3. This Notice is issued under section 88 of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000.
4. This Notice is part of a family care policy made under Part 4A of that Act.¹ This Notice must be read with that policy.

Parties to the Notice

5. This Notice is between the Ministry of Health and the disabled person; it also recognises the responsibilities of the family carer and Ministry's agents.

8. This Notice is effective from 1 October 2013, and applies to funded family care from that date.

Overview

9. This Notice sets out the funding arrangements of the Government's family care policy⁵ that are required to enable the Ministry to pay a disabled person to receive funded family care, and for that disabled person to use that funding to employ a family carer.
10. Funded family care is described in the Funded Family Care Operational Policy.⁶ Essentially it is:
 - (a) for personal care and household management services;
 - (b) provided by a family carer to a disabled person who meets the eligibility criteria;
 - (c) provided to the disabled person up to a maximum of 40 hours a week; and
 - (d) paid at the rate of the minimum wage for adults.⁷

 - (a) the Ministry to pay the disabled person for funded family care;
 - (b) the disabled person to use the funding to employ a family carer to provide the funded family care;
 - (c) the disabled person and the family carer to prepare an individual service arrangement;⁹
 - (d) the family carer to provide the funded family care according to the arrangements reflected in the individual service arrangement; and

- (c) the unique dynamics of the home and family/whānau/aiga setting are respected;
- (d) the contribution of family carers, with the assistance of other members of the family, is valued; and

- (a) act in the best interests of the disabled person;
- (b) respect the individual autonomy and choice of the disabled person;

Endnotes

¹ See in particular sections 70A to 70D in Part 4A (inserted by section 4 of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Amendment Act 2013). Part 4A commenced on 21 May 2013. Its purpose is to provide a framework to enable the Crown to fund disability support services within sustainable limits

² Or their legally authorised representative

³ Section 88(1)(a) of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000

⁴ After 12 weeks' public notice is given of any amendment (section 88(2) of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000)

⁵ Funded Family Care is a Disability Support Services operational policy under the Ministry's Paid Family Carers policy; see www.health.govt.nz

⁶ The Ministry's Funded Family Care Operational Policy is published on www.health.govt.nz

⁷ The annual rate of the adult minimum wage (and other employer obligations) is published on www.dol.govt.nz/er/pay/minimumwage

⁸ The person providing replacement care is also a member of the partnering relationship when such care is required

⁹ The template for the individual service arrangement is included as an appendix to the Ministry's Funded Family Care Operational Policy

