Tax Administration Act 1994

Special Determination S19: Mandatory Conversion Convertible Notes with Consumer Price Index Adjustments to Face Value

This Determination may be cited as “Special Determination S19: Mandatory Conversion Convertible Notes with Consumer Price Index Adjustments to Face Value”.

1. Explanation (which does not form part of the Determination)

- (1) This Determination relates to mandatory conversion convertible notes (“MCNs”) to be issued by ABC Company (“Issuer”), a wholly owned special purpose subsidiary of DEF Company (“the Shareholder”), to XYZ Company (“the Noteholder”).
- (2) The MCNs constitute financial arrangements in respect of which the Noteholder provides funds to the Issuer, with the debt to be discharged at a future date by the issue of Noteholder Shares in the Issuer to the Noteholder. The face value of the MCNs will increase or decrease in line with the All Groups Consumers Price Index (CPI) as measured and published by Statistics New Zealand. Coupon Interest will be paid (in cash) on the Adjusted Face Value of the MCNs, in the period between the issue of the MCNs and the conversion of the MCNs into Noteholder Shares.
- (3) An amount (whether it is income, gain, loss or expenditure) that is solely attributable to an excepted financial arrangement (as described in sections EW 5(2) to EW 5(16) of the Income Tax Act 2007 (“the Act”)) is not taken into account under the Financial Arrangements Rules (in accordance with section EW 6(2) of the Act).
- (4) As a share is an excepted financial arrangement under section EW 5(13) of the Act, only the Coupon Interest and the CPI Adjustment (provided condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll is not invoked) will be regarded as income or expenditure under the Financial Arrangements Rules. Any fluctuation in the market value of the Noteholder Shares will be disregarded.
- (5) This Determination prescribes the method to be used by the Issuer when calculating the aggregate income derived or aggregate expenditure incurred in respect of the MCNs under the Financial Arrangements Rules. It details which amounts are to be included for this calculation and which are attributable to an excepted financial arrangement.

2. Reference

- (1) This Determination is made pursuant to section 90AC(1)(bb) of the Tax Administration Act 1994.

3. Scope of determination

- (1) This Determination applies only to the MCNs described as follows:
  - (a) The Issuer will borrow money from the Noteholder by issuing a MCN to the Noteholder. The amount borrowed will be $100 million. The face value of the MCNs will adjust quarterly in line with the All Groups CPI using the calculation set out in Schedule 1 of the Deed Poll. If Statistics New Zealand ceases to publish the All Groups CPI, the appropriate replacement index or base, as set out in the definition of “Index” in Schedule 1 of the Deed Poll, will be used in place of the All Groups CPI.
  - (b) The MCNs will pay Coupon Interest of 4% per annum (payable monthly, in arrears) on the Adjusted Face Value of the MCNs, provided that doing so does not breach the solvency test (under the Companies Act 1993) or any other legal obligation of the Issuer, or if the Noteholder is in default. If the solvency test or other legal obligation of the Issuer is breached, or if the Noteholder is in default, interest payments will be suspended. However, interest will continue to accrue at the Default Interest Rate if the suspension is due to either of the first two of the above events. “Default Interest Rate” is defined as the Coupon Interest rate (which is 4% for the original term and 5% where the term of the MCNs is extended) plus 1% per annum. If an Event of Default (as defined in condition 8 of the Deed Poll) occurs, interest will accrue at the Default Interest Rate. The Noteholder will also have the option to require the Issuer to redeem the MCNs.
  - (c) The MCNs will carry the same voting rights as those attaching to the Shareholder Shares.
  - (d) After 10 years, where condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll has not been invoked, and where the Adjusted Face Value of the MCNs is equal to, or less than, the value of the Shareholder Shares, the MCNs will convert into Noteholder Shares with a value equal to the Shareholder Shares held by the Shareholder. The Noteholder and the Shareholder will then each have 50% of the shares in the Issuer.

