scheme varying the terms of the will under which the deceased's residuary estate is held.

Under the will, the residue of the estate of the late Gladys Valentine Howey is to be held on perpetual trust to pay the income of the estate in the form of awards, not necessarily annually, to a school whose pupils submit the best essay on the care of domestic pets, especially cats; to persons who produce the best publicly acclaimed professionally produced

Under this scheme the terms of the will would be varied to establish a fund to permit The New Zealand Guardian Trust Company Limited on an annual basis to fund projects submitted by various charitable organisations for the purpose of educating children on the proper care and treatment of domestic pets (especially cats) but not excluding the welfare of animals more generally; encourage news media and publicity activities relating to, and the welfare of, animals as pets and companions to the people of New Zealand; promote the prevention of cruelty to domestic animals; make awards and distributions to schools and organisations who undertake or facilitate such purposes and such other consequent community benefit in New Zealand to the extent that this is a charitable purpose under the laws of New Zealand from time to time.
