(2) The standards and specifications relate to the performance or exercise of specified functions, duties and powers by an approved service delivery organisation (ASDO). A general indication of the nature of these standards and specifications is listed in clause 4 below.

(3) The amendment to the standards and specifications will ensure that vessels are registered under section 103 (3) of the Fisheries Act 1996 for a period not in excess of 12 months.

4. Business standards and specifications—These standards and specifications relate to the general operation and management of an ASDO in exercising any specified function, duty or power including standards and specifications relating to:

- (a) ASDO operation.
- (b) performance record keeping and reporting to the Ministry.
- (c) relationship between the Minister and the ASDO, including dispute resolution.
- (d) development and use of approved forms.
- (e) information management and system requirements.
- (f) the technical operating standards for exchange of electronic data and information from an ASDO (including data exchange dictionaries).
- (g) supply of information to the Ministry to assist with requests made under the Official Information Act 1982.

5. Service standards and specifications—These standards and specifications relate to the operation and management of specific registry services by an ASDO including standards and specifications relating to:

- (a) revoking and amending approvals for licences, approvals, authorities, permissions or decisions or a registration where false or misleading information has been supplied.
- (b) monitoring and recording fishers' compliance with various reporting and record-keeping requirements.
- (c) client registration.
- (d) monitoring foreign ownership and quota aggregation provisions.
- (e) maintaining and operating registers relating to quota, annual catch entitlements (ACE), registered fishing vessels, fishing permits and the Transitional Register of Quota and Forward Trades.
- (f) recording decisions regarding quota allocation on the quota and ACE registers.
- (g) processing transfers of quota and ACE and calculating and comparing ACE with reported catch.
- (h) processing applications for caveats and mortgages.
- (i) recording decisions made by the Ministry of Fisheries on applications for fishing permits on the permit register.

- (j) registering fishing vessels except for the granting of consent to register foreign owned or operated fishing vessels or fish carriers.
- (k) processing and licensing licensed fish receiver applications.
- (l) receiving and processing of monthly harvesting returns, licensed fish receiver (LFR) returns, annual inventory returns from an LFR and annual audit reports from an LFR.
- (m) monitoring catch limits and providing reports to the Ministry regarding those limits.
- (n) issuing Section 80 (Conclusive Notification) notifications.
- (o) amending catch balances.
- (p) reviewing Section 80 (Conclusive Notification) notifications.
- (q) monitoring over-fishing thresholds and tolerance levels as set by the Minister of Fisheries from time to time and actioning breaches of those thresholds and levels.

6. Copies of standards and specifications—Full copies of the standards and specifications are available from the Head Office, Ministry of Fisheries, 256 Lambton Quay (P.O. Box 1020), Wellington.

Dated at Wellington this 29th day of August 2005.

DAVID BENSON-POPE, Minister of Fisheries.

Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001

Designation of Auditing Agency

Pursuant to section 32 of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001 ("the Act"), the Director-General of Health designates DAA Group Limited ("the auditing agency") to audit the provision or likely future provision of the following kinds of health care services:

- Hospital Care (as defined in section 4 (1) of the Act)
- Rest Home Care (as defined in section 6 (2) of the Act)
- Residential Disability Care (as defined in section 4 (1) of the Act)

This designation is subject to the following conditions:

1. The auditing agency must ensure that where it audits the provision of health care services for people with physical or sensory disabilities, intellectual disabilities, psychiatric disabilities or mental illnesses, the auditing agency observes the following:
 - For audits involving services for people with physical or sensory disabilities, a person with a pronounced physical or sensory disability must fully participate in all aspects of the audit.
 - For audits involving services for people with intellectual disabilities, a person with an intellectual disability (accompanied by a support person where necessary), or a close family or whanau member of a person with an intellectual disability must participate in all aspects of the audit.
 - For people with psychiatric disabilities or mental illnesses, a past or present consumer of mental health services must fully participate in all aspects of the audit.

2. The auditing agency must inform the Ministry of Health immediately by way of written notice if there is any change to their accreditation status with IANZ.

Under section 38 of the Act, this designation will expire three years after the date of this notification in the New Zealand Gazette.

Dated at Wellington this 23th day of August 2005.

