Economic Development

Crown Entities Act 2004

Notice by the Minister of Energy Pursuant to Section 36 (4) of the Crown Entities Act 2004

Office of Hon David Parker
Minister of Energy
13 September 2006

Roy Hemmingway
Chair
Electricity Commission
P.O. Box 10-041
Wellington

Dear Roy

As discussed, I would like you to finish your time as a member and chair of the Electricity Commission on 30 November 2006. This letter sets out the situation in terms of the Crown Entities Act 2004.

I will shortly be commencing a process to appoint your successor, however to provide you certainty, this letter constitutes written notice that you will cease to be a member of the Electricity Commission in accordance with section 36 (1) of the Crown Entities Act 2004 ("the Act") with effect from 30 November 2006.

As you are aware, your term as a member and as chair of the Electricity Commission expires on 14 September 2006.

In accordance with section 32 of the Act, your term as member continues despite expiry. Section 45 (b) of the Act provides that a member ceases to hold office when the member is removed from office. In accordance with clause 2 (d) of Schedule 5 of the Act, your term as chair is extended until 30 November 2006.

Therefore, with effect from 30 November 2006 you will cease to be a member of the Electricity Commission and your term as chair will cease at that time in accordance with clause 2 (c) of Schedule 5 of the Act.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation for all that you have done since you took up your appointment in September 2003.

When you arrived in New Zealand there was nothing in place and now under your stewardship we have a fully functioning Commission which has tackled a very heavy workload.

In accordance with section 36 (2) of the Act a copy of this letter has been provided to the Electricity Commission.

A copy of the letter will also be published in the New Zealand Gazette in accordance with section 36 (4).

I wish you well for the future.

Yours sincerely

DAVID PARKER, Minister of Energy.

Designation of Auditing Agency

Pursuant to section 32 of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001 ("the Act"), the Director-General of Health designates New Zealand Council on Healthcare Standards Incorporated (Te Taumata Hauora) ("the auditing agency") to audit the provision or likely future provision of the following kinds of health care services:

- Hospital Care (as defined in section 4 (1) of the Act)
- Rest Home Care (as defined in section 6 (2) of the Act)
- Residential Disability Care (as defined in section 4 (1) of the Act)

This designation is subject to the following conditions:

1. The auditing agency must ensure that where it audits the provision of health care services for people with physical or sensory disabilities, intellectual disabilities, psychiatric disabilities or mental illnesses, the auditing agency observes the following:
 - For audits involving services for people with physical or sensory disabilities, a person with a pronounced physical or sensory disability must fully participate in all aspects of the audit.
 - For audits involving services for people with intellectual disabilities, a person with an intellectual disability (accompanied by a support person where necessary), or a close family or whānau member of a person with an intellectual disability, must participate in all aspects of the audit.

- For people with psychiatric disabilities or mental illnesses, a past or present consumer of mental health services must fully participate in all aspects of the audit.
2. The auditing agency is required to conduct annual health and disability focused audits, together with a compliance audit against the requirements of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001.
 3. The auditing agency is required to conduct annual health and disability services sector focused management reviews.
 4. The auditing agency is required to provide written details of its internal appeals process to all clients.

This notice, which expires on 5 August 2008, revokes in its entirety the notice that designated Quality Health New Zealand pursuant to section 32 of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001, published in the New Zealand Gazette, 18 August 2005, No. 130, page 3180.

Notice of Making of a Recommendation Concerning the Electricity Governance Rules 2003 – Rule Amendment Proposal No. 90

1. This notice of a recommendation concerning the Electricity Governance Rules 2003 ("Rules"), Rule Amendment Proposal No. 90, is issued by the Electricity Commission ("Commission"), pursuant to section 172E (2) (c) of the Electricity Act 1992 ("Act").

2. Section 172E (2) (c) of the Act provides that, no later than 10 working days after making a recommendation concerning the Rules to the Minister of Energy, the Commission must publicise the recommendation and the assessment completed under section 172F of the Act.

Recommendation

3. On 19 September 2006, the Commission made a recommendation that the Rules be amended to update Schedule D2 of Part D of the Rules.

4. Section 172F (3) of the Rules provides that the Commission is not required to comply with section 172F (1) (which relates to carrying out an assessment) if it is satisfied that the effect of the recommendation is minor and will not adversely affect the interests of any person in a substantial way. In reliance on section 172F (3), no such assessment has been carried out.

Recommended Amendment to the Rules

5. The recommended amendment to the Rules is to update Schedule D2 of Part D by:

- (a) inserting information regarding four new GXPs;
- (b) deleting two superfluous and, in some cases, inaccurate columns of information ("meter" and "location" columns); and
- (c) amending other inaccurate data.

