Inland Revenue

Tax Administration Act 1994

Notice of Determination

The following determination (FDR2007-04), concerning New Zealand resident investors' ability to use the fair dividend rate method for an interest in a type of foreign investment fund, was made by the Deputy Commissioner, Policy, Inland Revenue, under section 91AAO of the Tax Administration Act 1994 on 12 October 2007.

"Determination

Reference

This determination is made under section 91AAO(1)(a) of the Tax Administration Act 1994.

This power has been delegated by the Commissioner of Inland Revenue to the Deputy Commissioner, Policy, under section 7 of the Tax Administration Act 1994.

Discussion (which does not form part of the determination)

Units in a non-resident issuer to which this determination applies are an attributing interest in a FIF for New Zealand resident investors.

New Zealand resident investors are required to apply the foreign investment fund rules to determine their tax liability in respect of their units in the non-resident issuer each year.

Due to the presence of specified lock-in thresholds, section EX 40(9) of the Act applies to units in the non-resident issuer and prevents use of the fair dividend rate method in the absence of a determination under section 91AAO of the Tax Administration Act 1994.

Despite the presence of specified lock-in thresholds, I consider that it is appropriate for New Zealand resident investors in this arrangement to use the fair dividend rate method.

The overall arrangement (as described to me by the applicant) contains sufficient risk so that it is not akin to a New Zealand dollar-denominated debt instrument that effectively provides guaranteed returns.

Scope of Determination

The investments to which this determination applies are units in a non-resident issuer which:

- (a) is one of the Credit Suisse PL100 series of trusts;
- (b) is a unit trust constituted under New South Wales law;
- (c) issues New Zealand dollar denominated units (not being fixed rate shares or non-participating redeemable shares) to New Zealand resident investors;

- (d) indirectly offers New Zealand resident investors the benefit of capital protection and rising capital protection;
- (e) invests proceeds from the issue of units in a physical basket of securities upon which dividends may be paid;
- (f) converts any dividends derived from the physical basket of securities to New Zealand dollars and distributes such dividends to New Zealand resident investors from time to time; and
- (g) enters into a specified call and put option arrangement in relation to a hedging portfolio.

Interpretation

In this determination, unless the context otherwise requires:

'Capital protection' means an arrangement under which an investor receives an amount from the issuer equal to the New Zealand dollar issue price for each unit held by the investor at maturity;

'Fixed rate share' means a fixed rate share under section LF 2(3) of the Act;

'Hedging portfolio' means a notional portfolio of shares and fixed income securities that requires 25% minimum participation in notional share investments at all times;

'Non-participating redeemable share' means a non-participating redeemable share under section CD 14(9) of the Act;

'Non-resident' means a person that is not resident in New Zealand for the purposes of the Act;

'Physical basket of securities' means a portfolio of shares or other securities physically held by the issuer;

'Rising capital protection' means an arrangement under which an investor receives an amount from the issuer which exceeds the New Zealand dollar issue price for each unit held at maturity if any specified lock-in threshold is reached, irrespective of the value of the issuer's underlying investments at maturity;

'Specified call and put option arrangement' means an arrangement consisting of two separate option contracts entered into simultaneously by the issuer and a counterparty under which:

- (a) the issuer is able to transfer the physical basket to the counterparty in exchange for an amount equal to the value of the hedging portfolio (in New Zealand dollars) if the value of the hedging portfolio at maturity (less a portfolio fee) is equal to or greater than the value of the physical basket; and
- (b) the counterparty is able to require the issuer to pay the counterparty the shortfall in value between the physical basket and the hedging portfolio (in New Zealand dollars) if the value of the hedging portfolio at maturity (less a portfolio fee) is less than the value of the physical basket;

‘Specified lock-in threshold’ means the level of growth in value of the hedging portfolio (adjusted downwards for dividends paid to investors on their units), expressed as a percentage of the value of the hedging portfolio at the commencement of the investment term, which is determined by the issuer at the commencement of the investment term to be a specified lock-in threshold;

‘The Act’ means the Income Tax Act 2004.

Determination

An attributing interest in a FIF to which this determination applies is a type of attributing interest for which a person may use the fair dividend rate method to calculate FIF income from the interest.

Application Date

This determination applies for the 2007–08 and subsequent income years.