- ¹⁰ United Nations Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities 2006 in particular Articles 3 (General Principles); 4 (General Obligations); 5 (Equality and non-discrimination); and 12 (Equal recognition before the law); www.un.org/disabilities/convention/conventionfull.shtml
- ¹¹ Good faith generally means to discuss with each other any matter which affects the delivery of the disability support services in an open way so that all matters are “on the table”, to be active and constructive in establishing and maintaining a good relationship, being responsive, providing information, and not doing anything that might mislead or deceive each other
- ¹² Under the Health and Disability Services Eligibility Direction 2011; published on www.health.govt.nz
- ¹³ 18 years of age or older; assessed as eligible for Home and Community Support Services; have high or very high disability needs; and would not be able to remain at home if they could not employ a family carer; in accordance with the Ministry’s Funded Family Care Operational Policy is published on www.health.govt.nz
- ¹⁴ This includes provision for such matters as annual leave, sick leave, Kiwisaver, Accident Compensation contributions, and funding replacement care
- ¹⁵ It will address the needs by contributing to achieving appropriate disability outcomes, by facilitating access to disability support services, ensuring good pathways through those services, and by being delivered in a manner that is culturally appropriate for all people
- ¹⁶ The responsibilities are set-out in more detail in the Ministry’s Funded Family Care Operational Policy
- ¹⁷ This is evaluating the disabled person’s eligibility to ensure that the person is not a spouse, civil union partner, or de facto partner of the family member despite the reference to those family relationships in section 70B(2)(a) of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000
- ¹⁸ The family carer must be physically capable, and have the necessary skills, qualifications and/or experience to provide the disability support services
- ¹⁹ Disclosure of legal status between parties is a requirement of law in many situations and expected best practice in others, particularly when they involve positions of trust
- ²⁰ This includes payments to the estate of the disabled person, if they die while receiving funded family care, for entitlements that have accrued to the family carer – such as annual leave. Payment in these circumstances is at the discretion of the Ministry for any period up to 28 days
- ²¹ Such as “paperwork and red tape”
- ²² Wages (because payment is an hourly rate, can be up to 40 hours a week, and is based on the adult minimum wage)
- ²³ This includes obligations such as those under the Employment Relations Act 2000, Health and Safety in Employment Act 1992, Holidays Act 2003, Wages Protection Act 1983, and all other laws relating to being an employer – see www.dol.govt.nz/ [Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment]
- ²⁴ For example under the Income Tax Act 2007, and Accident Compensation Act 2001
- ²⁵ To avoid any delay or disruption to the provision of funded family care
- ²⁶ For example if the other work was full-time, demanding, or at hours which meant that the funded family care was unlikely to be delivered in the best interests of the disabled person. Further, no family carer can provide funded family care to more than one disabled person at a time, unless specifically approved in writing by the Ministry. If that occurs, the total number of hours must not exceed 40 a week
- ²⁷ Such as health issues, losing a driving license or being charged with an offence
- ²⁸ For example a personal order (such as a welfare guardian), or enduring power of attorney under the Protection of Personal and Property Rights Act 1988, or any other “authority” that might impact on the relationship of the disabled person and the family member. This is to ensure that any relationship issues that the family member may have with the disabled person are “on the table” and can be managed in the best interests of the disabled person
- ²⁹ The disabled person can notify the Ministry for any reason, including if the family carer is unable or unwilling to continue providing that care
- ³⁰ The standard for the delivery of disability support services is: NZS 8158:2012 Home and Community Support Sector Standard
- ³¹ The assessment is to determine if the disabled person has a qualifying impairment or condition, and make a decision to proceed with funded family care, including (if necessary) through the assistance of an advocate
- ³² The review process will follow standard Needs Assessment and Service Coordination operational policy and the manager’s manual, and the Ministry’s Funded Family Care Operational Policy
- ³³ Responsibility only occurs when a party becomes aware of any circumstance where payment may be stopped; notification should preferably be at least 7 days before the next payment date
- ³⁴ This is called the Individual Service Plan in the Ministry’s Funded Family Care Operational Policy
- ³⁵ This does not have to be a statutory declaration under the Oaths and Declarations Act 1957 (Schedule 1), but uses the term “declare” so that both parties understand and fully accept the significance of their respective responsibilities
- ³⁶ The back-up arrangement must allow for certainty and for any contingency to be dealt with as quickly as possible if such events do occur. Examples of situations when a back-up arrangement may be required are illness, injury, bereavement leave, annual leave, or any other reason (agreed between the disabled person and the Ministry’s agent) for absence
- ³⁷ This is an automated invoice that the Ministry creates for the regular fortnightly payment for the funded family care. The disabled person is not required to issue invoices
- ³⁸ Pro-rated payments must be made if the first and last payments fall within a fortnight
- ³⁹ The start date is the date included in the individual service arrangement; backdating payment is up to a maximum of 28 days
- ⁴⁰ This will usually be by verification such as a bank deposit slip (or a bank deposit slip of the authorised representative)
- ⁴¹ The Ministry’s agent will arrange for a bank deposit slip to be provided to the Ministry
- ⁴² The disabled person must notify the Ministry’s agent within 14 days of being in hospital, overseas or temporarily not receiving funded family care; payments will be stopped by the Ministry if funded family care has not resumed within 28 days
- ⁴³ See www.health.govt.nz/your-health/services-and-support/disability-services/contact-disability-support-services
- ⁴⁴ The employment relationship is between the disabled person and the family carer, therefore the Ministry or the Ministry’s agent cannot become involved in any employment problems
- ⁴⁵ A copy of the relevant NASC review process is published on: www.health.govt.nz/system/files/documents/pages/nasc.doc
- ⁴⁶ The information must be kept in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993 and the Health Information Privacy Code 1994; the Ministry must comply with this legislation
- ⁴⁷ This is necessary for the Ministry to meet its accountability requirements for the payment of public monies for the funded family care; and to ensure that the funded family care is effective and that payments are being made correctly
- ⁴⁸ No notice will be given if the Ministry has reasonable grounds to consider that the health and safety interests of the disabled person may be affected, or where there may be fraud involved in receiving payments
- ⁴⁹ This will depend on the circumstances of each individual case
- ⁵⁰ The Ministry may continue making payment or stop payments. The Ministry may allocate payment in exceptional circumstances in terms of paragraph 5.2 of the Ministry’s Funded Family Care Operational Policy
- ⁵¹ Including email and text
- ⁵² Especially sections 6 and 70B(1)
- ⁵³ There may be more than one family carer if the role is to be shared

