Notice of Application to Vary Terms of a Charitable Trust

Take notice that on the 5th day of March 2004 at 10.00 a.m., the University of Otago will move the High Court at Dunedin for an order approving a variation to the terms of the Dunbar Research Scholarship Trust.

The application is being made on the grounds that it is impractical or inexpedient to carry out the purpose of the trust without such variation.

The proposed scheme will ensure that suitable persons for the award of the scholarship can be found, by broadening the eligibility criteria to allow awards to candidates who are graduates of the University of Otago engaged for the time being in research at the Dunedin School of Medicine of the University of Otago in relation to urinary disorders, womb disorders or catarrhal disorders, or such other field of research as may be approved by the university.

Any person desiring to oppose the scheme shall give written notice of his or her intention to do so to the Registrar of the High Court, Private Bag 1925, Dunedin, and to the Trustees of the Dunbar Research Scholarship Trust, care of Gallaway Cook Allan, P.O. Box 143, Dunedin, and to the Attorney-General, Crown Law Office, P.O. Box 5012, Wellington, not less than seven clear days before the 5th day of March 2004.

Education Act 1989

Notice of Appointment of a Limited Statutory Manager for the Board of Trustees of Te Rangi Aniwanīwa (1147)

Pursuant to section 78M of the Education Act 1989, I direct the Secretary for Education to appoint a limited statutory manager for the Board of Trustees of Te Rangi Aniwanīwa (1147) because the operation of the kura is at risk.

The following functions, powers and duties of the board are vested in the limited statutory manager:

- Management of the finances of the kura;
- ensuring that financial decisions made help maintain quality curriculum delivery;
- ensuring that the board repays the Ministry of Education loan within the agreed period; and
- providing mentoring support to the new principal in matters of strategic financial and property planning.

The limited statutory manager may advise the board on:

- engaging a suitable person or organisation to assist with detailed financial matters as required.

The limited statutory manager must also advise the board on the following:

- Financial management of building projects and property development generally;
- how to ensure high quality financial planning and decision making;
- training of the board and staff in financial processes; and
- development and review of financial policies and procedures, especially as they relate to long-term property development plans.

This notice takes effect the day after the date of publication of this notice.

Dated at Wellington this 22nd day of January 2004.

Foreign Affairs and Trade

Diplomatic Privileges and Immunities Act 1968

Privileges and Immunities of Representatives of APEC and the EU and Their Official Staff Attending the Fourth APEC Ministers' Meeting On Regional Science & Technology Cooperation and Associated Events

Pursuant to section 11 of the Diplomatic Privileges and Immunities Act 1968 (“the Act”), the Minister of Foreign Affairs and Trade declares that:

1. Representatives of the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) member economies, including New Zealand, will be attending the Fourth APEC Ministers' Meeting On Regional Science & Technology Cooperation and the associated Research & Development Leaders' Forum and the Innovation Showcase to be held in Christchurch from 10-14 March 2004; and

2. In order to clarify the privileges and immunities which may be enjoyed by those representatives and their official administrative and support staff attending the said meeting;

directs that:

- every representative (including official delegates) of the APEC economies (other than of New Zealand) and the European Union (EU) shall be accorded the privileges and immunities conferred by or by virtue of Part I of the Act on a diplomatic agent as specified in Articles 29 to 37 (1) inclusive of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations, set out in the First Schedule to the Act; and
- the members of the official administrative and support staff of any such representative shall be accorded the following privileges and immunities:
 - Immunity from suit and legal process in respect of things done or omitted to be done by them in the course of the performance of their official duties;
 - exemption from income tax in respect of emoluments received for services in respect of their official duties; and
 - exemption from duties and taxes on the importation of goods for official use in New Zealand, that exemption to be subject to compliance with such conditions as the Minister of Customs may determine for the protection of the revenue.
- no person shall be accorded immunities in relation to any act or omission arising from the use of any firearm, airgun, pistol, restricted weapon, ammunition or explosive;
- these privileges and immunities shall apply to representatives, and their official and administrative and support staff, in respect of things done or omitted to be done by them during that period in which they are present in New Zealand for the performance of official duties.

