ADMISSION, TRANSFER AND RESIGNATION

COMPLAINTS

26. (1) In this By-Law, "complaint" means any complaint that a member of The AusIMM has breached an obligation in the By-Laws, the Code of Ethics or any other Code of The AusIMM, or any rule published by the Board prevailing at the time of the alleged incident which constitutes the basis for the complaint.
- (2) The Board will establish a Complaints Committee and an Ethics Committee to which responsibility for processing and adjudicating complaints will be delegated.

The Complaints Committee will consist of three Fellows selected from a panel established for that purpose, by the Board following its call for nominations, from time to time. The Complaints Committee shall elect its own Chair for a period agreed amongst its members. All complaints, whatever their nature, shall be in writing and shall initially be referred to the Complaints Committee. The Complaints Committee processes and powers shall be those determined by the Board.

The Ethics Committee will consist of four Fellows selected from a panel established for that purpose, by the Board after its call for nominations from time to time, and one Board member, nominated annually by the Board. The Committee shall include only one Board member. Three members shall constitute a quorum for meetings of the Ethics Committee. The Ethics Committee will only consider complaints alleging infringements of The AusIMM's Code of Ethics referred to it by the Complaints Committee. The Ethics Committee shall elect a Chair from among its members, the Board representative being ineligible to act in this role. The Board representative shall advise the Board of Ethics Committee matters which have implications for The AusIMM or for the Board.

- (3) Any member, individual or organisation may lodge a complaint in respect of the actions of a member of The AusIMM. Every complaint shall be made in writing and shall, in the first instance be referred to the Chair of the Complaints Committee. The Complaints Committee may seek legal opinion or advice from independent experts or from the Board and/or the CEO of The AusIMM. The Complaints Committee may also seek additional evidence relating to the complaint.
- (4) The Complaints Committee must consider every complaint and after deliberation may:
 - (i) recommend the complaint be settled by alternative dispute procedures in the case of a commercial dispute;
 - (ii) refer the complaint to judicial processes where a breach of the law may have been committed;
 - (iii) in the case of a complaint relating to a breach of either the JORC or the VALMIN codes, discuss with the relevant regulatory authority and jointly agree a process for its resolution;
 - (iv) deal with the complaint if deemed within the authority of the Complaints Committee;
 - (v) refer the complaint to the Ethics Committee if breaches of The AusIMM's Code of Ethics are alleged or suspected;
 - (vi) dismiss the complaint.

The Complaints Committee may determine matters which it deems are breaches of Codes (excluding the Code of Ethics), Statutes or rules of The AusIMM, and if non-compliance is established, impose a penalty which may include a reprimand, mediation and/or counselling. Suspension of membership may not be imposed by the Complaints Committee. The AusIMM will provide, on request, a written statement setting out the reasons for the decision of the Complaints Committee.

Any decision of the Complaints Committee may be appealed to the Ethics Committee.

- (5) A complaint referred to the Ethics Committee under By-Law 26(4)(v) for hearing and determination must be referred as expeditiously as is reasonable, and the member against whom the complaint was made shall be advised that this process is being followed. The Ethics Committee shall deal with all complaints directed to it by the Complaints Committee and any appeals against Complaints Committee decisions brought before it.

- (6) A member against whom a complaint alleging a breach of ethics is made shall be entitled to notice in writing of the grounds of the complaint and to a reasonable opportunity to be heard in respect of such complaint before the Ethics Committee, and the procedure to be adopted in respect of an ethics complaint shall be at the discretion of the Ethics Committee. The Ethics Committee may obtain independent or legal advice on evidence before it, but cannot seek additional evidence or bring an ethics complaint against any member of its own accord.
- (7) At the conclusion of the hearing of an ethics complaint, the Ethics Committee may find that the complaint has not been established, or may find that the non-compliance or unethical behaviour has been established, in which case the Ethics Committee may decide to take no further action, or it may warn or reprimand the member concerned, or resolve that the membership of the member concerned be suspended for a period not exceeding 12 months or that the member be expelled from The AusIMM. The Ethics Committee may recommend that notice of the breach be published in a publication of The AusIMM and may require recovery of costs incurred by The AusIMM from a member deemed to be in breach.

The AusIMM will provide, on request, a written statement setting out the reasons for the decision of the Ethics Committee.
- (8) In relation to an appeal against a decision of the Complaints Committee, the Ethics Committee may uphold the decision of the Complaints Committee or re-classify the complaint and the manner in which it is to be handled.
- (9) A decision of the Ethics Committee may be appealed.

An appeal may be made to, and considered by an independent third party acceptable to both the Board and the appellant.
- (10) All deliberations of the Complaints Committee and of the Ethics Committee shall be privileged and confidential.
- (11) A member about whom a complaint has been made may be represented at any hearing of that complaint or at any appeal by a duly qualified legal practitioner.
- (12) When all avenues of appeal to a member's suspension or expulsion have been exhausted and the decision of the Ethics Committee in respect of the matters under investigation has been upheld, or if there has been no appeal, the Board shall act on the Resolution of the Ethics Committee and direct that the member's name be removed from the Register for the period of suspension, or permanently, in the case of expulsion.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

27. Entrance and transfer fees and annual subscriptions shall be determined by the Board. The Board may not increase subscriptions by more than ten per cent in any year without first seeking the approval of the membership at the Annual General Meeting or at an Extraordinary General Meeting.

A member who has reached the age of 60 years and has a combined age plus years of paid subscription amounting to 95 may apply to pay a reduced annual subscription equal to 25 per cent of the annual subscription payable by the grade of member to which the member belongs.

