Risk Assessment Criteria for Tertiary Education Institutions

Background

Section 195A of the Education Act 1989 ("the Act") requires the Secretary for Education to determine and publish in the New Zealand Gazette criteria for assessing the level of risk to the operation and long-term viability of tertiary education institutions, and the level of risk to the education performance of students enrolled at polytechnics. This notice sets out these criteria.

These risk assessment criteria will be considered by the Chief Executive of the Tertiary Education Commission (TEC) and the Minister for Tertiary Education ("Minister") when they consider whether an institution is at risk in a way that might warrant intervention in accordance with Parts 15 and 15A of the Act.

Whether the Chief Executive of the TEC or the Minister decides to initiate an intervention will depend on their assessment of the nature and level of the risk or risks, and the thresholds for the various types of intervention set out in the Act. Other relevant considerations may also be taken into account. For example, the Chief Executive of the TEC or the Minister will assess the appropriateness of the steps already being taken by the council of the institution before deciding whether or how to intervene.

Different interventions available under the Act have different risk level thresholds. These risk level thresholds are described by statements in the Act relating to whether:

- an institution "may be at risk" [sections 195B (provision of information), 222A (specialist help), and 222B (performance improvement plan)]
- the "operation or long term viability of an institution is at risk" [section 195C (Crown Observer)]
- "there is a serious risk to the operation or long-term viability of an institution" [sections 195D (Crown commissioner), and 222C (Crown manager)]
- "the education performance of the students at a polytechnic may be or is at risk" (this relates only to polytechnics) [sections 222A (specialist help), 222B

(performance improvement plan), and 222C (Crown manager)].

The risk assessment criteria apply to three areas.

These are:

- organisational;
- financial; and
- educational.

Two of the risk assessment criteria cross-reference the Financial Monitoring Framework operated by the TEC from 1 January 2010¹.

To the extent that the Financial Monitoring Framework is incorporated by reference in this notice, it shall be taken to be the Financial Monitoring Framework in the form published by the TEC on its website as at the date of this notice. Any revision to the Financial Monitoring Framework will not be automatically included in this notice, and a replacement notice will need to be published in the New Zealand Gazette to give effect to any changes to the TEC's Financial Monitoring Framework.

Nothing in this notice limits or affects the duties of a tertiary education institution council under section 181 of the Act, or any other duties or obligations of an institution or council under any other enactment.

Words and phrases used in this notice bear the same meaning as under the Act.

Criteria for Assessing the Level of Risk

Organisational

1. The council has not fulfilled, and continues not to fulfil, its statutory functions and duties under the Education Act 1989.
2. The council has failed, and continues to fail, to ensure the institution maintains adequate systems and processes for effective planning, and for the effective management of the financial and educational performance and infrastructure of the institution.
3. The council or the institution has failed, and continues to fail, to meet a material obligation under the Education Act 1989, Crown Entities Act 2004 or Public Finance Act 1989.

Financial

4. The institution is, or is at risk of being, unable to pay its debts as they become due in the normal course of business.
5. The institution has breached any of the conditions set by the Secretary for Education in a borrowing consent under section 192(7) of the Education Act 1989, and the breach has not been remedied.
6. The institution is in default under any loan or other facility agreement with a bank or other commercial lender, or the Crown, and the default has not been remedied.
7. The institution has an overall rating of Moderate Risk or High Risk in the most recent financial performance assessment carried out under the Financial Monitoring Framework operated by the TEC from 1 January 2010¹. The overall financial performance assessment under the Financial Monitoring Framework covers the dimensions of the shorter term financial viability and longer term sustainability of the institution.
8. The institution has a rating of Moderate Risk or High Risk under the financial viability criteria in its most recent financial performance assessment carried out under the Financial Monitoring Framework operated by the TEC from 1 January 2010¹. The financial viability criteria under the Financial Monitoring Framework focus on the shorter term financial performance of the institution.

Educational

9. The polytechnic has failed to meet the educational performance commitments in the Investment Plan agreed by the TEC.
10. The external evaluation and review of the polytechnic carried out under the auspices of the New Zealand Qualifications Authority, or by any Quality Assurance Board delegated under section 260 of the Act, has concluded that the relevant external quality assurance body is "not yet confident" or "not confident" in any aspect of the performance of the institution.

Dated at Wellington this 25th day of November 2010.

KAREN SEWELL, Secretary for Education.

Note: This notice replaces the one published in New Zealand Gazette, 28 February 2008, No. 41, page 1203.

(1) Sections 12, 62, 68A, 71, 74, 74A, 76, 77, 80A, 81, 82(3), (4), and (7), and 84 of the Act apply in relation to this programme and to the persons referred to in subclause (2) as if the special assistance authorised by this programme were a benefit.