⁵⁴ A “family member” is defined in sections 70B(1) and (2) of the New Zealand Public Health and Disability Act 2000, and is related to the disabled person as one of the following persons:

- (a) parent, step-parent, or grandparent;
- (b) child, step-child, or grandchild;
- (c) sister, half-sister, step-sister, brother, half-brother, or step-brother;
- (d) aunt or uncle;
- (e) nephew or niece; or
- (f) first cousin

⁵⁵ The home and community support services in the individual service arrangement, eg personal care – assistance with showering and dressing; household support – helping to prepare meals or home cleaning; and help for the disabled person through natural networks such as family/whānau/aiga, friends, marae, neighbours and others, which ensures the disabled person has the appropriate quality of family care, and can access and attend services such as medical, dental, and personal grooming services when required

⁵⁶ This is a general term, the Ministry’s actual agent in any particular circumstance will depend on what services are being provided

Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009

Ministerial Exemptions under the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009

In accordance with section 159(3) of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“the Act”), the Minister of Justice hereby gives notice that she has granted the following exemptions from the Act:

Ministerial Exemption: JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (New Zealand Branch)

1. As the Minister of Justice and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“the Act”), I exempt the reporting entity JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (New Zealand Branch) (“JPMorgan”) from section 56(2) of the Act in so far as the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT) compliance officer must be an employee of the reporting entity. The exemption is approved in this case, allowing the AML/CFT compliance officer to be an employee of an Australian entity.
2. The AML/CFT compliance officer intends to maintain a strong relationship with the New Zealand reporting entity’s senior management and have clear reporting lines. New Zealand staff should have access to the Sydney-based officer in order to report suspicious circumstances that may arise, and the officer maintain appropriate qualifications and knowledge, and proper access to key information and adequate resources.
3. This exemption has been granted as there are low risks of money laundering and terrorist financing associated with this specific exemption.
4. All other provisions apply. I particularly draw your attention to section 56(4) of the Act which states “The AML/CFT compliance officer must report to a senior manager of the reporting entity”.
5. This exemption may be applied to successor(s) to the current AML/CFT Compliance Officer.
6. This exemption comes into force on the day after the date I grant this exemption (granted 8 September 2013).
7. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2018, and/or if the conditions of the exemption are breached.

Ministerial Exemption: Hallmark Life Insurance Company and Hallmark General Insurance Company Limited

1. As the Minister of Justice and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“the Act”), I provide Hallmark Life Insurance Company Limited and Hallmark General Insurance Company Limited with partial exemptions from the provisions of the Act in relation to the provision of consumer life insurance policies under which consumer credit insurance with a life cover component are offered to customers. The exemptions specifically cover Part 2 of the Act.

