Special Determination S23: Transfer of Acquired Bad Debts by a Certain New Zealand Company to Another New Zealand Company in the Same Consolidated Group and the Utilisation of a Profit Emerging Basis by the Transferee Company

This determination may be cited as Special Determination S23: Transfer of Acquired Bad Debts by a Certain New Zealand Company to Another New Zealand Company in the Same Consolidated Group and the Utilisation of a Profit Emerging Basis by the Transferee Company.

1. Explanation (which does not form part of the determination)

- (1) This determination relates to the transfer of acquired bad debts from New Zealand Company Limited (NZC) to a newly incorporated company, New Zealand Company (2) Limited (NZC-2). NZC and NZC-2 are members of the same consolidated group at the time the acquired bad debts are transferred.
- (2) NZC originally acquired for valuable consideration pools of unpaid loans and receivables, which may consist of a few hundred to a few thousand individual debts (ABDs).
- (3) NZC can use the profit emerging method of returning income and expenditure pursuant to Special Determination S17: "Utilisation of a profit emerging basis for purchased debt ledgers by a certain New Zealand Company Limited".
- (4) This determination also relates to the ability of NZC-2 to utilise a profit emerging basis for returning income and expenditure arising from ABDs that are either transferred from NZC (transferred ABDs) or acquired from a person other than NZC (third-party ABDs).
- (5) NZC-2 acquires the ABDs at a deep discount to their face value. NZC-2 subsequently seeks to recover the overdue balances from debtors through various means.
- (6) The acquisition of an individual ABD is done on the expectation that its recoveries will be in excess of the purchase price and the cost incurred in attempting collection. Some debts may not achieve any recovery and become uncollectable, and others may be partially collected. The volatility of cash collections may be attributed to such things as the nature of the underlying debt, its age and type, as well as external economic conditions and the effort applied.
- (7) NZC-2 will apply NZ IFRS 9 to ABDs for financial reporting purposes.
- (8) This determination provides that NZC-2's contribution to the assessable income and tax liability of the consolidated group for an income year will be based on actual collections reduced by the proportion of purchase cost allocated to that income year.

2. Reference

This determination is made under sections 90AC(1)(bb) and 90AC(1)(j) of the Tax Administration Act 1994.

3. Scope of determination

- (1) This determination applies to the tax treatment by NZC of transferred ABDs, which were transferred to a member of the same consolidated group. NZC and the transferee company, NZC-2, were not members of the same consolidated group for the whole of the income year of transfer.
- (2) The determination also applies to the tax treatment by NZC-2 of both transferred ABDs and third-party ABDs.
- (3) ABDs are pools of unpaid loans and receivables. These pools may consist of a few hundred to a few thousand individual debts.
- (4) NZC originally acquired the transferred ABDs at a deep discount to their face value on the expectation that its recoveries would be in excess of the purchase price and the cost incurred in attempting collection. NZC applied the profit emerging basis for the recognition of income and deduction of expenditure on the transferred ABDs pursuant to Special Determination S17: "Utilisation of a profit emerging basis for purchased debt ledgers by a certain New Zealand Company Limited".
- (5) NZC-2 will apply NZ IFRS 9 to ABDs for financial reporting purposes.
- (6) This determination is made subject to the following conditions:
  - NZC-2 is satisfied on the basis of objective criteria that a period of no less than five years and no more than seven years is the appropriate period over which cashflows from a third-party ABD are to be forecast. This period is to be ascertained at the time of purchase of the ABD and must match the accounting spreading period for that ABD; and
  - NZC-2 will not take a deduction for the acquisition cost of either a transferred ABD or a third-party ABD (or any part thereof) except as set out in this determination; and
  - NZC-2 treats all underlying debts to which it becomes a party on the acquisition of either a transferred ABD or a third-party ABD (which would otherwise be excepted financial arrangements) as financial arrangements under section EW8 of the Income Tax Act 2007.