- (e) After 10 years, where condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll has not been invoked, and where the Adjusted Face Value of the MCNs is more than the value of the Shareholder Shares, the Issuer may elect to extend the term of the MCNs by three years. Where this occurs, the Coupon Interest will increase to 5% and the MCNs will convert on the Replacement Conversion Date.
- (f) If condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll has not been invoked, and the Adjusted Face Value of the MCNs is more than the value of the Shareholder Shares, whether the term of the MCNs has been extended (as described in paragraph 3(1)(e) above) or not, the Shareholder may subscribe for additional Shareholder Shares under condition 5(b) of the Deed Poll. This involves the Shareholder subscribing for additional Shareholder Shares in the Issuer. The purchase of the additional Shareholder Shares will provide funds to the Issuer, all of which must be used by the Issuer to repay part of the Adjusted Face Value of the MCNs owing to the Noteholder. This subscription increases the Shareholder's shareholding, while at the same time reducing the value of the Noteholder Shares that the Noteholder is entitled to receive on conversion. The value of the share purchase by the Shareholder is such that on conversion of the remainder, the Noteholder and the Shareholder will each have 50% of the shares in the Issuer.
- (g) The Noteholder will be entitled to appoint 50% of the board of directors of the Issuer. If the Noteholder's Directors vote against a recommendation made by the property manager and supported by the Shareholder-appointed directors (except where that recommendation relates to front loading, or involves a transaction between the Shareholder and a related company) and such vote is ratified by the Noteholder then condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll may be invoked. If condition 5(d) is invoked, the Noteholder will lose its right, on conversion, to receive Noteholder Shares to the value of the Adjusted Face Value of the MCNs. In this event, on the Conversion Date, or Replacement Conversion Date (as the case may be), the Issuer will issue to the Noteholder shares equal to the number of Shareholder Shares on issue to the Shareholder on the Conversion Date.

4. Principle

- (1) The MCNs have both debt and equity components. They can be regarded alternatively as:
  - (a) a loan to the Issuer with repayment in shares (debt component); or
  - (b) a forward purchase of shares (in which case the holder of the MCNs is buying shares in a company and has equity in it).
- (2) As the MCNs have this dual character, when calculating income or expenditure in relation to the MCNs it is first necessary to separate the debt and equity components of the MCNs.
- (3) This Determination specifies that the Coupon Interest and (where condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll has not been invoked) the CPI Adjustment relate to the debt component of the MCNs. Changes in the value of the Noteholder Shares relate to the equity component and will be excluded from the application of the Financial Arrangements Rules when calculating income or expenditure for the Issuer.
- (4) This Determination specifies that if condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll is invoked then, from the date the condition is invoked, only the Coupon Interest will relate to the debt component of the MCNs. If condition 5(d) is invoked then the CPI Adjustment and any changes in the value of the Noteholder Shares will relate to the equity component and will be excluded from the application of the Financial Arrangements Rules when calculating income or expenditure for the Issuer. Further, any income or deductions already returned or claimed for the CPI Adjustments must be reversed (see paragraph 6(9) of this determination below).
- (5) For the purposes of this Determination, any change in the market value of the Noteholder Shares between the issue date of the MCNs and the conversion of the MCNs into shares is solely attributable to the equity component of the MCNs. Therefore, the difference in Noteholder Share price can be ignored when calculating income and expenditure.

5. Interpretation

- (1) In this Determination, the following expressions (which have not been defined elsewhere in this Determination) have the following meanings:

Adjusted Face Value means the initial face value of the MCNs together with the quarterly CPI adjustments to the face value of the MCNs.

Financial Arrangements Rules means the rules referred to in sections YA 1 and EW 1(2) of the Act.

Coupon Interest means the cash interest amounts paid on a monthly basis by the Issuer to the Noteholder pursuant to the terms of the Deed Poll.

CPI Adjustment means the quarterly adjustments to the face value of the Notes pursuant to the terms of the Deed Poll.

Noteholder Shares in relation to the MCNs means the fully paid ordinary shares in the Issuer to be issued on conversion of the MCNs.

Shareholder Shares means the fully paid ordinary shares in the Issuer held by the Shareholder, including any additional shares subscribed for under condition 5(b) of the Deed Poll.

6. Method

- (1) When calculating the aggregate income or aggregate expenditure with regard to the MCNs, the income, gain, loss, expenditure or any other consideration receivable by the Noteholder or payable by the Issuer will be:
  - (a) where condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll has not been invoked during the term of the MCNs:
    - (i) the Coupon Interest; and
    - (ii) the CPI Adjustment.