2. This exemption is not subject to any conditions.
3. These exemptions have been made for the following reasons:
 - (a) The compliance burden to which both entities would be subjected if this exemption was not granted would be disproportionate to the money laundering and terrorist financing risks involved in the products offered.
 - (b) The low dollar value of the amounts involved.
 - (c) The loans to which these consumer life policies relate will have been checked and verified from an anti-money laundering perspective by the underlying credit providers.
 - (d) According to international findings, consumer life policies are considered to be lower risk products for money laundering and terrorist financing.
4. This exemption comes into force on the day after the date I grant this exemption (granted 8 September 2013).
5. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2016.

Ministerial Exemption: Hallmark Life Insurance Company Limited

1. As the Minister of Justice and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“the Act”), I partially exempt Hallmark Life Insurance Company Limited from the provisions of the Act in relation to the provision of current term life policies in run-off. This exemption specifically covers Part 2 of the Act.
2. This exemption is not subject to any conditions.
3. This exemption has been made for the following reasons:
 - (a) Sales of your term life policies were discontinued in 2008 and are currently in run-off.
 - (b) The compliance burden to which Hallmark would be subjected if this exemption was not granted would be disproportionate to the money laundering and terrorist financing risks involved with these products.
 - (c) The loans to which these term life policies relate will have been checked and verified from an anti-money laundering perspective by the underlying credit providers.
 - (d) According to international findings term life policies, are considered to be lower risk products for money laundering and terrorist financing.

4. This exemption comes into force on the day after the date I grant this exemption (granted 8 September 2013).
5. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2018.

Ministerial Exemption: GE Group

1. As the Minister of Justice and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“the Act”), I exempt the following reporting entities (together referred to as “GE Group”) from paragraph (d)(i) of the definition of “designated business group” in the Act:
 - (a) Custom Fleet NZ;
 - (b) GE Finance and Insurance;
 - (c) GE Commercial Finance NZ; and
 - (d) GE Commercial Finance (USD) New Zealand.
2. This exemption is made subject to the following conditions:
 - (a) GE Group is required to otherwise satisfy all other requirements of the definition of a “designated business group”;
 - (b) all the reporting entities which comprise the GE Group continue at all times to share the same common ownership and control; and
 - (c) all other provisions of the Act apply.
3. This exemption has been made for the following reasons:
 - (a) There are low risks of money laundering and terrorist financing associated with this specific exemption.
 - (b) The exemption is a technical exemption.
 - (c) All other provisions of the Act apply.
 - (d) The GE Group understands the requirements of the Act and is reviewing its current programme to ensure that it complies in time for the Act’s inception.
 - (e) The burden of compliance costs on GE Group if the exemption was not granted would be unintended and significant.
4. This exemption comes into force on the day after the date I grant this exemption (granted 8 September 2013).
5. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2018, and/or if the conditions of the exemption are breached.

Ministerial Exemption: New Zealand Harbours Superannuation Plan

1. In my capacity as the Minister of Justice and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“the Act”), I partially exempt:
 - (a) the Trustees of the New Zealand Harbours Superannuation Plan (“the Plan”); and
 - (b) the Rail and Maritime Transport Union (“the Union”) as the principal promoter of the Plan and those members of the National Management Committee of the Union who are not Trustees and are therefore also promoters (“the Promoters”) from the provisions of Part 2 of the Act in relation to services provided in respect of the Plan. In order to provide consistency and eliminate risks of money-laundering, the specific provisions referred to below in paragraph 2 will still remain in force in relation to transfers to the Plan from international sources.
2. This exemption is subject to the following conditions:
 - (a) The Trustees are required to remove any mechanisms contained in the Trust Deed for the

New Zealand Harbours Superannuation Scheme that enable members to contribute to the Scheme voluntarily other than through payroll.

