General Notices

Notice of Decision of the Disciplinary Tribunal (Member Guilty of Misconduct in a Professional Capacity, Conduct Unbecoming an Accountant and Breaching the Institute's Code of Ethics)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held in public on the 30th day of May 2006, at which the member was in attendance and represented by counsel, Clement Chun-Wang Chak, of Auckland, pleaded guilty to the following charges (1), (2), (3) and (4) and admitted the following particulars 1 (a), (b), (c) and (d) and 2 (a), (i), (ii), (iii), (iv), (v), (vi), (vii), (viii), (b), (c), (d) and (e).

Charges

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30, the member is guilty of:

- (1) misconduct in a professional capacity; and/or
- (2) negligence and/or incompetence in a professional capacity, that has been of such a degree and/or so frequent as to reflect on his fitness to practise as an accountant and/or tends to bring the profession into disrepute; and/or
- (3) breaching the institute's code of ethics; and/or
- (4) supplying information to the institute which was false or misleading.

Particulars

IN THAT:

1. In his role as a chartered accountant in public practice and in relation to a complaint, the member:
 - (a) failed to advise the complainant that he had received his 2002 and/or 2003 terminal tax refunds and/or company A's 2002 and/or 2003 terminal tax refunds; and/or
 - (b) failed to obtain the written consent of the complainant to record his bank account details on their tax returns that he subsequently filed with the Inland Revenue Department (IRD); and/or
 - (c) misled the complainant in that he advised him that the IRD was holding his refund and/or refunds when the funds were in his bank account; and/or
 - (d) misled the complainant in that he claimed that the IRD would deposit funds into the client's bank account when, in fact, he transferred the funds into the complainant's bank account directly from his own bank account.
2. Being a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand and in his role as a chartered accountant in public practice, the member:

- (a) dealt with client monies through bank accounts (suffixes 90, 25 and 00) that were established and operated in breach of Professional Standard No. 2 "Client Monies" ("PS-2"). In particular he:
 - (i) failed to establish a trust account to deal with client monies (paragraphs 7 to 13); and/or
 - (ii) failed to credit interest earned on client monies held in his bank accounts to the clients concerned, within a reasonable period of time (paragraph 15); and/or
 - (iii) failed to record details on receipt of client monies in accordance with paragraph 24; and/or
 - (iv) withdrew client monies from his bank accounts other than in accordance with paragraph 26 of PS-2; and/or
 - (v) used client monies for private transactions, thereby obtaining a benefit from client monies without prior written authority (paragraph 34); and/or
 - (vi) retained client funds, particularly tax refunds, for longer than was reasonably necessary (paragraph 38); and/or
 - (vii) failed to balance client monies records and reconcile these to the bank accounts in accordance with paragraph 49; and/or
 - (viii) failed to keep a record of client monies in accordance with paragraph 50;
- (b) did not hold appropriate client authorities to have IRD refunds direct credited to his bank accounts; and/or
- (c) altered bank account details of clients recorded in clients' income tax returns subsequent to them signing their tax returns but prior to filing them with the IRD; and/or
- (d) misled practice review, in that he led them to believe that he did not receive or hold money on behalf of his clients, when in fact he did; and/or
- (e) misled the professional conduct committee, in that he gave the impression to the investigator appointed by the committee that his account used for client monies was used infrequently when, in fact, it was used on a regular basis.

Reasons

The tribunal has had regard to the fact that no client has lost money, that interest has been paid albeit late, and that client money systems are now compliant and that the member has given assurances that they will continue to be so. The member has co-operated with the investigation. Without these mitigating factors, the tribunal would have imposed a much greater penalty.

Orders of the Tribunal

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (c) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal orders that Clement Chun-Wang Chak pay a monetary penalty of $15,000.00.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (e) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the practice of Clement Chun-Wang Chak as to client monies be investigated by the professional conduct committee as soon as practical and again one year later.
- (c) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (m) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Clement Chun-Wang Chak pay the complainant the sum of $5,000.00 in respect of the costs and expenses incurred by the complainant in relation to the complaint or the matters which gave rise to it.
- (d) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Clement Chun-Wang Chak pay to the institute the sum of $6,483.00 (inclusive of GST) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal, the New Zealand Gazette and the New Zealand Herald with mention of the member's name and locality and that the decision be circulated to the clients of the practice.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Dated this 2nd day of June 2006.

R. J. O. HOARE, Tribunal Chairman.

- (a) is the sole director and shareholder of Grayburn Ross & Partners (Putaruru) Limited, a company offering accounting services to the public, which was convicted in the Tokoroa District Court on or about the 10th day of June 2005, under the Tax Administration Act 1994, for failing to furnish income tax returns from 2001 to 2004, and under the Goods and Services Tax Act 1985, for failing to furnish GST returns for three taxable periods in 2004.