Designation of Auditing Agency

Pursuant to section 32 of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001 ("the Act"), the Director-General of Health designates International Certifications Limited ("the auditing agency") to audit the provision or likely future provision of the following kinds of health care services:

- Hospital Care (as defined in section 4 (1) of the Act)
- Rest Home Care (as defined in section 6 (2) of the Act)
- Residential Disability Care (as defined in section 4 (1) of the Act)

This designation is subject to the following conditions:

1. The auditing agency must ensure that where it audits the provision of health care services for people with physical or sensory disabilities, intellectual disabilities, psychiatric disabilities or mental illnesses, the auditing agency observes the following:

- For audits involving services for people with physical or sensory disabilities, a person with a pronounced physical or sensory disability must fully participate in all aspects of the audit;
 - for audits involving services for people with intellectual disabilities, a person with an intellectual disability (accompanied by a support person where necessary), or a close family or whanau member of a person with an intellectual disability must participate in all aspects of the audit; and

2. The auditing agency must inform the Ministry of Health immediately by way of written notice if there is any change to their accreditation status with JAS-ANZ.
 3. The auditing agency must undergo an audit by an auditing agency commissioned by the Ministry of Health ("the audit"). The purpose of the audit is to ensure the auditing agency remains compliant with the criteria for designation set out in section 33 (b) of the Act, which are that the auditing agency:
 - has the technical expertise to audit the provision of services of the kind it has been designated to audit;
 - has in place effective systems for auditing the provision of services of the kind it has been designated to audit;
 - has in place effective arrangements to avoid or manage any conflict of interest that may arise in auditing the provision of services of the kind it is designated to audit;
 - will administer those systems and arrangements properly and competently, and in compliance with any conditions subject to which the designation is given; and
 - will comply with this Act.

The audit will take place on dates to be advised by the Ministry of Health, and must be completed within two months of the date of designation of the auditing agency (or, if not within two months of the date of designation, by any later date as advised by the Ministry of Health).

The auditing agency must supply all information required by the auditing agency for the purposes of the audit, to the auditing agency.

Under section 38 of the Act, this designation will expire three years after the date of this notification in the New Zealand Gazette.

Social Security Act 1964

Assistance to Live Organ Donors Amendment (No. 2) 2005

Pursuant to section 124 (1) (d) of the Social Security Act 1964, the Minister for Social Development and Employment establishes and approves the following amendment to the Assistance to Live Organ Donors Programme (as established and approved on 18 January 2005 and published in the New Zealand Gazette, 3 February 2005, page 774).

Dated at Wellington this 28th day of August 2005.

STEVE MAHAREY, Minister for Social Development and Employment.

A m e n d m e n t

1. Title—(1) This amendment is the Assistance to Live Organ Donors Amendment (No. 2) 2005.

(2) In this amendment, the Assistance to Live Organ Donors Programme is called “the programme”.

2. Commencement—This amendment comes into effect on the day after the date on which it is published in the New Zealand Gazette.

3. New clause inserted—The programme is amended by inserting, after clause P6, the following clause:

“P6A Treatment of foregone employment

- (1) This clause applies if a person to whom the chief executive is satisfied paragraphs (a) to (d) of clause P6 (1) apply—
 - (a) has, since 1 February 2005, foregone employment for the purpose, or the predominant purpose, of undergoing the operation to retrieve the kidney or liver tissue; and
 - (b) left his or her employment for that purpose between a date on or about the date the person received notice that a date for the operation had been allocated and the date on which the operation took place; and
 - (c) was not in employment on the date of the operation.
- (2) The chief executive may, under clause P6 (1) (f), treat the person as a person who will forego income from employment during the person’s convalescence from the operation.”

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the amendment, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This amendment to the Assistance to Live Organ Donors Programme, which comes into effect on the day after it is published in the New Zealand Gazette, allows a person who foregoes employment for the purpose of undergoing an operation to retrieve kidney or liver tissue to be treated as a person who will forego income from employment during the person’s convalescence from the operation.

1. Statement of Accounting Policies

Reporting Entity

The financial statements presented here are for the entity The Community Trust of Wellington ("the trust") and its subsidiary, Wellington Community Trust Charities Limited. The trust is an incorporated charitable trust under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957. The trust prepares its financial statements in accordance with the Act and the financial reporting standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand.

Measurement Base

The measurement base adopted is historical cost with the exception of certain items for which specified accounting policies are identified.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are stated at expected realisable value.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is calculated on a diminishing value basis to allocate the cost over its useful life:

Furniture and office equipment 9.0%DV – 48.0%DV

Investment Income (Net)

Investment income (net) includes gross investment income less management fees payable to the fund managers.

Donations

Donations made from current year's income are recorded in the statement of financial performance when paid. Donations from prior years' income are recorded in the donations reserve account when paid.

Basis of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the purchase method of consolidation and include the financial statements of the parent and subsidiary company. All significant inter-entity profits and transactions have been eliminated in preparing the consolidated financial statements.

Shares and Investments

Shares and other investments are stated at the market value. Changes in the market value of investments are taken to the statement of financial performance.

Goods and Services Tax

The financial statements have been prepared using a G.S.T. exclusive figures to the extent that G.S.T. is claimable.

Financial Instruments

All financial instruments held by the trust are recorded in the statement of financial position. The financial instruments comprise equity securities, discounted securities, secured investments, borrowings, deposits and cash. Concentrations of credit risk arise as a result of holding equity securities as investments. These are subject to the normal market risk associated with investments of this nature. There are no significant differences between the fair value and book value of financial instruments. Where possible, financial assets and liabilities are supported by collateral or other security. These arrangements are described in the individual policy statements associated with each item.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purposes of the statement of cash flows, cash comprises cash balances (net of bank overdrafts) and demand deposits. Cash excludes treasury bills that are not used as part of the group's day-to-day cash management.