A member with at least five years of paid subscription who has reached the age of 55 years and has retired or substantially retired may apply to pay a reduced annual subscription equal to 50 per cent of the annual subscription for the applicable grade of membership. Substantial retirement means that professional income is less than ten per cent of the pre-retirement income, and members making application for retired status will be requested to attest to this income position.

The Board has complete discretion in approving the transfer of a member to either concessional or retired status and the payment of a reduced subscription. Payment of a reduced subscription will not result in any reduction in the benefits of membership.

The Board may, in special circumstances, agree to suspend the membership of a member who is not in arrears and who is suffering extreme hardship and reinstate the member without payment of any fee when the hardship has ceased.

28. Annual subscriptions shall be payable by 1st January each year. Any member elected on or after 1st July of any year shall pay the prescribed entrance or transfer fee and half the annual subscription for that year.

29. Any member whose subscription is three months in arrears shall not be entitled to vote, participate in any activities of The AusIMM, receive publications or sign any reports implying membership of The AusIMM until such subscription is paid.

Authorities and Other Agencies of State Notices

Electricity Commission

Electricity Act 1992

Notice of Making of Electricity Governance Amendment Rules (No. 37) 2006 and Notice of Reasons for Decision

1. Pursuant to section 172I of the Electricity Act 1992 ("Act"), I notify the amendment of the Electricity Governance Rules 2003 ("Rules") under section 172H of the Act.

2. The empowering provisions for the Electricity Governance Regulations 2003 in relation to which the amendments to the Rules are made are sections 172D (1) (3) and 172D (1) (4) of the Act.

3. The existing policy statement in Schedule C4 of Part C of the Rules will be replaced in its entirety with a new Schedule C4. The key changes from the existing Schedule C4 are set out below:

- Specific inclusion of events arising during asset commissioning (clause 12.1) as possible credible events that might cause cascade failure;
- defining the term "transmission circuit", the loss of which is described as a contingent event in clause 12.4, as being any transmission line owned by the grid owner, or any distribution line owned by a participant to which not less than a sum of 60 MW of generation is connected and which distribution line is connected to the grid primarily for the purpose of injection into the grid;

- a minor drafting change to the wording of clause 24 relating to frequency keeping and time error management;
 - inclusion of a new section on regional contingency planning (clauses 40-41) to reflect the role the system operator plays in co-ordinating management of power security in regions as may be required from time to time;
 - inclusion of new clauses (56-59) in the "Allocation of Demand Reduction" section to outline existing demand shedding process and, in particular, the status of, and process for, issuing demand allocation notices;
 - inclusion of new clauses (83-85) which provide a process by which asset owners can notify the system operator of temporary unexpected changes to asset capability via an urgent change notice (a newly defined term); and
 - inclusion of a new clause (108) to inform asset owners that they can use a template, which the system operator will publish on its web site, to inform the system operator of asset capabilities during commissioning or other testing.
4. Pursuant to section 172Z (4) of the Act, the reasons for my decision to amend the Rules are that:
- the changes contained in the new Schedule C4 improve the policies and means by which the system operator can comply with the principal performance obligations and provide better transparency and clarity to participants as to the policies the system operator intends to follow to meet the principal performance obligations; and

- the new policy statement complies with the requirement in the Rules to review the policy statement annually.

5. These Rules come into force on 31 August 2006.

6. Copies of the Rules may be inspected free of charge or purchased from the Electricity Commission, Level Seven, ASB Bank Tower, 2 Hunter Street, Wellington.

The Rules can also be viewed on the Electricity Commission's web site:

The Community Trust of Otago was incorporated as a charitable trust in accordance with the provisions of the Community Trusts Act 1999.

These are the consolidated financial statements of The Community Trust of Otago and its wholly owned subsidiaries: The Community Trust Amateur Sports Co Limited, The Community Trust District Improvement Company Limited and Fillmor House Limited.

The financial statements have been prepared to comply with the Financial Reporting Act 1993 and comprise consolidated statements of the following: Financial performance, movement in trust funds, financial position, cashflows, as well as notes to these financial statements.

The financial statements are prepared on the basis of historical cost, except for the revaluation of managed funds.

Specific Accounting PoliciesIncome

Income from managed funds includes both realised and unrealised income and is recorded gross of fund management expenses.

Interest is recognised on an accrual basis.

Foreign Currencies

All amounts denominated in foreign currencies are converted to New Zealand dollars at balance date. All realised and unrealised gains and losses are recognised in the statement of financial performance.

Taxation

With effect from 1 April 2004, community trusts, including The Community Trust of Otago, became exempt from income tax pursuant to section CW of the Income Tax Act 2004.

Fillmor House Limited is the only subsidiary liable for income tax. Income tax is recognised on the surplus available for distribution before taxation, adjusting for differences between taxable and accounting income. Future tax benefits are not recognised unless realisation of the asset is virtually certain.

Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation.

Depreciation

Depreciation has been charged to the financial statement using rates which will write off the cost of assets less their estimated residual value over their estimated economic lives. The depreciation rates used are:

Buildings	4% diminishing value
Office furniture and equipment	12-48% diminishing value

Donations Payable

Donations payable represents donations approved by the trustees but unpaid as at balance date.

Receivables

Receivables are stated at estimated realisable value after providing against debts where collection is doubtful. Bad debts are written off during the period in which they are identified.

GST

Subsidiaries of The Community Trust of Otago, Fillmor House Limited and The Community Trust District Improvement Company Limited are registered for GST. Accordingly, their financial performance and financial position have been consolidated within the accounts on a GST exclusive basis.