Reasons

Conviction on these charges reflects badly on the profession. It is not good enough for a practising member representing their tax expertise to the public to so mismanage their own affairs.

Orders of the Tribunal

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (k) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Robert Philip Bell be censured.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Robert Philip Bell pay to the institute the sum of $3,434.00 (inclusive of GST) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision of the tribunal be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal and the New Zealand Gazette with mention of the member's name and locality.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Notice of Decision of the Disciplinary Tribunal (Member Guilty of Misconduct in a Professional Capacity, Conduct Unbecoming an Accountant and Breaching the Institute's Rules or Code of Ethics)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held in public on the 30th day of May 2006, at which the member elected not to attend and was not represented by counsel, Rakesh Sharma, provisional member of Auckland, pleaded guilty to the following charges (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) and admitted the following particulars (a), (b), (c) and (d).

- (4) failing to pay a sum due to the institute by the date specified for payment; and/or
- (5) failing to comply with an order made by the professional conduct committee.

Particulars

IN THAT being a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand and in relation to a complaint, the member:

Reasons

The member has exhibited a cavalier disregard for his responsibilities as a member and has treated the institute and its Rules with contempt. The member has also made it clear that he does not intend to seek full membership of the institute.

It was the unanimous decision of the tribunal that the member be removed from membership of the institute, that he pay full costs and that there be full publicity.

Social Security Act 1964

Maximum Contribution Applying in Each Territorial Local Authority Region From 1 July 2006

Under section 152 of the Social Security Act 1964, the Director-General of Health is required to notify the maximum contribution that applies in each region.

The maximum contribution is the maximum weekly amount (inclusive of GST) that a resident assessed as requiring long-term residential care is required to pay for contracted care services provided to them in the region in which their rest home or continuing care hospital is located.

Contracted care services are services provided to needs assessed people in a rest home or continuing care hospital that has a contract with a District Health Board. The services provided are those necessary to meet the person's assessed care needs in accordance with the agreement between the District Health Board and the residential care provider.

The agreement covers:

- residents who are eligible for the residential care subsidy (as determined through a financial means assessment under section 141 of the Act); and
- needs assessed persons who are entitled to have funding paid on their behalf (under section 140) to cover the difference between the maximum contribution and the cost of contracted care services provided to them.

The maximum contribution is the same for all residents regardless of the type of contracted care services they receive.

The maximum contribution set by this New Zealand Gazette notice applies from 1 July 2006 and replaces the previous maximum contribution notice published in the New Zealand Gazette, 2 March 2006, No. 19, page 441.

It is equivalent to the most recent, nationally agreed rest home contract price applying to residential care facilities in each territorial local authority region.

The maximum contribution will change only when a new maximum contribution is gazetted.

New maximum contributions will reflect changes to rest home contract prices that usually result from the annual review of the residential care contract between District Health Boards and residential care providers.

Notes to the Financial Statements for the Year Ended 31 March 2006

1. Statement of Accounting Policies

1.1 Reporting Entity

Eastern and Central Community Trust Incorporated is a charitable trust incorporated in accordance with the provisions of the Community Trusts Act 1999.

During the year the Eastern and Central Community Trust Charities Limited was liquidated voluntarily, and the proceeds transferred to the Eastern and Central Community Trust Incorporated.

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Financial Reporting Act 1993.

1.2 Measurement Base

The measurement base applied is that of historical cost adjusted for the market valuation of investments.

1.3 Specific Accounting Policies

The following are the particular accounting policies, which have a material effect on the measurement of results and financial position.

1.3.1 Investment Income

Investment income is accounted for on an accruals basis recognising both realised and unrealised gains or losses in value.

1.3.2 Foreign Currency

Foreign currency balances are converted to NZD at the year end rate of exchange unless covered by a forward exchange contract. Where such contracts are in place, the contracted rate is adopted. Transactions completed during the year are converted at the rate applying at the approximate date of the transaction. Foreign exchange gains and losses are included within the statement of financial performance.

1.3.3 Investments

Investments are recorded at market value at year-end.

1.3.4 Cash

Cash comprises cash at bank, call deposits and short-term deposits but does not include cash held by fund managers. Cash flows from operations include withdrawals of income from managed funds.

1.3.5 Donations

Donations are recognised as a liability of the trust when they are approved by trustees and notified to applicants notwithstanding that the applicants may still have to fulfil some conditions.

1.3.6 Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation.

1.3.7 Depreciation

Depreciation is provided on a straight line basis on all tangible fixed assets at rates calculated to allocate the assets' cost less estimated residual value over their estimated useful lives.

The depreciation periods are:

Computer equipment	three years
Furniture	ten years
Office equipment	five years

1.3.8 GST inclusive accounting has been adopted, as the trust is not registered for GST.1.4 Changes in Accounting Policies

There have been no changes in accounting policies. All policies have been consistently applied.
