Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand—Notice of Decision of the Disciplinary Tribunal (Member Guilty of Misconduct in a Professional Capacity, Conduct Unbecoming an Accountant, Negligence or Incompetence and Breaching the Code of Ethics of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand)

At a hearing of the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand held on the 19th day of May 2004, which the member elected not to attend and was not represented by counsel, the tribunal recorded that Grant Perry McGowan, of Christchurch, pleaded guilty to the following charges and admitted the following particulars:

“Charges

THAT in terms of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand Act 1996 and the Rules made thereunder, and in particular Rule 21.30, the member is guilty of:

- misconduct in a professional capacity;
- conduct unbecoming an accountant;
- negligence or incompetence in a professional capacity of such a degree or so frequent that it brings the profession into disrepute;
- breaching the code of ethics of the institute.

Particulars

IN THAT

In his role as a chartered accountant in public practice and in relation to complaints made against him, he:

- (a) made investments on behalf of a client in entities in which he had a material financial interest without offering the client the opportunity to take independent advice and/or without appropriate authorisation;
- (b) made inappropriate and/or imprudent investments on behalf of the client;
- (c) failed to keep proper records in relation to monies invested on behalf of the client and/or monies invested;
- (d) borrowed approximately $85,000.00 from the client's trust to repay monies owed in circumstances where he did not have the appropriate authority to do so;
- (e) made investments on behalf of a client in entities in which he had a material financial interest without offering the client the opportunity to take independent advice and/or without appropriate authorisation;

- (f) made inappropriate and/or imprudent investments on behalf of the client;
- (g) failed to keep proper records in relation to monies invested on behalf of the client and/or monies invested;
- (h) failed within a reasonable and proper time to repay monies to the client's estate, despite repeated requests to do so by the executor to the estate;
- (i) failed to properly account for residual monies and/or interest owed to the client's estate;
- (j) failed to fully repay residual monies and/or interest owed to the client's estate;
- (k) in circumstances where he had been ordered to appear before the professional conduct committee for a final determination and in circumstances where he suffered an injury prior to that meeting, he failed within a reasonable or proper time to give any explanation or excuse for his non-attendance and/or failed to notify the professional conduct committee until approximately 1½ hours before the professional conduct committee meeting on the 12th day of January 2004.”

The tribunal found the member guilty as charged and the particulars proven.

Orders of the Tribunal

- (a) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (a) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the name of Grant Perry McGowan be removed from the institute's Register.
- (b) Pursuant to Rule 21.31 (d) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the certificate of public practice held by Grant Perry McGowan be cancelled.
- (c) Pursuant to Rule 21.33 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that Grant Perry McGowan pay to the institute the sum of $41,738.00 (inclusive of G.S.T.) in respect of the costs and expenses of the hearing before the disciplinary tribunal and the investigation by the professional conduct committee.
- (d) Pursuant to Rule 21.52 (b) of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal ordered that the publication of the names of the complainants, the solicitors and the names of the companies involved, other than the name of the member's practice and the member's practice trust company, be prohibited.

In accordance with Rule 21.35 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand, the disciplinary tribunal directed that the decision be published in the Chartered Accountants Journal of New Zealand, the New Zealand Gazette and the Christchurch Press with mention of the member's name and locality.

In reaching its decision, the tribunal considered that it had three principle matters it had to consider in connection with the charges.

- (1) The charges to which Grant Perry McGowan has pleaded guilty include misconduct in a professional capacity, conduct unbecoming an accountant, negligence or incompetence and significant breaches of the code of ethics;
- (2) Grant Perry McGowan failed to respond to the professional conduct committee on numerous occasions which seriously impedes the institute's conduct processes; and
- (3) there was a prior charge against Grant Perry McGowan, a consent order of a severe reprimand and the payment of costs of $3,500.00 for a complaint of a significantly similar nature.