Changes in Accounting Policies

There have been no changes in accounting policies. All policies have been applied on bases consistent with those used in previous years.

2. Nature of Business

The Community Trust of Wellington was incorporated as a charitable trust in accordance with the provisions of the Trustee Banks Restructuring Act 1988 and now superseded by the Community Trust Act 1999. The purpose of the community trust is to provide charitable, cultural, philanthropic and recreational benefits to the community, principally in the trust region. The nature of business of the wholly-owned company, Wellington Community Trust Charities Limited, is restricted by their constitution to providing charitable benefits to the community, principally in the region of The Community Trust of Wellington. The company was placed into voluntary liquidation on 31 March 2005. From 1 April 2005, all operating activities will be undertaken by the trust. The Community Trust of Wellington and its subsidiary company operate under the trading name "The Community Trust of Wellington".

3. Taxation

The Community Trust of Wellington is exempt from income tax under section CB4 (1) (m) of the Income Tax Act 1994. For taxation purposes, Wellington Community Trust Charities Limited is deemed to be a charitable organisation and on this basis the income is not subject to taxation. The company's charitable status was confirmed on 27 August 1997 by the Inland Revenue Department.

10. Financial Instruments

Investments are stated at estimated market value at balance date. Accounts payable, secured investments and accounts receivable are stated at the amount expected to be received or paid.

Fair Value

Accordingly, the trustees consider that the fair value of each class of financial asset and financial liabilities is the same as the carrying value in the statement of financial position.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The concentrations of credit risk incurred by the trust are managed ING New Zealand Limited, Tower Asset Management, Tyndall Investment Management and Walker Capital Management Limited. Credit risk also exists with the loan agreements entered into during the year. The trustees consider the risk of non-recovery of these investments to be within satisfactory guidelines.

Maximum exposures to credit risk as at balance date are:

	2005	2004
Bank accounts	115,942	123,061
Accounts receivable and prepayments	98,630	9,092

Currency Risk

The Community Trust of Wellington incurs currency risk as a result of investment transactions managed by ING New Zealand Limited, Tower Asset Management, Tyndall Investment Management and Walker Capital Management Limited.

Interest Rate Risk

The investments of the Community Trust of Wellington, which are sensitive to changes in interest rates, are managed by ING New Zealand Limited, Tower Asset Management, Tyndall Investment Management and Walker Capital Management Limited. The Community Trust of Wellington is also exposed to interest rate fluctuation on loans, as the debt is on a floating rate.

11. Significant Event

Liquidation of Wellington Community Trust Charities Limited

On 31 March 2005, The Wellington Community Trust Charities Limited was placed into voluntary liquidation. Victor Wu and Rhys Barlow, of Wellington, were appointed liquidators of the company. All assets, liabilities, commitments and contingencies of the company were transferred to The Community Trust of Wellington by way of a $33,000,000 dividend. The Community Trust of Wellington will be responsible for any residual payments or receipts resulting from the liquidation.

Audit Report

To the readers of the financial report of The Community Trust of Wellington and its subsidiary company.

We have audited the attached financial report. The financial report provides information about the past financial performance and financial position of The Community Trust of Wellington and its subsidiary company as at 31 March 2005. This information is stated in accordance with the accounting policies as attached.

Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for the preparation of a financial report which gives a true and fair view of the financial position of The Community Trust of Wellington and its subsidiary company as at 31 March 2005, and of the results of operations and cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Auditors' Responsibilities

It is our responsibility to express an independent opinion on the financial report presented by the trustees and report our opinion to you.

Basis of Opinion

An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. It also includes assessing:

- the significant estimates and judgements made by the trustees in the preparation of the financial report; and
- whether the accounting policies are appropriate to The Community Trust of Wellington and its subsidiary company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We conducted our audit in accordance with New Zealand Auditing Standards. We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to obtain reasonable assurance that the financial report is free from material misstatements, whether caused by fraud or error. In forming our opinion, we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial report. Other than our capacity as auditors, we have no relationship with or interest in The Community Trust of Wellington or its subsidiary company.

Unqualified Opinion

We have obtained all the information and explanations we have required.

In our opinion:

- proper accounting records have been kept by The Community Trust of Wellington and its subsidiary company as far as appears from our examination of those records; and
- the attached financial report:
 - complies with generally accepted accounting practice in New Zealand;
 - gives a true and fair view of the financial position of The Community Trust of Wellington and its subsidiary company as at 31 March 2005 and the results of its operations and cash flows for the year ended on that date.

Our audit was completed on 4 August 2005 and our unqualified opinion is expressed as at that date.

HORWATH AUDIT (WELLINGTON), Chartered Accountants, Wellington.