- (b) The Trustees are required to introduce a cap on voluntary contributions made (other than those made through payroll) to the New Zealand Harbours KiwiSaver Scheme. The cap should be set at the amount required to enable a member to maximise those government contributions set out in section MK 4 of the Income Tax Act 2007.
 - (c) With the exception of Australian superannuation transfers to the New Zealand Harbours KiwiSaver Scheme, Customer Due Diligence in accordance with sections 10–36 of the Act and suspicious transaction reports in accordance with sections 40–48 of the Act are required on all transfers to the Plan from international sources.
3. The exemption has been granted for the following reasons:
 - (a) The Trustees’ and the Promoters’ only duties as reporting entities under the Act are in respect of the Plan;
 - (b) the Plan poses a very low risk of money laundering or terrorism financing;
 - (c) any risks posed by voluntary contributions outside of payroll have been covered off by conditions;
 - (d) due to the very low money laundering and terrorism financing risks raised by the Plan and the significant compliance costs that would arise from not granting this exemption, I consider that any benefits of requiring compliance with the Act are not justified given the associated costs; and
 - (e) this exemption is consistent with (and has no effect on the purpose or intent of) the Act, the Financial Transactions Reporting Act 1996 and New Zealand’s international obligations as a member of the Financial Action Taskforce and the Asia Pacific Group on Money Laundering.
 4. This exemption comes into force on the day after the date I grant this exemption (granted 8 September 2013).
 5. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2018.

Ministerial Exemption: Seafarers Retirement Schemes

1. In my capacity as the Minister of Justice and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 (“the Act”), I partially exempt the Trustees of:
 - (a) the Seafarers Retirement Fund (“the SRF”); and
 - (b) the Seafarers Retirement Fund KiwiSaver Scheme (“the SRFKS”); together referred to as (“the Schemes”) from the provisions of Part 2 of the Act in relation to services provided in respect of the Schemes. In order to provide consistency and eliminate risks of money-laundering, the specific provisions referred to below in paragraph 2 will still remain in force in relation to transfers to the Schemes from international sources.
2. This exemption is subject to the following conditions:
 - (a) The Trustees are required to remove any mechanisms contained in the Trust Deed for the SRF that enable members to contribute to the SRF voluntarily other than through payroll.
 - (b) The Trustees are required to introduce a cap on voluntary contributions made (other than those made through payroll) to the SRFKS. The cap should be set at the amount required to enable a member to maximise those government contributions set out in section MK 4 of the Income Tax Act 2007.

- (c) With the exception of Australian superannuation transfers to the SRFKS, customer due diligence in accordance with sections 10–36 of the Act and suspicious transaction reports in accordance with sections 40–48 of the Act are required on all transfers to the Schemes from international sources.
3. The exemption has been granted for the following reasons:
 - (a) The Trustees' only duties as a reporting entity under the Act are in respect of the Schemes;
 - (b) the Schemes pose a very low risk of money laundering or terrorism financing;
 - (c) any risks posed by voluntary contributions outside of payroll have been covered off by conditions;
 - (d) due to the very low money laundering and terrorism financing risks raised by the Schemes and the significant compliance costs that would arise from not granting this exemption, I consider that any benefits of requiring compliance with the Act are not justified by the associated costs; and
 - (e) this exemption is consistent with (and has no effect on the purpose or intent of) the Act, the Financial Transactions Reporting Act 1996 and New Zealand's international obligations as a member of the Financial Action Taskforce and the Asia Pacific Group on Money Laundering.
4. This exemption comes into force on the day after the date I grant this exemption (granted 8 September 2013).
5. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2018.