The tribunal agreed with the prosecution that the charges to which the member had pleaded guilty were serious, that the member was guilty of totally unprofessional conduct and that his actions related to vulnerable clients.

He had put clients' money in high risk investments and in investments in which he himself had a financial interest.

There had been a pattern of offending and Grant Perry McGowan had treated the professional conduct committee with disdain.

Right of Appeal

Pursuant to Rule 21.41 of the Rules of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of New Zealand which were in force at the time of the original notice of complaint, the member may, not later than 14 days after the notification of this tribunal to the member of the exercise of its powers, appeal in writing to the appeals council of the institute against the decision.

No decision other than the direction as to publicity shall take effect while the member remains entitled to appeal or while any such appeal by the member awaits determination by the appeals council.

Dated this 24th day of May 2004.

A. N. FRANKHAM, Tribunal Chairman.

Commerce Commission

Commerce Act 1986

Gas Control Inquiry

The Commerce Act 1986 envisages the possibility that control may be introduced over goods and services as part of the statutory framework to promote competition in markets within New Zealand. The relevant provisions are found in Part IV of the Act.

By letter dated 30 April 2003, the Minister of Energy (“Minister”) requested the Commerce Commission (“Commission”) to undertake a Gas Control Inquiry (“the inquiry”) into whether or not control should be introduced in relation to the goods and services supplied by persons in markets directly related to either a natural gas transmission system or a natural gas distribution system or both (gas services).

The Minister’s request specified that the Commission must deliver its findings by 1 November 2004.

The Commission is carrying out a two-stage process.

The first stage, which has already been completed, involved interested parties giving their views on the Commission’s proposed framework.

The second stage will involve interested parties giving their views on the application of that framework.

As part of the first stage of the inquiry process, the Commission released a draft framework paper on 16 July 2003 and invited interested parties and industry participants to make written submissions on the draft framework paper by 15 August 2003.

Following the submission period, the Commission held a conference on the draft framework paper between 1 September 2003 and 4 September 2003.

Further information on the inquiry can be obtained from the Commission’s web site www.comcom.govt.nz

The second stage of the process involves the Commission releasing a draft report setting out the findings of the inquiry.

The Commission released the draft report on 21 May 2004.

There will be a submission period and conference on the draft report following this release. The Commission invites interested parties to give their views on the draft report.

The Commission in an earlier notice (New Zealand Gazette, 24 July 2003, page 2218) indicated that the due date for written submissions would be 30 April 2004 with the conference planned for the week commencing 31 May 2004.

The Commission now extends the due date for written submissions to 2 July 2004 by 12.00 midday with the conference now being held between 22 July 2004 and 23 July 2004 and 26 July 2004 and 28 July 2004.

Submissions or comments on the inquiry may be sent to Gas Pipelines Inquiry, Commerce Commission, P.O. Box 2351, Wellington, or by facsimile (04) 924 3700 or email to:

gaspipelinesinquiry@comcom.govt.nz

Submission requirements are:

- 25 hard copies should be supplied. Submitters need only staple in the top left corner, as spiral or spine bound copies will be unbound for ease of producing additional copies if required;
- in addition to hard copies, electronic copies of submissions should ideally be sent in .pdf format, although Word is equally acceptable. Written or non PC-generated submissions will be scanned by Commission staff and automatically converted to .pdf;
- all submissions will be published on the Commission's web site (the Commission recognises that there will be instances where information may genuinely be confidential. The Commission requires parties where at all possible to provide a "public version" of confidential material, which at least conveys the thrust of the material (or argument) without disclosing sensitive information. This public version should be given to the Commission when an application for confidentiality of that information is sought); and
- submissions must show the organisation's name and address, date and be duly signed. In the case of personal submissions, a contact address and telephone number is required, and the submission is to be signed with the submitter's name printed beneath the signature. Personal submissions will have their contact address and telephone number removed for the purpose of publishing on the Commission's web site, as only their name will be disclosed.