Transit New Zealand Act 1989 Transport Act 1962

Bylaw Prescribing Use of the Northern Busway in Auckland

Pursuant to section 61(3) of the Transit New Zealand Act 1989, and section 72(1)(j) of the Transport Act 1962, Transit New Zealand hereby makes the following bylaw.

Bylaw

1. This bylaw may be cited as the Transit New Zealand Bylaw 2007/1.

2. This bylaw shall come into force 28 days after its publication in the New Zealand Gazette.

3. In this bylaw, unless a contrary intention appears:

3.1 “accident” means an unintentional or unexpected act causing a vehicle to become immobile or practically immobile for the purpose of travelling safely on the motorway.

3.2 “authorised vehicle” means any vehicle authorised by the Northern Operations Manager, Transit New Zealand.

3.3 “authorised officer” means an authorised officer of Transit New Zealand.

3.4 “breakdown” means an unexpected defect in the machinery of a vehicle causing that vehicle to become immobile or practically immobile for the purposes of traveling safely on the motorway.

3.5 “breakdown vehicle” has the same meaning as in the Traffic Regulations 1976.

3.6 “busway” means that part of the Auckland Northern Motorway section of State Highway 1, defined by prescribed signs and identified on a plan held in the office of the Regional Manager, Transit New Zealand, Auckland, that may only be used by those vehicles specified in clause 8 of this bylaw:

3.6.1 For avoidance of doubt the busway includes:

(a) the dedicated dual lane between Constellation and Akoranga Stations;

(b) the single southbound busway commencing at Akoranga Station that extends a distance of 2400 metres from the Esmonde Road Underpass to a point south of the Onewa Road Interchange where it merges with the motorway carriageway;

(c) the single southbound busway commencing on the Onewa Road Interchange that extends a distance of 500 metres before merging with the single southbound busway; and

(d) the links to and from State Highway 1 at the Albany and Constellation Stations.

3.7 “emergency vehicle” has the same meaning as in the Land Transport (Road User) Rule 2004.

3.8 “heavy omnibus” has the same meaning as in the Land Transport Rule: Heavy Vehicles 2004.

3.9 “motorway” has the same meaning as in the Transit New Zealand Act 1989.

- 3.10 “operator” means a person who has control of the operation of a passenger service. For the avoidance of doubt, a driver is not an operator unless they also have control of the operation of the passenger service.
- 3.11 “shoulder” means that sealed area on the extreme outside or verge of the left hand side of the motorway carriageway, such sealed area being physically defined by a continuous white line.
- 3.12 “use” has the same meaning as in the Traffic Regulations 1976.
- 3.13 “vehicle” has the same meaning as in the Traffic Regulations 1976.
4. An operator wishing to operate heavy omnibuses on the busway must do the following:
- (a) Make an application to Transit New Zealand on the form provided by Transit New Zealand for authorisation to operate heavy omnibuses on the busway. Authorisation may be given subject to conditions relating to those matters covered by subparagraphs (b) to (d) below;
  - (b) provide details to Transit New Zealand of the emergency procedures that are to be followed in the event that a heavy omnibus operated by them breaks down on the busway. Those procedures must be approved by Transit New Zealand. The emergency procedures must appoint a breakdown vehicle company and a heavy haulage company that will attend the breakdown and/or tow the disabled vehicle and provide for the attendance of those vehicles at the site of the breakdown within 30 minutes of a heavy omnibus breaking down. In the event that the hours of operation of any appointed breakdown vehicle company and heavy haulage company are limited, the operator must not operate heavy omnibuses on the busway outside of those hours of operation;
  - (c) establish and maintain a method of communication between bus drivers and the Busway Operations Centre, approved by Transit New Zealand; and
  - (d) instruct all drivers of heavy omnibuses operated by them which use the busway that in the event that a heavy omnibus breaks down on the busway then, if they are following the vehicle that breaks down, they shall stop and pick up the passengers from that vehicle and transport them to the next busway transport station.
5. An operator wishing to operate heavy omnibuses on the busway must comply with any conditions attached to the authorisation given under clause 4 above.
6. Notwithstanding the approval by Transit New Zealand of an operator’s emergency procedures under clause 4(b) above, in the event of any breakdown on the busway, an authorised officer may require a breakdown vehicle, other than the vehicle appointed by the authorised operator, to attend the breakdown.
7. Notwithstanding the approval by Transit New Zealand of an operator’s emergency procedures under clause 4(b) above, in the event of any breakdown on the busway, the driver of the broken down heavy omnibus must comply with any instructions given by an authorised officer.
8. No person, being the driver of a vehicle, shall use or drive that vehicle on or along any part of the busway unless:
- 8.1 that person is driving a heavy omnibus which is operated by an operator that has satisfied the requirements under clause 4 above and the vehicle is not open-topped; or
  - 8.2 that person is driving an emergency vehicle and has approval from either the New Zealand Police or an authorised officer to use the busway on that occasion; or
  - 8.3 that person is driving an authorised vehicle; or
  - 8.4 that person is driving or is in charge of a vehicle which has suffered an accident or breakdown on the motorway adjacent to that part of the busway extending from the Esmonde Road Underpass to a point south of the Onewa Road Interchange where the busway merges with the motorway carriageway (shown on the plan held in the office of the Regional Manager, Transit New Zealand, Auckland) and is in the process of moving the vehicle across the busway to the shoulder; or
  - 8.5 that person is driving a breakdown vehicle that is required by an authorised officer to attend to an accident or breakdown.
9. No person, being the driver of a vehicle or person in charge of a vehicle, shall stop, stand or park any vehicle on the busway whether that vehicle is attended or unattended unless:
- 9.1 that person is driving or is in charge of a heavy omnibus, which is operated by an operator that has satisfied the requirements under clause 4 above and is stopping on an area of the busway designated as a stopping place available for that vehicle. For the avoidance of doubt, any area of the busway set aside as a stopping place and the designated use of stopping places will be indicated by signs; stopping is only for the purpose of loading and unloading passengers; and no person, being the driver of a vehicle, shall stand or park that vehicle at any busway stopping place; or
  - 9.2 that person is driving or is in charge of a heavy omnibus which is operated by an operator that has satisfied the requirements under clause 4 above and has suffered an accident or breakdown; or
  - 9.3 that person is driving or in charge of a breakdown vehicle which is required by an authorised officer to attend to an accident or breakdown; or
  - 9.4 that person is driving or is in charge of an authorised vehicle.
10. No person, being the driver of a vehicle or person in charge of a vehicle, shall perform any of the turning movements on that part of the busway except where the turning movement is permitted. For the avoidance of doubt, permitted turning movements shall be identified by prescribed signs.

Any reference in this bylaw to any Statute or Regulation is deemed to include all amendments and revisions made from time to time to that Statute or Regulation.

This bylaw was made by resolution passed at a meeting of Transit New Zealand held in Wellington on the 7th day of November 2007.

Signed on behalf of Transit New Zealand under delegated authority by:

J. H. VAN BARNEVELD, Chief Executive, Transit New Zealand.

Rights and Powers Varied and Added

- Any terms used in this easement that are defined in the Land Transfer Regulations 2002 shall take those meanings.
- Where there is a conflict between the provisions of the Fourth Schedule to the Land Transfer Regulations 2002 and the modifications in this easement instrument, the modifications must prevail.
- Reference in clause 3(1) of the Fourth Schedule of the above Regulations to the dominant land shall be deleted for the purpose of this easement instrument.
- The grantor covenants with the grantee not to place any buildings, erect fences or other permanent structures on the stipulated course without the prior consent of the grantee and the grantor will not at any time commit or suffer any acts whereby the rights, powers, licences and liberties hereby granted to the grantee may be interfered with or affected.
- The maintenance provisions in the Fourth Schedule to the Land Transfer Regulations 2002 are modified by adding the following:

Any maintenance, repair or replacement of the easement facilities whether on the servient tenement or similar facilities of the grantee connected to the easement(s) that is necessary because of any act or omission by the grantor (which includes agents, employees, contractors, subcontractors and invitees of that grantor) must be carried out promptly by the grantor and at the grantor’s sole cost. Where the act or omission is the partial cause of the maintenance, repair or replacement, the costs payable by that grantor responsible must be in proportion to the amount attributable to that act or omission (with the balance payable in accordance with clause 11 of the Fourth Schedule to the Land Transfer Regulations 2002).

- The grantee may convey water in any quantities.
- The grantee’s rights to the easement facility or facilities under this easement are exclusive.
- Nothing contained or implied by this easement shall be deemed to compel the grantee to convey water along the stipulated course.
- Any rights or immunities from liabilities, powers and remedies which the grantee may have or be entitled to by virtue of statute or at common law shall not be affected by the easement and the grantee may exercise any such powers vested in it at common law or by statute independently of these grants of easements.