- (b) where condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll is invoked during the term of the MCNs, from that date, only the Coupon Interest.
- (2) The amount to be attributed to the CPI Adjustment is the net amount by which the face value of the MCNs increases or decreases over the term of the MCNs.
- (3) If condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll has not been invoked during the term of the MCNs:
  - (a) where the face value of the MCNs increases, the CPI Adjustment shall be expenditure; or
  - (b) where the face value of the MCNs decreases, the CPI Adjustment shall be income.
- (4) If condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll is invoked during the term of the MCNs, from that date, the CPI Adjustment will cease to be either expenditure or income. In this situation, any income or deduction already returned or claimed for the CPI Adjustment must be reversed (see paragraph 6(9) of this Determination below).
- (5) All other income, gains, losses or expenditure in relation to the MCNs is solely attributable to the excepted financial arrangement component of the MCNs.
- (6) The Coupon Interest payment and the CPI Adjustment (as applicable) will be spread over the term of the MCNs as follows:
  - (a) In respect of Coupon Interest, the amount to be attributed to an income year during which the MCNs are on issue will be the total of all interest expenditure incurred in the relevant income year. For example, for the income year ending 30 June 2012, this will include all interest payments falling due for payment up to and including the payment to be made on 1 July 2012.
  - (b) In respect of the CPI Adjustment, where condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll has not been invoked, the amount to be attributed to an income year during which the MCNs are on issue will be the amount by which the face value of the MCNs increases or decreases in respect of months falling within that income year. For example, for the income year ending 30 June 2012, this will include the CPI Adjustments made up to and including the CPI Adjustment to be made on 1 July 2012. This net amount of the CPI Adjustment will either be expenditure (where it increases) or income (where it decreases) for that income year.

The Issuer is an International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) taxpayer. At the time that the MCNs are issued, the above method will be consistent with an IFRS financial reporting method (provided that condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll is not invoked during the term of the MCNs).

- (7) For the purposes of the base price adjustment, the amount of the consideration that has been paid to the Issuer for the MCNs (based on the definition of “consideration” in section EW 31(7) of the Act) is the amount subscribed for the MCNs with no part of the consideration being attributable to the excepted financial arrangement component of the MCNs.
- (8) If condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll has not been invoked, for the purposes of the base price adjustment, the amount of the consideration that will be paid by the Issuer for the MCNs by way of the issue of Noteholder Shares (based on the definition of “consideration” in section EW 31(7) of the Act) is equal to the Adjusted Principal Amount (which includes the CPI Adjustments).
- (9) If condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll has been invoked, the Issuer will complete a calculation applying the method in Determination G25 in the income year in which the condition is invoked so that the CPI Adjustments treated as income or expenditure to date are reversed in that income year.
- (10) If condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll has been invoked, for the purposes of the base price adjustment calculated at maturity of the MCNs, the amount of the consideration that will be paid by the Issuer for the MCNs by way of the issue of Noteholder Shares (based on the definition of “consideration” in section EW 31(7) of the Act) is equal to the amount that was paid by the Noteholder to the Issuer for the MCNs.

7. Examples

Example A: Adjusted Principal Amount is greater than the value of the Shareholder's shares

- (1) This example illustrates the application of the method (set out in this Determination) for determining the amounts attributable to both the debt and equity components of the MCNs to be issued by the Issuer to the Noteholder.
- (2) The example assumes the following:
  - The MCNs are issued on 1 July 2011 and the Noteholder will continue to hold the MCNs until 30 June 2021, when the MCNs will mandatorily convert into shares in the Issuer.
  - The amount subscribed for the MCNs is $100 million.
  - The CPI, for all relevant quarters, is 2% per annum.
  - Interest payments are not suspended during the term of the MCNs.
  - On conversion, the Adjusted Principal Amount will be less than the total value of the Issuer's assets.
  - On conversion, the Adjusted Principal Amount will be greater than the total value of the Shareholder's Shares.
  - Condition 5(d) of the Deed Poll has not been invoked.
- (3) The Issuer will be allowed deductions for expenditure arising under the Financial Arrangements Rules during the term of the MCNs. This expenditure is in the form of the CPI Adjustments and the coupon interest payments. The expenditure for the first two income years, for which deductions will be allowed, is set out in the table in Appendix 1 (the deductions will continue on this basis during the term of the MCN). It is noted that the CPI Adjustments will be deductible whether paid in the form of shares only or a combination of shares and cash (where the Shareholder subscribes for additional shares and the Issuer uses the funds raised to redeem part of the MCNs prior to the MCNs being converted to Noteholder Shares).
- (4) Any other amounts will be attributable to the equity component of the MCNs.