(2) The persons are:

- (a) any applicant for assistance under this programme;
- (b) any person granted assistance under this programme.

(3) Nothing in subclause (1) limits or affects the application of any other provision of the Act.

6. Eligibility—(1) For the purpose of assisting an applicant to find and retain paid employment, the chief executive may, at his or her discretion, from time to time grant recoverable assistance under this programme to, and towards the study costs of, any applicant who:

- (a) is in receipt, in his or her own right of a domestic purposes benefit under section 27B of the Act; and
- (b) is enrolled (or is enrolled subject to the payment of tuition fees) in an approved employment-related training course.

(2) Subclause (1) is subject to subclause (5) and clauses 7 and 8.

(3) In deciding whether to grant recoverable assistance under subclause (1) and without limiting the matters the chief executive may consider, the chief executive:

- (a) must principally have regard to the matters set out in subclause (4); and

(4) The matters referred to in subclause (3)(a) are:

- (a) the period during which the applicant has been out of the workforce; and
- (b) whether the applicant already has the skills, qualifications, or recent work experience sufficient to obtain employment; and
- (c) whether the course is an appropriate one for the applicant to undertake having regard to the applicant's personal circumstances.

(5) The chief executive may refuse to grant recoverable assistance under subclause (1) if he or she is satisfied that the applicant, having previously been granted financial assistance to attend a course under this programme, the Training Incentive Allowance Programme, the Course Participation Assistance Programme or the Recoverable Assistance for Study Costs Programme, has:

- (a) failed or refused to answer any question put to him or her by an officer of the department as to whether the applicant completed that course and the result or results the applicant achieved in that course; or
- (b) failed to complete that course without, in the opinion of the chief executive, a good and sufficient reason.

7. Ineligibility—Recoverable assistance must not be granted:

8. Application process—(1) An application for recoverable assistance under this programme must be made on a form approved for the purpose by the chief executive.

(2) No application may be granted unless the applicant supplies any supporting evidence the chief executive reasonably requires to decide if the application should be granted, including:

- (a) written confirmation from the course provider of the applicant's enrolment (or enrolment subject to payment of fees); and
- (b) evidence of the nature and duration of the course; and
- (c) evidence of the applicant's study costs.

9. Amount of assistance—(1) The amount of any grant of recoverable assistance must not exceed $500.00 and the total of the grants of recoverable assistance made to an applicant must not exceed $500.00 in a calendar year.

(2) In determining the amount of any grant, the chief executive must have regard to the amount of the applicant's study costs, the manner in which they are required to be paid, and the time or times that they are required to be paid.

10. When assistance starts—No grant under clause 6(1) may be made earlier, or for any period earlier, than:

- (a) the date on which the course begins, if the application is received within 28 days of that date; or
- (b) the date on which the application for it is received, if received more than 28 days after the course begins; or
- (c) the date on which the applicant's benefit referred to in clause 6(1)(a) commences.

(2) No grant may be made before 2 February 2011.

11. When assistance ends—No grant under clause 6(1) may be made after the earlier of the following dates:

- (a) the date on which the course ends;
- (b) the date on which the applicant ceases to be entitled to receive the benefit referred to in clause 6(1)(a).

12. Rules as to recovery—(1) Section 85A of the Act provides that the amount of any recoverable assistance granted and paid to an applicant under this programme is a debt due to the Crown (in these rules, the debt) and, in accordance with section 86 of the Act, may be recovered by the chief executive from the applicant (in these rules, the debtor).

(2) The chief executive must not take any steps to recover the debt before the earlier of:

- (a) the date on which the debtor ceases study in the course for which the recoverable assistance was granted; or
- (b) the date on which the debtor ceases to be entitled to receive the benefit referred to in clause 6(1)(a).

(3) After granting recoverable assistance under this programme, the chief executive must negotiate a repayment plan with the debtor that requires repayment of the debt at a rate not less than $4.00 a week. In exceptional circumstances, the chief executive may agree to a repayment rate of less than $4.00 a week.

(4) The chief executive may, from time to time, review the rate of repayment of the debt and may increase, decrease, or make no alteration to the rate.

(5) If the debtor does not agree to a repayment plan or make repayments of the debt in accordance with a repayment plan, the chief executive may exercise any powers to recover the debt in accordance with section 86 of the Act.

(6) For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this clause prevents the debtor from making voluntary repayments of the debt at any time.

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the programme, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This welfare programme, which comes into effect on 1 January 2011, to enable applications to be processed, enables short-term recoverable assistance of a maximum amount of $500.00 in a calendar year to be granted towards the study costs on and after 2 February 2011 of people in receipt of the domestic purposes benefit for solo parents who are studying in approved employment-related training courses at level 4 or above on the National Qualifications Framework.
