Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand—Notice of Decision of the Disciplinary Tribunal (Member Guilty of Misconduct in a Professional Capacity, Negligence or Incompetence and Breaching the Code of Ethics of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held on the 29th day of September 2004, which the member elected not to attend and was not represented by counsel, the tribunal recorded that James Henry Orchard, of Waihi, pleaded guilty to the following charges and admitted the following particulars:

Charges

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30, the member is guilty of:

- misconduct in a professional capacity;
- negligence or incompetence in a professional capacity of such a degree or so frequent as to reflect on his fitness to practise as an accountant or tends to bring the profession into disrepute;
- failing to comply with a requirement of the Professional Conduct Committee pursuant to Rule 21.3 (d); and
- breaching the Institute's Code of Ethics, specifically Fundamental Principles of Competence, Quality Performance and/or Rule 7, Rule 11.

Particulars

IN THAT in relation to a complaint by the Practice Review Board, the member:

- (a) failed to issue an adverse opinion in his audit report of a client company on the basis of a going concern and/or recognition of internally generated goodwill and/or recognition of accounting services;
- (b) conducted an audit when he did not have the requisite expertise to provide those audit services;
- (c) undertook an audit that did not comply with the requirements of the Institute's Codified Auditing Standards; and
- (d) failed to attend his Final Determination hearing despite being required to do so by the Professional Conduct Committee.

The tribunal found that the member had pleaded guilty to the charges and had admitted the particulars.

Orders of the Tribunal

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (a) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the name of James Henry Orchard be removed from the institute's Register.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (d) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the certificate of public practice held by James Henry Orchard be cancelled.

- (c) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that James Henry Orchard pay to the institute the sum of $4,067.40 (inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal of New Zealand, the New Zealand Gazette and the New Zealand Herald with mention of the member's name and locality.

In reaching its decision, the tribunal considered that the charges to which the member had pleaded guilty were very serious and included negligence and incompetence. The member had shown contempt for the institute and its standards and exhibited a total lack of contrition.

The tribunal regarded the member's failings to be a very serious matter which left no alternative but to remove the member from the institute's Register of members.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand—Notice of Decision of the Disciplinary Tribunal (Member Guilty of Misconduct in a Professional Capacity, Conduct Unbecoming an Accountant and Breaching the Code of Ethics of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held on the 29th day of September 2004, at which the member attended by teleconference, the Tribunal recorded that Kevin Patrick Griffin, of Pukekohe, pleaded guilty to the following charges and admitted the following particulars:

Charges

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30, the member is guilty of:

- misconduct in a professional capacity;
- conduct unbecoming an accountant; and
- breaching the Code of Ethics of the Institute (1995), specifically FP5; EP13.

Particulars

IN THAT in his role as treasurer of a charitable organisation, the member misappropriated funds belonging to that charitable organisation to the value of approximately $17,994.32.

The tribunal found that the member had pleaded guilty to the charges and had admitted the particulars.

Orders of the Tribunal

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (a) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the name of Kevin Patrick Griffin be removed from the institute's Register.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Kevin Patrick Griffin pay to the institute the sum of $2,989.59 (inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.
- (c) Pursuant to Rule 21.52 (b) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered the publication of the name of the complainant be prohibited.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal of New Zealand, the New Zealand Gazette and the New Zealand Herald with mention of the member's name and locality.

In reaching its decision, the tribunal considered that the charges to which the member had pleaded guilty were very serious particularly due to the amount of money misappropriated, that the money was taken over a period of time and on numerous occasions and the funds were taken from a charitable organisation.

When a member of the institute commits fraud it inevitably tends to bring the profession into disrepute.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Dated this 4th day of October 2004.

Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand—Notice of Decision of the Disciplinary Tribunal (Member Guilty of Misconduct in a Professional Capacity, Conduct Unbecoming an Accountant and Breaching the Code of Ethics of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held on the 29th day of September 2004, which the member elected not to attend and was not represented by counsel, the tribunal recorded that Philip Morris Anderson, of Sydney, Australia, was found guilty of the following charges and particulars:

Charges

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder and in particular Rule 21.30:

- The member has been convicted of an offence punishable by imprisonment and the conviction tends to bring the profession into disrepute.

Particulars

IN THAT on or about 23 October 2003, at the Manly Local Court in Australia, the member pleaded guilty to an offence, under section 176A of the Crimes Act 1900 of Australia, that the member took a cheque from his employer which was made payable to the Australian Tax Office and deposited that cheque into his own account.

The tribunal found the member guilty of the charges and the particulars.

Orders of the Tribunal

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.30 (k) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Philip Morris Anderson be censured.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (b) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the Disciplinary Tribunal ordered that Philip Morris Anderson be suspended from membership of the Institute for two years.
- (c) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Philip Morris Anderson pay to the institute the sum of $2,677.00 (inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal of New Zealand and the New Zealand Gazette with mention of the member's name and locality with referral to the finding of mitigating circumstances.

In reaching its decision, the tribunal considered that the charges to which the member had been found guilty to be serious, any conviction of a member in a public court on a fraud charge tends to bring the profession into disrepute.

When making its decision the tribunal took into consideration a number of factors including the need to ensure that the interests of the public are protected, the penalty imposed by the Australian court and the likely reasons for it.

