Land Transport Act 1998

Authorised Access to Certain Names and Addresses Held on the Motor Vehicle Register

Pursuant to section 241 of the Land Transport Act 1998 (“the Act”), I authorise the following person, for the purpose and the term, and on the conditions stated below, to have access to the names and addresses of persons:

- who are currently registered in respect of a motor vehicle(s); and
- who have not instructed the Registrar of Motor Vehicles to withhold their details.

| Person | Purpose | Term |
|-----------------------------|---|---|
| Quantum Services NZ Limited | To send a reminder notice to the registered person where a motor vehicle has been parked in a car park in breach of the parking terms and conditions, enforcement of which is managed by Quantum Services NZ Limited. | From the date Quantum Services NZ Limited receives the final decision on its application to 31 July 2016 inclusive. |

Conditions

- The names and addresses are accessed only by Quantum Services NZ Limited on its own behalf and solely for its own use;
- The names and addresses are accessed only for the specified purpose;
- The fees charged for the provision of the names and addresses from the Motor Vehicle Register are duly paid;
- Any identified instances of unauthorised access are immediately notified to the Secretary for Transport and the Privacy Commissioner;
- Before being permitted to access the Motor Vehicle Register under section 241 of the Act, all staff must receive training that emphasises that such access must only be for the specified purpose, and refresher training of all staff also must be undertaken at appropriate intervals;
- Access must be restricted solely to a centralised location and to members of staff for whom authorised access is essential to achieving the specified purpose;
- The names and addresses obtained under this authorisation shall not be disclosed to any third party unless such disclosure is necessarily incidental to achieving the specified purpose;
- In the first instance, an unnamed notice of breach must be placed on a vehicle to allow the person in charge of the vehicle a reasonable time to pay a fee or to appeal the imposition of the fee before the register is accessed for name and address details;
- Records must be kept of the purpose and occasions whenever names and addresses are accessed from the register, and these records must be sufficient to establish that in each case a reasonable period has been allowed for payment before the register has been accessed for name and address details;
- Quantum Services NZ Limited must provide an annual report to the NZ Transport Agency on compliance with these conditions by 1 August in each year beginning with 1 August 2012 (this requirement may be incorporated into the company’s usual audit practices); and
- The terms and conditions, if any, imposed by the NZ Transport Agency for access to Motor Vehicle Register information.

Land Transport Act 1998

Notification of Ordinary Rule

Pursuant to section 161(3) of the Land Transport Act 1998, notification is hereby given of the making of the Land Transport (Road User) Amendment Rule 2011 ("the amendment Rule").

The amendment Rule amends the Land Transport (Road User) Rule 2004 ("the Rule"), which established the rules under which traffic operates on the roads.

The amendment Rule changes New Zealand's give-way rules and makes other more minor changes that will affect road users.

Changing the give-way rules is a road safety priority in the Government's Safer Journeys – New Zealand's Road Safety Strategy 2010 – 2020.

Other changes in the amendment Rule will improve school bus safety and strengthen or clarify other existing requirements in the Rule, and remove requirements that are no longer needed.

Changes have also been made to ensure the Rule is consistent with Land Transport Rule: Traffic Control Devices 2004.

The amendment Rule comes into force on 1 October 2011.

The changes to the give-way rules take effect on 25 March 2012 at 5.00am.

The amendment Rule is available for inspection free of charge at the National Office of the NZ Transport Agency, Victoria Arcade, 50 Victoria Street, Wellington, and at the NZ Transport Agency's regional offices.

A bound copy will be available for purchase from bookshops that sell legislation or from Legislation Direct, telephone (04) 568 0005.

Notification of Ordinary Rule

Pursuant to section 161(3) of the Land Transport Act 1998, notification is hereby given of the making of the Land Transport (Driver Licensing) Amendment Rule 2011 ("the amendment Rule").

The amendment Rule amends the Land Transport (Driver Licensing) Rule 1999, which specifies the requirements for obtaining and renewing a driver licence in New Zealand, and for obtaining or renewing a licence endorsement that enables the endorsement holder to use a motor vehicle for specified activities.

The amendment Rule gives effect to changes listed as "first actions" in the Government's Safer Journeys — New Zealand's Road Safety Strategy 2010 – 2020.

These changes will improve the motorcycle licensing and training regime and will allow novice drivers to undertake approved driving courses in the learner licence phase.

Other changes will reduce legislative complexity, make business processes clearer and easier, and reduce compliance costs for users of the driver licensing system.

Most of the changes were consulted on in the draft of the amendment Rule released for consultation in November 2010.

A number of minor and technical amendments were made available for public comment in June 2011 in Land Transport Rule: Omnibus Amendment 2011 and have been incorporated into the amendment Rule.

The amendment Rule comes into force on 1 October 2011.

It is available for inspection free of charge at the National Office of the NZ Transport Agency, Victoria Arcade, 50 Victoria Street, Wellington, and at the NZ Transport Agency's regional offices.

A bound copy will be available for purchase from bookshops that sell legislation or from Legislation Direct, telephone (04) 568 0005.

1. The Crown shall have the right to lay, place, maintain and replace ground anchors and associated equipment in the Easement Land for the purpose of securing a retaining wall.
2. In order to lay, place, maintain and replace ground anchors and associated equipment, the Crown shall have the right for its servants, agents and workmen with any tools, implements, machinery or other equipment reasonably necessary to enter the Easement Land for the purposes of laying, placing, maintaining or replacing any ground anchor and its associated equipment subject to the conditions that as little disturbance as possible is caused to the Easement Land, that the Easement Land is restored as nearly as possible to its original condition and that any other damage done by reason of the aforesaid is repaired at the cost of the Crown to the satisfaction of the owner of the Servient Tenement, acting reasonably, in all things.

3. The Crown shall maintain the surface of the retaining wall to a reasonable standard, sufficient to prevent any damage occurring to the Servient Tenement.
4. The Owner of the Servient Tenement shall not do anything in the Easement Land, which would require the ground anchors and associated equipment to be removed or where their efficiency would be reduced to the point where the stability of the retaining wall that they retain would be reduced to a standard, which in the reasonable opinion of the Crown, is unacceptable.
5. The Owner of the Servient Land shall not undertake or permit to be undertaken, any excavation works in the Easement Land, except with the prior written consent of the Crown and then only in accordance with such terms and reasonable conditions as it may impose in respect of such consent.