Notice of Making of a Recommendation and Assessment Concerning the Electricity Governance Rules 2003 – Rule Amendment Proposal No. 99

1. This notice of a recommendation and assessment concerning the Electricity Governance Rules 2003 ("Rules"), Rule Amendment Proposal No. 99, is issued by the Electricity Commission ("Commission"), established under the Electricity Act 1992 ("Act"), pursuant to section 172E (2) (c) of that Act.

2. Section 172E (2) (c) of the Act provides that, no later than 10 working days after making a recommendation concerning the Rules to the Minister of Energy, the Commission must publicise the recommendation and the assessment completed under section 172F of the Act.

Recommendation

3. On 18 September 2006, the Commission recommended that the existing Schedule C5 of Part C of the Rules, which contains the procurement plan, be replaced in its entirety with a new Schedule C5.

Recommended Amendments to the Rules

4. The key changes between the existing Schedule C5 and the one recommended by the Commission are set out below:

- (a) an increase in the system operator's standard charge-out rates for administrative costs relating to procurement (clause 45);
- (b) new clauses to be included in any new long-term contract for over-frequency reserve, voltage support or black start (clauses 75 to 77) to specify:
 - (i) the system operator can cancel a contract by giving the service provider one month's notice if, in the system operator's reasonable opinion, the number or duration of maintenance outages of equipment used to provide or monitor the ancillary service is such that it substantially detrimentally affects the service provider's ability to provide or monitor the ancillary service; and
 - (ii) a formula for annual adjustment of the availability or event fees is to be agreed between the system operator and the ancillary services agent;
- (c) an updated commentary by the system operator on the competitive cost pressures and degree of market innovation involved in ancillary service procurement for the plan year (clauses 81 to 83);
- (d) clarification of the response rate required of generating units to provide frequency keeping ancillary service (clause 90);
- (e) amendment of existing provisions to cancel an existing offer or submit a new or revised offer later than two hours prior to the beginning of a trading period:
 - (i) by extending the existing provision to situations where the system operator has issued a formal notice (clause 113);
 - (ii) by requiring a service provider to report all cancellations or submissions that have been made later than two hours prior to the beginning of the trading period, to the system operator in writing with an explanation for each (clause 114);
 - (iii) by requiring a service provider to prepare a written monthly report of all such cancellations and submissions by the 20th of the month following the month being reported (clause 114); and

- (iv) by requiring the system operator to include details of any late cancellation reported to it in the system operator's report to the Board (clause 84);
- (f) new clauses that allow the term of an ancillary service procurement contract for frequency keeping or instantaneous reserve to be shorter or longer than the term of the procurement plan (clauses 115 and 140);
- (g) amendment of existing clauses to increase the specificity of fast instantaneous reserve and the calculation of instantaneous reserve delivered in an under-frequency event by interruptible load, including an allowance for "load pickup" (clauses 125 to 128);
- (h) a new clause requiring data on the response of instantaneous reserve to be measured, recorded, and provided by generating units for thermal generating stations and hydro stations that provide a combination of tail water depressed and partly loaded spinning reserve, and by station for other hydro generating stations (clause 130);
- (i) new clauses which explain the system operator will continue to procure over-frequency reserve and black start under existing long-term contracts during the term of this procurement plan unless they are terminated (clauses 157, 198); and
- (j) amendment of an existing requirement for a black start service provider to progressively energise the grid from network busbars, to a requirement that it provides generation output that supports the initial charging of transmission circuits and assets, and the progressive energising of the grid at network busbars (clauses 188.3, 188.4).

Environmental Risk Management Authority

Hazardous Substances and New Organisms Act 1996

Notice of Intention to Issue Code of Practice

Pursuant to section 79 of the Hazardous Substances and New Organisms Act 1996, the Environmental Risk Management Authority gives notice that it intends to issue the Flammable Liquids Tank Wagon Code of Practice.

This code specifies the requirements for the design and construction of tank wagons used to transport flammable liquids.

This code has been developed by a working party representing tank wagon manufacturers and oil wholesalers.

It sets out a means of compliance with the requirements of Regulations 6-18, 20-24, 26-29, 32-37 and 42 of the Hazardous Substances (Tank Wagons and Transportable Containers) Regulations 2004 in respect of tank wagons transporting hazardous substances with class 3.1 hazard classification.

Written submissions in relation to the approval of this code can be made by mail, facsimile or email to:

Code of Practice Submissions, Hazardous Substances Group, ERMA New Zealand, P.O. Box 131, Wellington.
Facsimile: (04) 914 0433. Email: dginfo@ermanz.govt.nz

Submissions close on 13 October 2006.

A copy of the code can be inspected at the Wellington office of ERMA New Zealand, Level One, BP House, 20 Customhouse Quay, Wellington.

It is also available on the ERMA New Zealand web site:
