Statutory Requirements

Section 164A(3) of the Land Transfer Act 1952 permits the Registrar-General of Land to specify the statutory requirements that apply to a class of instrument. The following table details the statutory provisions for each class of instrument. I hereby specify the statutory provisions detailed in this table for the purposes of section 164A(3)(c) of the Land Transfer Act 1952.

This specification means that when a conveyancer is giving a certification under section 164A(3)(c) and Regulation 12 of the Land Transfer Regulations 2002, the conveyancer is certifying that each of the statutory provisions specified has been complied with or does not apply, as the case may be.

This notice replaces the Statutory Requirements notice published in the New Zealand Gazette, 14 November 2002, No. 166, at page 4176.

This notice takes effect from 8 October 2007.

Social Development

Social Security Act 1964

Special Needs Grants Amendment (No. 3) 2007

Pursuant to section 124(1)(d) of the Social Security Act 1964 (“the Act”), the Minister for Social Development and Employment makes the following amendment to the Special Needs Grants Programme (as established and approved on 18 December 1998*).

Dated at Wellington this 17th day of September 2007.

HON. STEVE MAHAREY, Minister for Social Development and Employment.

A m e n d m e n t

1. Title—This amendment is the Special Needs Grants Amendment (No. 3) 2007.

2. Commencement—This amendment comes into effect on 24 September 2007.

3. Programme amended—This amendment amends the Special Needs Grants Programme.

4. Disqualified spouse or partner—Clause 17.1.1 is amended:

- (a) by inserting “receive” after “entitled to”;
- (b) by omitting from paragraph (a) “he or she” and substituting “the benefit”;
- (c) by inserting the following paragraph after paragraph (a):

“(ab) after a date of first contact that applies to him or her and before a decision on his or her application for a benefit is made, he or she has yet to comply with a requirement under section 11D or 96A of the Act and:

- (i) his or her application for a benefit has not lapsed; and
- (ii) section 96A(9) of the Act does not apply to him or her; and”.

5. Sole parent high income—Clause 17.2.1 is amended by revoking paragraph (a) and substituting the following paragraph:

“(a) would otherwise qualify for a benefit but is not entitled to receive that benefit because:

- (i) the benefit is subject to a Stand Down; or
- (ii) after a date of first contact that applies to him or her and before a decision on his or her application for a benefit is made, he or she has yet to comply with a requirement under section 11D or 96A of the Act and:
 - (A) his or her application for a benefit has not lapsed; and
 - (B) section 96A(9) of the Act does not apply to him or her; and”.

6. Serious hardship—Clause 17.3.1 is amended by revoking paragraph (b) and substituting the following paragraph:

“(b) would otherwise qualify for a benefit but is not entitled to receive that benefit because:

- (i) the benefit is subject to a Stand Down; or
- (ii) after a date of first contact that applies to him or her and before a decision on his or her application for a benefit is made, he or she has yet to comply with a requirement under section 11D or 96A of the Act and:
 - (A) his or her application for a benefit has not lapsed; and
 - (B) section 96A(9) of the Act does not apply to him or her; and”.

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the amendment but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This amendment to the Special Needs Grants Programme, which comes into effect on 24 September 2007, provides that recoverable assistance under clause 17 of the programme is available to persons who have made a written or oral request of the department for financial assistance but have yet to complete the requirements of the application process under section 11D or any requirements under section 96A of the Social Security Act 1964. It also corrects minor drafting errors in clause 17.

Rights and Powers Varied and Added

- Any terms used in this easement that are defined in the Land Transfer Regulations 2002 shall take those meanings.
- Where there is a conflict between the provisions of the Fourth Schedule to the Land Transfer Regulations 2002 and the modifications in this easement instrument, the modifications must prevail.
- Reference in clause 3(1) of the Fourth Schedule of the above Regulations to the dominant land shall be deleted for the purpose of this easement instrument.
- The grantor covenants with the grantee not to place any buildings, erect fences or other permanent structures on the stipulated course without the prior consent of the grantee and the grantor will not at any time commit or suffer any acts whereby the rights, powers, licences and liberties hereby granted to the grantee may be interfered with or affected.
- The maintenance provisions in the Fourth Schedule to the Land Transfer Regulations 2002 are modified by adding the following:

Any maintenance, repair or replacement of the easement facilities whether on the servient tenement or similar facilities of the grantee connected to the easement(s) that is necessary because of any act or omission by the grantor (which includes agents, employees, contractors, subcontractors and invitees of that grantor) must be carried out promptly by that grantor and at that grantor's sole cost. Where the act or omission is the partial cause of the maintenance, repair or replacement, the costs payable by that grantor responsible must be in proportion to the amount attributable to that act or omission (with the balance payable in accordance with Clause 11 of the Fourth Schedule to the Land Transfer Regulations 2002).

- The grantee may convey water in any quantities.
- The grantee's rights to the easement facility or facilities under this easement are exclusive.
- Nothing contained or implied by this easement shall be deemed to compel the grantee to convey water along the stipulated course.
- Any rights or immunities from liabilities, powers and remedies which the grantee may have or be entitled to by virtue of statute or at common law shall not be affected by the easement and the grantee may exercise any such other powers vested in it at common law or by statute independently of these grants of easements.

Accounting Standards Review Board

Financial Reporting Act 1993

Delay of the Mandatory Adoption of New Zealand Equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards for Certain Small Companies

Notice is hereby given that the Accounting Standards Review Board (“the board”) has resolved:

THAT under the powers contained within section 27(3A) of the Financial Reporting Act 1993, the board has determined that companies, which satisfy all of the following criteria, are permitted to continue to apply the existing approved New Zealand Financial Reporting Standards (FRSs) and, therefore, are not required to apply NZ IFRSs for periods beginning on or after 1 January 2007, until further notice:

- (a) The company is not an issuer, as defined by the Act, in either the current or preceding accounting period;
- (b) the company is not required by section 19 of the Act to file its financial statements with the Registrar of Companies; and

- (c) the company is not large, as defined by section 19A of the Act.

Dated this 4th day of September 2007.

WARWICK HUNT, Chairman, Accounting Standards Review Board.