(5) The base price adjustment required for the 2021 income year will be as follows:

EXAMPLE A

Consideration
Paid/payable to the Issuer		100,000,000.00
Less paid/payable by the Issuer	100,000,000.00
Total CPI Adjustment*	21,472,063.33
Total interest	44,157,430.48
		165,629,493.81
Consideration		-65,629,493.81
Less income		0.00
Plus expenditure
CPI Adjustment	19,072,689.04
Total interest	39,334,852.73
Total expenditure		58,407,541.77
Plus amount remitted		0.00
Base price adjustment		-7,221,952.04

Notes

A deduction will be available to the Issuer in the 2021 tax year of $7,221,952.04 (which is the current year's coupon interest and CPI adjustment).

*The initial investment plus the total CPI Adjustment will equal the Adjusted Principal Amount.

Example B: Adjusted Principal Amount is equal to or less than the value of Shareholder's Shares

- (1) This example proceeds on the same basis as Example A, except that on conversion, the Adjusted Principal Amount will be equal to, or less than, the total value of the Shareholder's Shares.
- (2) The deductions allowed are the same as in Example A.
- (3) The base price adjustment is the same as in Example A.
- (4) All other amounts will be attributable to the equity component of the MCNs. In particular (and this is the point of this example), the difference between the value of the Noteholder Shares and the Adjusted Principal Amount will be attributable to the equity component of the MCNs.

Example C: Extension of term

- (1) This example proceeds on the same basis as Example A, except that the Issuer elects to extend the term of the MCNs by three years (as contemplated by the Deed Poll).
- (2) The Issuer will be allowed deductions in the same way as described in Example A except that the coupon interest will be calculated at a higher rate for the period after the extension. The expenditure during the three-year extension period, for which deductions will be allowed, is set out in the table in Appendix 2.
- (3) As with Example A, all other amounts will be attributable to the equity component of the MCNs.
- (4) The base price adjustment required if the period is extended will be as follows:

EXAMPLE C: Extension of term

Consideration
Paid/payable to the Issuer		100,000,000.00
Less paid/payable by the Issuer	100,000,000.00
Total CPI Adjustment*	28,964,194.40
Total interest	62,980,811.38
		191,945,005.78
Consideration		-91,945,005.78
Less income		0.00
Plus expenditure
CPI Adjustment	26,416,831.95
Total interest	56,580,737.65
Total expenditure		82,997,569.60
Plus amount remitted		0.00
Base price adjustment		-8,947,436.18

Notes

A deduction will be available to the Issuer for the 2024 tax year of $8,947,436.18 (which is the current year's coupon interest and CPI adjustment).

*The initial investment plus the total CPI Adjustment will equal the Adjusted Principal Amount.

This Determination is signed by me on the 10th day of October 2011.

M. A. SMITH, Chief Tax Counsel.

Special Determination S20: Convertible Redeemable Notes and Preference Shares

This Determination may be cited as “Special Determination S20: Convertible Redeemable Notes and Preference Shares”.