Ministerial Exemption: The New Zealand Guardian Trust Company Limited

1. As the Minister of Justice and pursuant to section 157 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism Act 2009 ("the Act"), I exempt The New Zealand Guardian Trust Company Limited (NZGT) (and any of its wholly owned subsidiaries ("NZGT Subsidiary") and any other person that may be nominated by the Crown ("Crown Nominee") to perform one or more of the activities described in this exemption), in relation to NZGT's role as instalment receipt trustee for the initial public offer by the Crown of shares in Meridian Energy Limited ("Meridian"), from the Act.
2. This exemption has been made for the following reasons:
 - (a) For commercial reasons, the share offer by the Crown of shares in Meridian Energy Limited (the share offer) will be structured to allow investors to buy shares using a "split payment" method:
 - (i) Investors subscribe for the amount of shares they wish to hold in Meridian, but instead of paying the full subscription amount and receiving their shares straight away, investors will instead pay some of the purchase price upfront and receive an "instalment receipt" of the shares subscribed to;
 - (ii) Each instalment receipt entitles the holder to a share upon the Crown receiving a final instalment at a specified date in the future;
 - (iii) NZGT or an NZGT Subsidiary will hold the shares on trust for investors until the final instalment is required to be paid, following which the shares will be released;
 - (b) In relation to NZGT's role as instalment receipt trustee for the share offer, NZGT (or an NZGT Subsidiary) may have to perform a number of financial activities, in relation to:

- (i) paying any dividends to the instalment holders;
- (ii) enforcing payment to the Crown of an outstanding instalment and applying the recovered amounts to the Crown and certain other persons as set out in the trust deed;
- (iii) transferring ownership of shares once the final instalment is received;
- (c) If there are any unpaid amounts still owing after the date the final instalment is due, the Crown Nominee may be directed to carry out one or more of the financial activities described in this exemption in relation to recovering the unpaid amount rather than NZGT.
- (d) An exemption is justified because:
 - (i) If Meridian were to offer shares itself, it is unlikely that Meridian would be subject to any Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT) obligations; it is largely a result of the different structure necessary to accommodate a split payment option that AML/CFT obligations apply to the share offer;
 - (ii) If the Crown were to issue the instalment receipts, although these instalment receipts could result in funds being repayable to the public in the event that the final instalment is not paid, it is likely that the exemption in Regulation 23 of the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering Financing of Terrorism (Definitions) Regulations 2011 would apply;
 - (iii) Granting an exemption would not have a material impact on the risks of money laundering or terrorist financing given there is no material difference in such risks between the share offer and an offer where the Crown offered the instalment receipts itself;
 - (iv) There would be undue compliance difficulties and costs if NZGT (or an NZGT Subsidiary or Crown Nominee) were required to comply with AML/CFT obligations, for example:
 - (A) performing customer due diligence on the potentially large numbers of investors where investors also have the ability to trade the receipts on the secondary market;
 - (B) the finite period of time that NZGT will be instalment receipt trustee;
 - (v) There are no clear reasons justifying different regulatory treatment between the share offer and an offer where the Crown offered the instalment receipts itself, and in the absence of an exemption this may result in a competitive disadvantage for the share offer;
 - (vi) Accordingly an exemption from the Act for NZGT (or an NZGT Subsidiary or Crown Nominee) in respect of NZGT's activities as instalment receipt trustee is justified.

3. This exemption comes into force on the day after the date I grant this exemption (granted 17 September 2013).
4. This exemption will expire on 30 June 2018.

Deer Industry New Zealand

Deer Industry New Zealand Regulations 2004

Deer Industry New Zealand Levy Rates

1. Deer Industry New Zealand (DINZ) is a marketing authority established by Regulation 4 of the Deer Industry New Zealand Regulations 2004.

2. DINZ levy

2.1 Under Regulation 18(1) of the Deer Industry New Zealand Regulations 2004, DINZ fixes the rates of DINZ levy (which levy rates are exclusive of goods and services tax imposed by the Goods and Services Tax Act 1985) as follows:

- On venison derived from deer, other than fallow deer, slaughtered in deer slaughtering premises, on the basis of hot clean carcass weight after removal of condemned parts:

19 cents (nineteen cents) per kilogram for the period 1 October 2013 to 30 September 2014.

