(2) Nothing in subsection (1) limits the application to this programme of any other provision of the Act.

6. Eligibility for community costs payments—(1) A person is eligible for community costs payments under this programme if he or she is a resident (whether continuously or not) in one or more short-term residential treatment programmes for a period or total period of not more than 26 weeks within a 52-week period commencing on the date of the person's entry into the treatment programme or, as the case requires, the first treatment programme.

(2) Where a resident has completed a period or total period of 26 weeks residence in one or more treatment programmes within the 52-week period referred to in subclause (1), the chief executive may, during one period of not more than 13 weeks or 13 weeks in total within that 52-week period, continue to treat the resident as an eligible person if the chief executive is satisfied:

- (a) it has been clinically determined the resident needs, and would benefit from, further treatment in the treatment programme; and
- (b) he or she continues to be a resident (whether continuously or not) in that treatment programme or in one or more other treatment programmes.

7. Ineligibility—A person is ineligible for CC payments if he or she:

- (a) is a person receiving residential care services funded wholly or partly under the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000; or
- (b) is a resident assessed as requiring care within the meaning of section 136 of the Act; or

 - (ii) the dependent child of a person; or
 - (iii) a child for whom payments are being made under section 363 of the Children, Young Persons, and Their Families Act 1989; or
- (e) has cash assets (including the cash assets of his or her spouse or partner (if any)) of more than:
 - (i) in the case of a single person, the amount in clause 1 of Schedule 31 of the Act; or
 - (ii) in the case of a person who is married or in a civil union or is a sole parent, the amount in clause 2 of that Schedule; or

- (f) is a person whose income (including the income of his or her spouse or partner if any) is more than the appropriate amount set out in Part 2 of Schedule 31 of the Act.

8. Application form must be completed—(1) Community costs payments may be granted to an applicant only if an application form for the purpose is completed in writing by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) The form must be provided by the chief executive.

(3) The form must, when completed, set out the information required to allow:

- (a) the applicant's eligibility for CC payments to be assessed; and
- (b) the rate of any CC payments payable to the applicant to be determined.

9. CC payments towards community costs—(1) The chief executive may, in his or her discretion, having regard to the matters set out in subclause (2), grant an applicant who is an eligible person CC payments towards meeting one or more of the applicant's community costs.

(2) The matters referred to in subclause (1) are:

- (a) whether the amount of the community cost is a reasonable cost for the item or service concerned;
- (b) whether the applicant is a beneficiary, and is required to contribute to the cost of the treatment programme from his or her benefit;
- (c) whether the applicant's income (including the income of his or her spouse or partner (if any)) is sufficient to meet the applicant's community costs, taking account of the extent to which the applicant is required to contribute to the cost of the treatment programme from that income;
- (d) whether the applicant has a spouse or partner residing in the community and whether any other assistance available under the Act to that spouse or partner, or to both the applicant and his or her spouse or partner, will help meet the applicant's community costs;
- (e) whether there is any other assistance available to the applicant or his or her spouse or partner under the Act or any other enactment or from any other person or organisation or any government agency that could help meet the applicant's community costs and the efforts made by the applicant or (as the case requires) the applicant's spouse or partner to obtain any such assistance;
- (f) whether the granting of CC payments, or CC payments of any particular amount would result in the applicant and his or her spouse or partner (if any) receiving a financial benefit compared with the amount of the benefits and other assistance available to them if they were resident in the community; and
- (g) any other matters the chief executive considers relevant.

10. Amounts and limits of CC payments—(1) Where the chief executive grants CC payments towards any community cost:

- (a) the amount of the CC payments granted must be set by the chief executive having regard to the matters in clause 9 (2); and
- (b) the weekly amount of the CC payments must not exceed the amount of that community cost reckoned on a weekly basis.

(2) The amount or total amount of CC payments granted in any week must not exceed $300.00 a week except in exceptional circumstances.

11. Period for which CC payments payable—(1) CC payments granted under this programme commence not earlier than:

- (a) the date of the applicant's entry into the treatment programme if the application for CC payments is made before or within 28 days after that date; or
- (b) the date of application in any other case.

(2) CC payments end (if they have not ended earlier):

- (a) on the date the applicant's intended period of residence in the treatment programme ends; or
- (b) on any earlier date on which the applicant leaves the programme.

(3) Subclause (2) (a) is subject to clause 6 (2).

(4) Nothing in subclause (2) requires the chief executive to continue to make CC payments towards any particular community cost if the chief executive is satisfied the applicant has ceased to incur that cost.

Schedule

Clause 4

Community Costs

1 A cost is a community cost only if it is an ongoing cost the chief executive considers it is essential for the applicant to incur to help to reintegrate the applicant into the community at the conclusion of his or her residence in a short-term residential treatment programme and is not a cost to which clause 3 applies.

2 Without limiting clause 1, the following ongoing costs of a resident are examples of community costs:

- (a) The costs of retaining any premises;
- (b) where the resident is not retaining premises while a resident, storage costs for the resident's motor vehicle (if any) and household furniture and effects;
- (c) agreed period payments (within the meaning of clause 6 of Schedule 2 of the Social Security (Temporary Additional Support) Regulations 2005) for essential household furniture or appliances acquired before becoming a resident;
- (d) the costs of childcare for any dependent child of the resident;
- (e) costs relating to the retention of the resident's employment or place in an employment-related training course.

3 The following costs are not community costs:

- (a) Payments on account of any child support liability under the Child Support Act 1991 or any maintenance liability under the Family Proceedings Act 1980;
- (b) payments towards any fine, reparation, damages, or penalty imposed, awarded or ordered by any court;
- (c) payments of any tax, penalty, or duty imposed by or under any enactment (other than any goods and services tax payable on any community cost).

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the programme, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This programme, which takes effect on 1 April 2006, provides for discretionary grants of financial assistance to residents of certain short-term residential programmes providing alcohol and other drug treatment, to meet essential costs in the community needed to help them integrate back into the community at the end of their residence in the programmes.

Electricity Commission

Electricity Act 1992

Notice of Making of Electricity Governance Amendment Rules (No. 35) 2006 and Notice of Reasons for Decision

1. Pursuant to section 172I of the Electricity Act 1992 ("Act"), I notify the amendment of the Electricity Governance Rules 2003 ("Rules") under section 172H of the Act.

2. The empowering provision for the electricity governance regulations in relation to which the amendments to the Rules are made is section 172D (1) (1) of the Act.

3. A brief description of the nature of the amendments is that they:

- remove from the Rules the requirement for generators to submit offers for maximum partly loaded spinning reserve and maximum tail water depressed reserve via COMIT;
- allow offers that are made prior to the must-run dispatch auction to be made at zero price;
- remove the "good till cancelled" option on offer and bid forms, as it is made redundant by other existing Rules;

- clarify how generators make additional offers, and ancillary service agents make additional reserve offers, during a grid emergency; and

- correct minor typographical errors.

4. The amendments are made in reliance on section 172F (3) of the Act.

5. Pursuant to section 172Z (4) of the Act, the reasons for my decision to amend the Rules are that the rule changes:

- remove requirements from the Rules that participants are unable to practicably comply with;
- prevent unintended breaches of the Rules;
- remove requirements that are redundant due to other existing Rules;
- remove discrepancies from the Rules; and
- correct minor typographical errors.

6. These Rules come into force on 1 May 2006.

7. Copies of the Rules may be inspected free of charge or purchased from the Electricity Commission, Level Seven, ASB Bank Tower, 2 Hunter Street, Wellington.