1. Explanation (which does not form part of the Determination)

- (1) This Determination relates to convertible redeemable notes (“CRNs”) issued by Company A (“Issuer”) to Company B (“Noteholder”), and to Preference Shares issued by Company C.
- (2) The CRNs are perpetual debt securities in respect of which the Noteholder loans funds to the Issuer. Coupon Interest will be paid (in cash) on the Principal Amount of the CRNs until the CRNs are redeemed or converted. The Issuer may redeem the CRNs in cash for the Principal Amount plus the Cash Redemption Premium. Alternatively, the Issuer may convert the CRNs to ordinary shares by issuing Conversion Shares in repayment of the Principal Amount, being a fixed number of ordinary shares in the Issuer.
- (3) It was expected at issue that the CRNs would become an expensive form of funding over time, as the Interest Rate increases. As the Cash Redemption Premium increases over time, there is an increasing economic incentive for the Issuer to convert the CRNs to Conversion Shares rather than redeem them for cash.
- (4) The Issuer used the Principal Amount to subscribe for Preference Shares in Company C.
- (5) An amount (whether it is income, consideration, gain, loss or expenditure) that is solely attributable to an excepted financial arrangement (as described in sections EW 5(2) to EW 5(16) of the Income Tax Act 2007 (“the Act”)) is not taken into account under the financial arrangements rules (in accordance with section EW 6(2) of the Act).
- (6) This Determination prescribes a method for determining the part of the consideration receivable by the parties to the arrangement that is solely attributable to the excepted financial arrangements.

2. Reference

- (1) This Determination is made pursuant to section 90AC(1)(h) of the Tax Administration Act 1994.

3. Scope of determination

- (1) This Determination applies to a wider financial arrangement constituted by:
  - (a) the CRNs;
  - (b) the Preference Shares; and
  - (c) the Conversion Shares.

4. Principle

- (1) The CRNs, the Preference Shares and the Conversion Shares are each part of a wider financial arrangement that has “excepted financial arrangement” components as defined in section EW 5 of the Act. The excepted financial arrangements are:
  - (a) the Preference Shares; and
  - (b) the Conversion Shares.
- (2) The CRNs are a hybrid financial arrangement which have a debt and an equity component. The equity component arises from the option available to the Issuer to issue the Conversion Shares to the Noteholder in lieu of repayment in cash (of the Principal Amount plus the Cash Redemption Premium).
- (3) As the CRNs have this dual character, when calculating income or expenditure in relation to the CRNs it is first necessary to separate the debt and equity components of the CRNs. For the purposes of this determination, it is assumed that, if the Issuer issues Conversion Shares to the Noteholder in lieu of payment of the Principal Amount in cash, any difference between the market value of the Conversion Shares and the Principal Amount is solely attributable to the Conversion Shares. Consequently, the difference is solely attributable to an excepted financial arrangement.

- (4) Any income, consideration, gain or loss, or expenditure that is solely attributable to an excepted financial arrangement is not included when calculating income or expenditure under the financial arrangements rules.
- (5) This Determination specifies that the amounts that are solely attributable to the excepted financial arrangements are:
  - (a) the amounts paid under or with respect to the Preference Shares; and
  - (b) if the Issuer issues Conversion Shares to the Noteholder in lieu of payment in cash, any difference between the market value of the Conversion Shares and the Principal Amount.
- (6) This Determination specifies that no part of the Principal Amount, the repayment of the Principal Amount, the Coupon Interest, and any Cash Redemption Premium under the CRNs is solely attributable to an excepted financial arrangement.

5. Interpretation

- (1) In this Determination, unless the context otherwise requires, words and expressions which have not been defined elsewhere within the Determination have the same meaning as in section YA1 of the Act.
- (2) In this Determination, the following expressions (which have not been defined elsewhere in this Determination) have the following meanings:

Cash Redemption Premium means any amount paid by the Issuer to the Noteholder in excess of the Principal Amount on redemption of the CRNs for cash. If the CRNs are redeemed for cash under clause 4.5(b)(ii) of the Terms and Conditions, the Cash Redemption Premium is 2% if the CRNs are redeemed on or before 31 December 2011, 4% if the CRNs are redeemed from 31 December 2011 but on or before 31 December 2012, 6% if the CRNs are redeemed from 31 December 2012 but on or before 31 December 2013, then it continues to increase by a further 2% for each successive two-yearly Interest Rate reset period (as stated in clause 4.2(b)(ii) of the Terms and Conditions).

Conversion Shares means a fixed number of fully paid ordinary shares in the Issuer issued to the Noteholder pursuant to clause 4.3 of the Terms and Conditions, after making any adjustment required pursuant to clause 5 of the Terms and Conditions. Pursuant to clause 4.3, the $1.00 Principal Amount of each CRN will convert to 2.1 fully paid ordinary shares in the Issuer.

Coupon Interest means quarterly interest payments by the Issuer to the Noteholder pursuant to clause 3 of the Terms and Conditions, and includes any amount of unpaid interest which is subsequently paid pursuant to clause 3.2(b) of the Terms and Conditions.