4. Principle

- (1) NZC will recognise all income and expenditure on the ABDs using a profit emerging basis for the part income year prior to forming the consolidated group in its separate return of income under section FM14 of the Income Tax Act and sections 33 and 92 of the Tax Administration Act 1994.
- (2) NZC will perform a base price adjustment pursuant to section EW31, as modified by section FM19, when the ABDs are transferred to NZC-2. The consideration for the transfer will be the tax book value of the ABDs on the date of transfer, pursuant to section FM19(2).
- (3) All underlying debts to which NZC-2 becomes a party on the acquisition of an ABD are either financial arrangements as defined in section EW3 of the Income Tax Act 2007 or are treated as financial arrangements by NZC-2 under section EW8 of the Income Tax Act 2007.
- (4) This determination specifies that income and expenditure from an ABD for an income year is to be recognised by NZC-2 using a profit emerging method. This method takes into account actual cash flows less an apportionment of the cost of purchase.
- (5) The apportionment of the purchase cost of a third-party ABD is based on the original forecasted recoveries for the income year as a proportion of the total original forecasted recoveries from the ABD over a period of no less than five years and no more than seven years.
- (6) For transferred ABDs, NZC-2 will be allowed a deduction in the income years following the transfer for the amount apportioned to the relevant income year as set out in the original forecast for the ABD by NZC.
- (7) Any cash collections on ABDs will be returned as income in the income year in which they are received.

5. Interpretation

In this determination (and the Explanation), unless the context otherwise requires:

Words and expressions that are not defined elsewhere in the determination have the same meaning as in section YA1 of the Income Tax Act 2007;

NZ IFRS 9 means the New Zealand Equivalent to International Financial Reporting Standard 9 – Financial Instruments, or equivalent as updated or changed from time to time.

6. Method

Profit Emerging Method

The profit emerging method is illustrated in the following formula:

$$AI = AC - \frac{(PC \times OF)}{TECC}$$

Where:

AI = assessable income of an ABD for an income year

AC = actual cash collected from the ABD during the income year

PC = purchase costs of ABD

OF = original cash forecasted to be collected during the income year

TECC = total expected cash to be collected over the spreading period, forecast at date of purchase

Once the cost of the ABD is fully amortised, cash collected after the spreading period will be treated as derived in the income year in which it is received.

Base Price Adjustment Calculation

The base price adjustment calculation arising upon the transfer of ABDs from NZC to NZC-2, members of the same consolidated group at the date of transfer (but not for the whole income year), is illustrated in the following formula:

$$BPA = C - I + E + AR$$

Where:

C = Consideration

= total cash collected + consideration for transfer – purchase cost

Consideration for transfer = PC – D – (F x 336/366)

PC = purchase costs of ABD

D = total deductions allowed in prior income years for the ABD

F = NZC's original forecast deduction for the ABD for the whole of the 2012 income year, expressed as PC x OF/TECC

I = income

E = expenditure

AR = amounts remitted

7. Example

This example illustrates the application of the method (set out in this determination) for determining the income and expenditure attributable to a transferred ABD in each income year. Balance date is 30 June.

This example uses the following parameters.

Purchase date	1 July 2009
ABD purchase cost (PC)	1,000,000
Forecast cash collection (OF)
Year 1	1,068,000
Year 2	582,000
Year 3	274,000
Year 4	58,000
Year 5	18,000
Total expected cash collected over five years (TECC)	2,000,000
Actual cash collection (AC)
Year 1	1,106,000
Year 2	600,000
Year 3	293,000
Year 4	88,000
Year 5	20,800
Year 6	6,800
Year 7	500

BPA = 852

Where:

AC = 1,601 (for this example the amount is based on 2/366 days; actual cash collected to be used by NZC)

(PC x OF/TECC) x 2/366 days = 749

Consideration for transfer = 1,000,000 – (825,000 + (137,000 x 336/366)) = 49,229

4. Taxable income of NZC-2 from 1 June 2012

For 2012 income year ended 30 June 2012:

AC = 24,016 (for this example the amount is based on 30/366 days; actual cash collected to be used by NZC-2)

(PC x OF/TECC) x 30/366 days = 11,229

Reconciliation

Total assessable income for 2012 income year	= 156,000

Land Notices

Public Works Act 1981

Notice of Intention to Take Land and Leasehold Estate for Motorway Purposes for the Western Ring Route—Causeway Upgrade (Rosebank Road to Patiki Interchange), Auckland

Notice is hereby given that the Minister for Land Information proposes to take, under the Public Works Act 1981, the land described in the First Schedule to this notice (“the land”) and a leasehold estate over the land described in the Second Schedule.

The terms of the leasehold estate are set out in the Third Schedule.

The land and leasehold estate are required for the causeway upgrade between Rosebank Road and Patiki Interchange, Auckland.

More particularly, the land described in the First Schedule will be taken for motorway purposes.

This land may also be declared road and State highway.

The project is required to complete the final link in the Western Ring Route, an alternative to State Highway 1 for north and south traffic movements.

The project will take business freight and other through traffic off local roads, freeing them up for improved public transport services, providing shorter and more predictable travel times and more reliable access to Auckland International Airport.

