- B. WHRS Mediation and Adjudication: If the claimant has applied for adjudication under the Act (regardless of whether the claimant has commenced mediation or adjudication) and the relevant Participating Territorial Authority was either named as a party in the application or later joined to the application, then:
 - (i) the Participating Territorial Authority must agree to the claimant receiving a financial contribution under the Financial Assistance Package; and

 - (i) have an eligible claim as at the date of this notice; and

Where this criterion applies, the claimant will be required to provide evidence of the scope and costs of the repairs to the satisfaction of the Department which will be reviewed against the estimate in the full assessor's report. The agreed repair costs will be an amount determined by the Department. When considering the scope of repairs carried out, the Department will take into consideration the definition of repair in the Act and whether any aspects of the repair works constitute betterment.

I. Existing claimants without a full assessor's report who have undertaken repairs: Claimants who:

- (i) have an eligible claim as at the date of this notice; and

- C. A claimant who:
 - (i) has previously been or is currently involved in any civil proceedings relating to the weathertightness of the dwellinghouse where the relevant Participating Territorial Authority is named as a party, or has been joined as a party; and
 - (ii) discontinues those proceedings before lodging a claim in accordance with the Act, will not qualify for a contribution from the Participating Territorial Authority, unless the Participating Territorial Authority agrees otherwise.

 - (f) the relevant territorial authority never inspected the weathertightness related work forming part of the dwellinghouse.
 - (g) the relevant territorial authority inspected the weathertightness related work and either:
 - (i) issued a notice to fix (under the Building Act 2004);
 - (ii) issued a notice to rectify (under the Building Act 1991); or
 - (iii) otherwise advised the homeowner of any defects, and a code compliance certificate was never issued.
 - (h) the claim relates to a dwellinghouse within a retirement village within the meaning of the Retirement Villages Act 2003, and the owner by or on behalf of whom the claim is made is the retirement village's operator or promoter as defined in that Act.

For the avoidance of doubt, the above circumstances are not the only circumstances in which a claimant may not receive a contribution from a Participating Territorial Authority.

New Zealand Qualifications Authority

Education Act 1989

Criteria for Approval and Accreditation of Programmes

Pursuant to section 253(3) of the Education Act 1989 (“the Act”), notice is given that the New Zealand Qualifications Authority, having undertaken the consultation required by section 253(2), has replaced the criteria established under sections 253(1)(d) and (e) of the Act and published in the New Zealand Gazette, 4 December 2008, No. 188, page 4962, with the criteria set out below.

It continues to be expected that organisations will, in the development and delivery of programmes, give effect to the principles of the Treaty of Waitangi as expressed in business plans and/or quality management documentation.

These criteria refer to “programme approvals” as part of the alignment with practice in the tertiary sector and introduction of the New Zealand Qualifications Framework.

A “programme”, “programme approval” and “approved programme” are respectively a “course”, “course approval” and “approved course” in terms of section 258 of the Act.

Similarly “accreditation to provide an approved programme” is an “accreditation to provide an approved course” in terms of section 259 of the Act.

The replacement criteria align with the recent introduction of the New Zealand Qualifications Framework to replace the New Zealand Register of Quality Assured Qualifications.

Applications for programme approval are based on a qualification meeting the listing requirements on the New Zealand Qualifications Framework.

(Refer to the Requirements for listing and maintaining qualifications on the New Zealand Qualifications Framework).

Note that qualification and programme approval may occur simultaneously.

These criteria apply to all applications submitted on or after 1 August 2011.

All organisations that are granted programme approval are required by section 258A(1) of the Act to continue to comply with the criteria that relate to programme approvals.

All organisations that are granted accreditation to provide an approved programme are required by section 259A(1) of the Act to continue to comply with the criteria that relate to accreditation.

The New Zealand Qualifications Authority or any body exercising powers of approval and accreditation under the provisions of section 260(2) of the Education Act 1989, or the New Zealand Vice Chancellors’ Committee in exercising the power of approval and accreditation under the provisions of section 260(1) of the Education Act 1989, shall satisfy itself as to the standard and quality of every course for which approval and/or accreditation is sought in regard to the following criteria.
