Departmental Notices

Economic Development

Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988

Notice of Initiation: Review of Anti-dumping Duty on Wire Nails From the People's Republic of China

Pursuant to section 14(8) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988 ("the Act"), and acting under delegated authority from the Chief Executive of the Ministry of Economic Development, I have, on my own initiative, initiated a review of the imposition of anti-dumping duty in respect of the goods described in the Schedule to this notice (the goods).

The purpose of the review is to:

- (a) determine whether the New Zealand nail industry produces nails that are "like" certain specialised nails imported into New Zealand and therefore whether those nails should be exempted from the applicable anti-dumping duty; and
- (b) exempt certain other types of specialised nails from the applicable anti-dumping duty that the New Zealand nail industry has agreed should be exempted from this duty.

Anti-dumping duty was imposed on the goods following a final determination made on 2 June 2011.

Notice of this final determination was published in the New Zealand Gazette, 9 June 2011, No. 81, page 1905.

Dated at Wellington this 4th day of April 2012.

I have terminated the investigation because I am satisfied, in terms of section 11(1)(b) of the Act, that there is insufficient evidence that material injury to a New Zealand industry has been or is being caused or is threatened by means of the dumping of the goods.