The owner of the land and those persons with a registered interest in it have been served with notice of the Minister for Land Information’s intention to take the land and the leasehold estate and advised of their right to object.

Any other person having the right to object may send a written objection to the Regional Manager, Environment Court, Ministry of Justice, PO Box 5027, Wellington 6145, or DX SX 11154, Wellington, within 20 working days after the date of publication of this notice.

If any objection is made in accordance with this notice, a public hearing will be held with the right of the objector to appear and be heard personally unless the objector otherwise requires, and each objector will be informed of the time and place of the hearing.

Any person requiring further information in respect of this advice should contact Nicholas Pointon, The Property Group Limited, Level 15, 34 Shortland Street, Auckland. Postal Address: PO Box 104 Shortland Street, Auckland 1140. Telephone: (09) 309 8526.

Terms of the Leasehold Estate

- For the purposes of the Lease, any reference to the Crown includes its employees, engineers, assistants, consultants, contractors and authorised invitees.

3. The registered proprietor shall be entitled to receive from the Commencement Date a current market rent for the term of the Lease, such rate to be determined by a registered valuer and agreed between the parties or otherwise determined in accordance with the Public Works Act 1981.

Terms of Easements

The rights and powers implied shall be those set out in the standard provisions of Schedule 4 of the Land Transfer Regulations 2002 and/or the Fifth Schedule of the Property Law Act 2007 except as varied herein:

1. Any terms used in this Easement that are defined in the Land Transfer Regulations 2002 shall take those meanings.
2. Where there is a conflict between the provisions of Schedule 4 of the Land Transfer Regulations 2002, and the modifications in this Easement, the modifications in this Easement shall prevail.
3. Reference in Clauses 3, 4, 6 and 9 of Schedule 4 of the Land Transfer Regulations 2002 shall be deleted for the purpose of this Easement.
4. The Grantee shall have the full free right to:
  - (a) Install and maintain the Easement Facilities under the soil of the Stipulated Course to a depth of at least one (1) metre and to use such Easement Facilities for the purposes of the easements granted under this instrument.
  - (b) Enter on to the Servient Tenement using all reasonable routes, with or without vehicles and with material, equipment, machinery and to remain there for the purpose of laying down, constructing, maintaining, inspecting, repairing or replacing the Easement Facilities as may be necessary to enable the Grantee to receive the full free use and enjoyment of the rights and privileges granted herein, provided that the Grantee shall use its reasonable endeavours to give the Grantor reasonable notice of its intention to enter, prior to entering the Servient Tenement except in the case of emergencies (including where entry is necessary in circumstances of possible danger to life or property or necessary to maintaining the continuity or safety of the easements hereunder) when it will be entitled to exercise its rights under this Easement without notice.
5. In exercising its rights under this Easement, the Grantee shall restore the surface of the Servient Tenement as nearly as possible to its former condition including recontouring the Servient Tenement to ensure that a minimum cover of one (1) metre is maintained above the Easement Facilities and make good all damage to the Servient Tenement, structures or improvements on the Servient Tenement directly or indirectly caused by the Grantee in exercising its rights hereunder.

granted to the Grantee may be interfered with or affected. The issue by the Grantee of a building consent pursuant to the Building Act 2004 (or any modification or re-enactment thereof) shall not be regarded as written consent for the purpose of this clause.

8. The Grantee shall be responsible for the installation, repair, replacement and maintenance of the Easement Facilities so as to keep the same in good order and repair and condition and to prevent the same from becoming a nuisance. The cost of installation, maintenance, repair and replacement of the Easement Facilities will be the sole responsibility of the Grantee.

Notwithstanding paragraph 8 hereof, if any repair or replacement of the Easement Facilities is necessary due to any act or omission, neglect or fault of the Grantor or the Grantor’s employees, contractors, agents, tenants, licensees or invitees, the Grantor will promptly carry out such repair or replacement and will bear the cost of such repair or replacement. 11. The Grantee’s rights to the Easement Facilities under this Easement are exclusive to the Grantee.

14. If at any time any of the easements granted under this instrument are surrendered, the Grantee shall be required to leave the Easement Facilities in a safe condition and if necessary restore the Servient Tenement to the condition it was in prior to this Easement being granted.

16. Ownership

The ownership of the Easement Facilities installed in, over, on or under the Servient Tenement from time to time by the Grantee shall at all times remain vested in the Grantee and no person shall have any estate or interest in such Easement Facilities by reason only of having an interest or estate in the Servient Tenement.