Interest Rate means 8% until 31 December 2011, and subsequently the rate determined under clause 3.5 of the Terms and Conditions. Under clause 3.5 the interest rate is: From 31 December 2011 until 31 December 2013, a two-year interbank swap rate on 31 December 2011 plus a margin of 550 basis points; from 31 December 2013 until 31 December 2015 a two-year interbank swap rate on 31 December 2013 plus a margin of 650 basis points; and from 31 December 2013 reset at a two-year interbank swap rate plus a margin of 650 basis points every two years (while the CRNs remain on issue).

Preference Shares means preference shares in Company C which the Issuer subscribed for in accordance with clause 2.2 of the Subscription Agreement for Convertible Redeemable Notes between the Issuer and the Noteholder, or any such shares that are reclassified as ordinary shares.

Principal Amount, in relation to each CRN, means $1.00. References to the aggregate Principal Amount are to the aggregate of the Principal Amount of all the CRNs, being an aggregate Principal Amount of approximately NZ$32.5 million.

Terms and Conditions means the CRN terms set out in Schedule 1 to the Subscription Agreement for Convertible Redeemable Notes between the Issuer and the Noteholder.

6. Method

- (1) Where the CRNs are converted to Conversion Shares pursuant to clause 4.1 of the Terms and Conditions, any amount by which the value of the Conversion Shares is above or below the aggregate Principal Amount of the CRNs is solely attributable to the Conversion Shares.
- (2) The amounts that are solely attributable to the Preference Shares are:
  - (a) The issue price per Preference Share of $1.00;
  - (b) Any dividends paid on the Preference Shares by the Issuer;
  - (c) Any other distributions paid on or with respect to the Preference Shares; and
  - (d) Proceeds derived by the Issuer from the disposal or redemption of the Preference Shares.
- (3) No other income, gain, loss, expenditure or consideration paid under or with respect to the wider financial arrangement is solely attributable to an excepted financial arrangement component of the wider financial arrangement. Consequently, all other amounts in relation to the CRNs (such as the Principal Amount, Coupon Interest and any Cash Redemption Premium) are taken into account under the financial arrangements rules.

7. Examples

Example A: Value of Conversion Shares exceeds the aggregate Principal Amount

- (1) This example illustrates the application of the method (set out in this Determination) for determining the amounts attributable to both the debt and equity components of the CRNs to be issued by the Issuer to the Noteholder.
- (2) The example assumes the following:
  - The CRNs are issued on 16 January 2010 and the Noteholder will continue to hold the CRNs until 31 December 2015.
  - The aggregate Principal Amount subscribed for the CRNs is NZ$32.5 million.
  - The Issuer uses the aggregate Principal Amount to subscribe for Preference Shares in Company C, and derives dividends from them.
  - Coupon Interest payments are not at any time suspended.
  - The Issuer exercises its option to convert the CRNs to Conversion Shares on 31 December 2015.
  - On conversion, the value of the Conversion Shares is NZ$40 million, ie exceeding the aggregate Principal Amount.

- (3) The Coupon Interest will not be solely attributable to an excepted financial arrangement. Consequently it will be expenditure under the financial arrangements rules.
- (4) All other income or expenditure will be solely attributable to the excepted financial arrangement components of the wider financial arrangement. Consequently the financial arrangements rules will not apply to such amounts.
- (5) The difference between the value of the Conversion Shares and the aggregate Principal Amount will be attributable to an excepted financial arrangement, and so will not be income or expenditure under the financial arrangements rules.

Example B: Aggregate Principal Amount is equal to or less than the value of Conversion Shares

- (1) This example proceeds on the same basis as Example A, except that the value of the Conversion Shares is less than the aggregate Principal Amount.
- (2) The amounts solely attributable to an excepted financial arrangement are the same as in Example A. Consequently the expenditure under the financial arrangements rules will be the same as in Example A.

Example C: Value of Conversion Shares less than the aggregate Principal Amount

- (1) This example proceeds on the same basis as Example A, except that the Issuer exercises its option to redeem the CRNs for cash on 31 December 2015.
- (2) The Coupon Interest and the Cash Redemption Premium equal to 6% of the aggregate Principal Amount payable on redemption will not be solely attributable to an excepted financial arrangement. Consequently these amounts will be expenditure under the financial arrangements rules.