The tribunal considered that there were sufficient mitigating factors for the member not to be removed from the Register.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Dated this 4th day of October 2004.

A. N. FRANKHAM, Tribunal Chairman.

Authorities and Other Agencies of State Notices

Commerce Commission

Electricity Industry Reform Act 1998

Notice of Exemption—Westfield Trust (NZ) Limited

The notice of exemption concerns an application received by the Commerce Commission (Commission) on 2 December 2003 made by Westfield (NZ) Trust Limited on behalf of the Westfield Group of companies.

The Westfield Group includes those companies shown in the Commission Decision 536 in Appendix 1.

The Westfield Group seeks in the application, under section 81 of the Electricity Industry Reform Act 1998 (EIR Act), an exemption from the EIR Act.

The Commission, pursuant to section 81 of the Electricity Industry Reform Act 1998 (EIR Act), exempts the following entities (the Westfield Group) from the application of section 17 of the EIR Act in respect of their current “cross-involvement” (as that term is defined in the EIR Act):

- Chartwell Shopping Centre Limited;
- Downtown Shopping Centre Limited;
- Glenfield Mall Limited;
- Manukau City Centre Limited;
- The Pakuranga Plaza Limited;
- Queensgate Centre Limited;
- Riccarton Shopping Centre (1997) Limited;
- Shore City Centre (1993) Limited;
- St Lukes Square (1993) Limited;
- WestCity Shopping Centre Limited;
- Albany Shopping Centre Limited and Albany Shopping Centre No. 2 Limited;

- St Lukes Group No. 2 Limited;
- St Lukes Group Limited;
- St Lukes Group Holdings Limited;
- Westfield Trust (NZ) Limited;
- Westfield (New Zealand) Limited;
- Abyssinian Holdings Limited; and
- Westfield Alliances (NZ) Pty Limited.

The Commission, pursuant to section 81 of the EIR Act, also exempts persons who, from time to time, acquire more than 10% of the securities in the Westfield Group from the application of section 17 of the EIR Act in respect of their “cross-involvement” (as that term is defined in the EIR Act).

The above exemption is given to the Westfield Group and persons who acquire more than 10% of the securities in the Westfield Group subject to the following terms and conditions:

- (a) The Westfield Group will not charge tenants (or anyone else) for the use of the internal embedded wiring systems, points of connection to external distribution/transmission lines and metering equipment within its shopping centres.
- (b) The Westfield Group will allow access to the internal embedded wiring systems, points of connection to external distribution/transmission lines and metering equipment within its shopping centres on reasonable terms and within a reasonable time to any electricity supply business to enable that electricity supply business to supply electricity to any tenant of the Westfield Group connected to such systems.
- (c) The Westfield Group will not enforce any of its existing lease clauses which allow it to require tenants to obtain electricity from or through the Westfield Group in order that any tenant can obtain electricity from or through any alternative electricity supplier it so chooses.

- (d) The Westfield Group will:
- notify, within three months, those tenants who have lease clauses which allow the Westfield Group the option of supplying electricity to them that the Westfield Group will not enforce these clauses; and
  - notify any new tenants, after the date of this exemption, who have lease clauses which allow the Westfield Group the option of supplying electricity that the Westfield Group will not enforce these clauses or alternatively that the Westfield Group will provide in the leases for those tenants that they can choose their own electricity supplier.
- (e) The Westfield Group will provide, with each bill, consumption and billing information to its tenants to whom they supply electricity and will use their best endeavours to provide such reasonable information that any tenant being supplied electricity by the Westfield Group may request, to enable tenants to assess competitive options available to them for the supply of electricity.
- (f) The Westfield Group will provide, with each bill, consumption and billing information to tenants in a manner that separates and identifies the relevant energy charges, any recovery on account of actual line charges and the basis for such recovery, and any recovery on account of actual administration costs associated with lines charges and the basis for such recovery.
- (g) In the event of the Westfield Group exiting or re-entering the electricity supply business the Westfield Group will give the Commission written notice of that fact.
- (h) The Westfield Group will not recover any revenue, margin or other amount in respect of line function or other services provided by external network operators other than an apportionment of their actual cost to the Westfield Group where and to the extent an amount on account of that cost is recoverable from a tenant under its lease as an operational cost and actual costs of administration related to line charges to the extent recoverable under the lease.

In addition, the Commission, pursuant to section 81 of the EIR Act, exempts from the application of sections 17, 18 and 30 of the EIR Act any business or involvement or interest in relation only to any future property investment and management activities that the Westfield Group might undertake, and in respect of which sections 17, 18 and/or 30 would apply.

The exemption to any business or involvement or interest in respect of any future property investment and management activities that the Westfield Group might undertake is given subject to the following terms and conditions being fully observed by the business or involvement or interest to which the exemption applies:

- (a) The terms and conditions as set out above in relation to the exemption given to the Westfield Group.
- (b) That the Westfield Group informs the Commission of the details of any future property investment and/or management activity (including company purchase or formation), within 20 working days (as that term is defined in the Commerce Act 1986) from the day following the day it undertakes the activity, that is likely to breach the EIR Act and for which the Westfield Group and/or any other persons are likely to rely on this exemption.

The exemption takes effect from 14 November 2004.

The Commission may vary or revoke this exemption at any time in accordance with section 81 (5) of the EIR Act.