- (b) On venison derived from each fallow deer slaughtered in deer slaughtering premises, on the basis of hot clean carcass weight after removal of condemned parts:

12 cents (twelve cents) per kilogram for the period 1 October 2013 to 30 September 2014.

- (c) On velvet from deer other than fallow deer received at a packing house for processing or packing, on a frozen weight basis:

325 cents (three hundred and twenty-five cents) per kilogram.

- (d) On velvet from fallow deer received at a packing house for processing or packing, on a frozen weight basis:

90 cents (ninety cents) per kilogram.

2.2 For the purpose of paragraphs 2.1(a) and 2.1(b) above, hot clean carcass weight is defined in the DeerQA Venison Processors Industry Agreed Standards (dated 21 July 2003) at Standard IAS-3: Venison Standard Carcass. This document is available on request from Deer Industry New Zealand by telephone (04) 473 4500 or mail to PO Box 10702, Wellington.

2.3 The levy rates described in paragraphs 2.1(a) and 2.1(b) above are payable by the owner at the time of slaughter. However, where the venison is sold at the time of slaughter to a venison processor or venison marketer (as defined in Regulation 3 of the DINZ Regulations 2004):

- (a) the portions of the levy on such venison that are allocated to TB free New Zealand (as described in paragraph 9.2 below) shall remain payable by the owner at the time of slaughter;
- (b) the remainder of the levy payable on such venison shall be payable in equal shares by the owner at the time of slaughter and the venison processor or venison marketer.

2.4 No levy is payable on velvet when the value of the applicable velvet grade, as defined by the Industry Agreed Grading Guidelines, is less than or equal to $15.00/kg (GST exclusive).

2.5 If the deer slaughtering premises (DSP) or packing house (PH) (formerly game packing house) fails to keep accurate records relating to the DINZ levy or to file accurate returns relating to the DINZ levy, then the levy payable will be assessed by DINZ with reference to such information as DINZ considers fit.

3. DSPs are not required to collect levies on Tb reactors but will be required to report the number of reactor deer slaughtered to DINZ in their monthly returns. The levy will be waived for those Tb reactors which are identified with an official reactor tag and where they arrive at the DSP accompanied by an official permit to move.
4. A nil rate of levy applies to any farmed deer or killed game deer carcasses which are wholly condemned for any reason following slaughter or receipt into a PH.
5. No levy is payable in respect of any one farmed deer carcass or piece of velvet more than once.
6. These rates of levy come into effect on and from 1 October 2013 and apply until 30 September 2014, or until such time as new levy rates are fixed and come into force.
7. Under Regulation 19, notice is given that DINZ fixes the rate of additional levy payable in respect of failure to pay, or late payment of, amounts of levy payable on or after 1 October 2013 at 10 per cent of the amount of levy unpaid.
8. The additional levy for failure to pay or late payment may be applied by DINZ at a rate of 10 per cent on the outstanding balance following expiration of the period within which payment is required to be received by DINZ, and is payable by the DSP or PH concerned.
9. Of the DINZ levy, a portion will be paid to TBfree New Zealand as the deer industry's contribution to TBfree New Zealand's activities under the national pest management strategy for bovine tuberculosis. The DINZ levy will be broken down as follows:

9.1 For Deer Industry New Zealand:

- Venison (fallow) 7 cents per kilogram.
- Venison (other) 14 cents per kilogram.
- Velvet (fallow) 40 cents per kilogram.
- Velvet (other) $2.75 per kilogram.

9.2 For TBfree New Zealand:

- Venison 5 cents per kilogram.
- Velvet 50 cents per kilogram.

Dated at Wellington this 26th day of September 2013.

D. COUP, Chief Executive, Deer Industry New Zealand.