This Determination is signed by me on the 12th day of December 2011.

HOWARD DAVIS, Director (Taxpayer Rulings).

Commerce Commission

Commerce Act 1986

Notice of Amendment of the Airport Information Disclosure Determination

Pursuant to section 52Q of Part 4 of the Commerce Act 1986 ("the Act"), the Commerce Commission ("the Commission") gives the following notice.

On 27 February 2012, the Commission made an amendment ("the Amendment") under section 52Q of the Act to the Commerce Act (Specified Airport Services Information Disclosure) Determination 2010, Decision 715 ("the Determination").

The majority of the changes are clarifications or drafting corrections.

The Amendment contains three major changes to the Determination:

- (a) The Director's certification requirements have been amended to make it clear that the disclosed information is required only to comply in all material respects with the Determination;
- (b) The auditing requirements have been amended so that the audit report is required to be addressed to Directors, with the auditor acknowledging a duty of care to the Commission;
- (c) The period between a price setting event and the required disclosure after a price setting event is increased from 20 to 40 working days.

The Amendment is effective on 1 March 2012.

Copies of the Amendment and the Determination are available for inspection free of charge at the Commission (during ordinary office hours), on the Commission's website or for purchase at a reasonable price at the Commission, 44 The Terrace, Wellington.

www.comcom.govt.nz

Dated at Wellington this 1st day of March 2012.

COMMERCE COMMISSION.

Explanatory Note

The Commerce Amendment Act 2008 introduced changes to the Commerce Act 1986 ("the Act"), including a requirement for the Commerce Commission to set information disclosure requirements for suppliers of specified airport services.

The information disclosure requirements were set out in Commerce Commission Decision 715 and took effect on 1 January 2011.

The information disclosure requirements must comply with the Commerce Act (Specified Airport Services Input Methodologies) Determination 2010.

Electricity Authority

Electricity Industry Act 2010

Notice of the Electricity Industry Participation (Temporary Grid Reconfiguration) Code Amendment 2012

1. Pursuant to section 38(3)(b) of the Electricity Industry Act 2010 ("Act"), the Electricity Authority ("Authority") gives notice of the making of the Electricity Industry Participation (Temporary Grid Reconfiguration) Code Amendment 2012.
2. The amendment is made urgently under section 40(1) of the Act. The amendment comes into force on 2 March 2012.
3. This amendment enables Transpower to temporarily remove interconnection assets from service or temporarily reconfigure the grid, in specified circumstances, where this results in a net benefit, to improve the operation of the electricity system.
4. The Authority considers that it is desirable to make the amendment urgently because:
  - (a) due to the ongoing dry conditions in the lower South Island, increasing amounts of electricity are flowing from the North Island across the HVDC link into the South Island to conserve hydro lake levels. However, various factors are combining to restrict southward power flow at various times, and these restrictions are likely to occur more frequently if hydro conditions in the South Island deteriorate materially over the coming months;
  - (b) the system operator has indicated that it is investigating temporary configurations that would allow increased southward power flow. A temporary grid reconfiguration could provide a significant benefit by enabling more southward flow, conserving hydro lake storage, and increasing security of supply; and
  - (c) a delay in making a Code amendment will increase the likelihood that the benefits of a removal or reconfiguration of interconnection assets will not be realised.

5. A copy of the amendment and the Code is available on the Electricity Authority's website

www.ea.govt.nz/act-code-regs/code-regs/

6. A copy of the amendment and the Code may also be inspected free of charge or purchased from the Electricity Authority, Level 7, ASB Bank Tower, 2 Hunter Street, Wellington.

Dated at Wellington this 27th day of February 2012.

DR THOMAS BRENT LAYTON, Chairperson, Electricity Authority.

3. For the avoidance of doubt, clause 2.1 applies to any activity, whether that activity commences on the surface of the Servient Land or any other property.
4. The Crown's consent under clause 2.1 may be given or withheld, or made subject to conditions, at the Crown's sole and absolute discretion. Consent will be required on each occasion notwithstanding any prior consent or approval obtained for the like purpose on a prior occasion.
