Explanatory Note

This note is not part of this instrument, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This instrument, most of which comes into force on 1 July 2014, amends the Employment and Work Readiness Assistance Programme (“the principal programme”) as a result of funding for certain programmes of assistance being brought within the coverage of the multi-category appropriation Improved Employment and Social Outcomes Support in Vote: Social Development on that date. It adjusts eligibility criteria and specifications for the kinds of assistance available under the principal programme accordingly, including providing for the revocation of the following welfare programmes and bringing (with amendment) certain criteria and specifications from them under the discretionary provisions of the principal programme:

- the Course Participation Assistance Programme;
- the Training Incentive Allowance Programme;
- the Transition to Work Grant Programme.

Also revoked are the remainder of the Ministerial Guidelines for Employment and Training Assistance. The revocations are subject to transitional and savings provisions. The Ministerial Direction in relation to sections 124(1)(d) and (1A) 2012 relating to the Transition to Work Grant Programme is consequentially revoked.

This instrument also inserts two new kinds of employment or work readiness assistance in the Schedule of the principal programme, clarifies the chief executive’s powers when exercising discretion under the principal programme, inserts additional matters to which the chief executive must (or, in one case, may) have regard when exercising discretion, and makes drafting improvements.

Subpart 3—Letting Fees Assistance

Subpart 4—Transition to Alternative Housing Grant

29. Purpose of this subpart—The purpose of this subpart is to provide grants of non-recoverable financial assistance to certain tenants of social housing to assist them to move to alternative housing and help alleviate hardship by reducing the impact on their overall financial situation of that move.

30. Transition to alternative housing grant: eligibility—(1) An applicant who meets the residential criteria is eligible to be considered for a transition to alternative housing grant under this programme if the chief executive is satisfied that the applicant (whether alone or with any other person)—

- (b) is, in the chief executive's opinion having regard to sustainability, likely to be able to retain alternative housing; and
- (c) has agreed with the chief executive and the social housing provider to voluntarily relinquish the tenancy of that social housing and move to alternative housing within a period not exceeding six months.

- (b) he or she has previously been granted a transition to alternative housing grant.

32. Transition to alternative housing grant: conditional grant—(1) The chief executive may, under clause 6(1), grant a transition to alternative housing grant to the applicant or applicants if the chief executive is satisfied that the applicant or applicants is or are eligible under clause 30 and not ineligible under clause 31.

(2) A transition to alternative housing grant pursuant to subclause (1) is a conditional grant and the amount of the grant is not payable unless the chief executive is satisfied that the following conditions have been met:

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the programme, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This welfare programme under the Social Security Act 1964, which comes into force on 1 July 2014, provides for the granting, in the discretion of the Chief Executive of the Ministry of Social Development and within the limits set out in the programme, of special assistance to alleviate hardship in relation to housing. The programme provides for the following financial products and also aims to address barriers to accessing or retaining housing by meeting needs not covered by other forms of assistance:

- Bond grants (non-recoverable assistance to help meet the cost of tenancy bonds for rental housing other than social housing);
- moving assistance (recoverable assistance to help meet the costs of moving household furniture and effects);
- letting fees assistance (recoverable assistance to help meet letting fees charged for rental housing other than social housing);
- transition to alternative housing grants (non-recoverable assistance to help reduce the impact on an applicant's overall financial situation of moving from social housing and, consequently, reducing the disincentives of moving into alternative housing);
- tenancy costs cover (recoverable assistance to help meet liabilities to private sector landlords at the end of tenancies).

In general, assistance is available only to applicants who are tenants of social housing or awaiting allocation of social housing, or who contact the department or the social housing agency in relation to their housing needs, and are disadvantaged in the housing market.