Health

Medicines Act 1981

Classification of Medicines

Pursuant to section 106 (1) of the Medicines Act 1981, I, Don Matheson, Deputy Director-General, Public Health, acting under delegated authority, hereby declare the following:

1. The medicines listed in Schedule 1 to this notice are classified as prescription medicines.
2. The medicines listed in Schedule 2 to this notice are classified as restricted medicines.
3. The medicines listed in Schedule 3 to this notice are classified as pharmacy-only medicines.

Every reference to a medicine in this notice applies whether the medicine is synthetic in origin or is from biological or mineral sources.

Unless specific reference is made otherwise, every reference applies also to medicines that are:

- (a) preparations and admixtures containing any proportion of any substance listed in the notice.
- (b) salts and esters of any substance listed in the notice.
- (c) preparations or extracts of biological materials listed in the notice.
- (d) salts or oxides of elements listed in the notice.

Unless specific reference is made otherwise, every reference to a medicine applies:

- (i) if the medicine is an injection or eye preparation, to any concentration of that medicine; and
- (ii) if the medicine is not an injection or eye preparation, only if the concentration of the medicine is greater than 10 milligrams per litre or per kilogram.

Where any reference is modified by a statement of the strength of the medicine, the strength is calculated using the free acid, base, alcohol or element unless specifically stated otherwise.

Public Trust

Public Trust Act 2001

The Public Trust Common Fund Interest Rates Notice 12 February 2004

Pursuant to sections 50 (1) and 50 (5) of the Public Trust Act 2001 ("the Act"), the following notice is given.

Notice

1. Title and commencement—(1) This notice may be cited as the Public Trust Common Fund Interest Rates Notice 12 February 2004.

(2) The determinations and revocation notified in this notice take effect from and including 4 February 2004.

2. Interpretation—(1) Unless the context otherwise requires:

"agency deposit" means a deposit (not being an investment deposit) held as agent or attorney;

"call deposit" means a deposit (not being an agency deposit, an investment deposit, a special deposit or a trust deposit) held in the ordinary course of administration, and determined by Public Trust to be held at call;

"deposit" means a sum of money held by Public Trust belonging to any estate, which money for the time being forms part of the Common Fund;

"investment deposit" means a deposit held at call or otherwise as an investment under section 51 of the Act;

"special deposit" means a deposit held other than at call on behalf of the Crown, or any local authority within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1974;

“trust deposit” means a deposit held on trust:

- (i) for persons not of full age or capacity; or
- (ii) for beneficiaries not entitled to payment at call; or
- (iii) otherwise than at call (not being a special deposit).

(2) Expressions defined in the Act have the same meaning in this notice as they do in the Act.

3. Rates of Common Fund interest—(1) The rate of Common Fund interest payable on a deposit (other than an investment deposit repayable at the end of a fixed term) shall be that specified in Schedule 1 for the appropriate type of deposit.

(2) The rate of Common Fund interest payable on an investment deposit repayable at the end of a fixed term shall be that specified in Schedule 2 for the appropriate term and dollar range.

(3) Despite subparagraph (1), the rate of Common Fund interest payable on a deposit made pursuant to an enactment shall be the rate (if any) specified in the enactment.

(4) Despite subparagraph (1), in particular cases or classes of case, Public Trust and the depositor may agree on a rate of interest payable on a special deposit that is different from the rate specified in Schedule 1 and the agreed rate then applies.

4. Revocation of notice and transitional provisions—

(1) The Public Trust Common Fund Interest Rates Notice 18 December 2003 is revoked.

(2) The rates of interest specified in Schedule 1 to this notice do not apply to any period that ends with 3 February 2004 but otherwise operate as from 4 February 2004.

(3) The rates of interest specified in Schedule 2 to this notice:

- (i) do not apply to investment deposits repayable at the end of a fixed term that commenced prior to 4 February 2004; but
- (ii) do apply to investment deposits repayable at the end of a fixed term that commenced on or after 4 February 2004.
