Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988

Initiation of Dumping Investigation: Wire Nails From the People's Republic of China

Notice is hereby given that, acting pursuant to section 10(1) of the Dumping and Countervailing Duties Act 1988, and under delegated authority from the Chief Executive of the Ministry of Economic Development, I have initiated an investigation to determine both the existence and effect of the alleged dumping of the goods described in the Schedule to this notice originating from the People's Republic of China, being satisfied that sufficient evidence has been provided that:

- (a) the goods imported into New Zealand are being dumped; and
- (b) by reason thereof, material injury is being caused to the New Zealand industry producing like goods;

and also being satisfied that the collective output of those New Zealand producers who have, in writing, expressed support for the application for an investigation constitutes:

- (a) 25 percent or more of total New Zealand production of like goods produced for domestic consumption (assessed during the most recent representative period, being not less than six months); and
- (b) more than 50 percent of the total production of like goods produced for domestic consumption (as so assessed) by those New Zealand producers who have, in writing, expressed support for or opposition to the application.

Schedule

Goods Subject to Investigation

Country of Origin

The People's Republic of China.

Description of Goods

Education Act 1989

Tai Wānanga Establishment (Establishment of a Designated Character School in Hamilton With a Second Campus in Palmerston North)

Pursuant to sections 146 and 156 of the Education Act 1989, I hereby give the following notice:

Notice

1. This notice may be cited as the Tai Wānanga establishment.
2. This notice shall come into force the day after its publication in the New Zealand Gazette.
3. I hereby establish in Hamilton, a Year 9–13 co-educational school called Tai Wānanga and designate the school as a designated character school, with a second campus of the same designated character and year level range in Palmerston North.
4. Both campuses will become established with effect from 1 January 2011.
5. The following aims, purposes and objectives of Tai Wānanga shall constitute their designated character:
 - Tai Wānanga's distinctive character will provide a tikanga-based education programme and learning environment and deliver in a uniquely Māori environment, which provides an inclusive, interactive and nurturing learning experience to ensure health in body, mind and spirit.
 - Another contributing aspect of the special character of Tai Wānanga will be their connection to Te Wānanga o Aotearoa, which will provide immediate strength inherent in the Wānanga's kaupapa, knowledge and experience, the on-going support it can provide, and the ability to link student learning to its programmes and qualifications.
 - Tai Wānanga will have a special and deliberate focus on Māori students, but its philosophy, culture of caring and sharing, and its emphasis on success and excellence will attract students who are looking for choice beyond mainstream schooling.
 - Tai Wānanga will provide a choice of secondary schooling outside of mainstream state secondary schools, Kura Kaupapa total immersion and other "special" character schools.
 - Tai Wānanga will provide as a priority, qualifications that are related to employment by designing secondary courses that will develop a pathway to trades and professional programmes taught by Te Wānanga o Aotearoa and other tertiary institutions and providers.
6. The school will open for instruction for Year 9–13 students in 2011, with maximum rolls applying to the respective campuses in the first year, as follows:
 - (a) The maximum roll for the Hamilton Tai Wānanga campus will be 120 students, but that in its first year of operation the maximum number of students will be limited to 80 students.
 - (b) The maximum roll for the Palmerston North Tai Wānanga campus will be 120 students, but that in its first year of operation the maximum number of students will be limited to 50 students.

Health

Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001

Designated Auditing Agency

Pursuant to section 32 of the Health and Disability Services (Safety) Act 2001 (“the Act”), I, Stewart Jessamine, Acting Deputy Director-General, Population Health Directorate, Ministry of Health (“the Ministry”) under delegation from the Director-General of Health, designate Verification New Zealand Limited (the “Designated Auditing Agency” (“DAA”)) to audit the provision or likely future provision of the following kinds of health care services:

- Hospital Care (as defined in section 4(1) of the Act);
- Rest Home Care (as defined in section 6(2) of the Act); and
- Residential Disability Care (as defined in section 4(1) of the Act).

This designation is subject to the following conditions:

1. The DAA must comply with the relevant requirements of the DAA Handbook issued by the Ministry and updated from time to time.
2. Promptly after giving a certified provider or prospective provider an audit report, the DAA must:
 - complete the Ministry of Health Audit Report Tool and provide an electronic copy to the Ministry; and
 - provide a summary of the audit report to the Ministry (refer to condition 9).
3. The DAA must provide any information about the auditing of health care services pursuant to the Act if requested in writing by the Ministry.
4. During the term of the DAA’s designation, the DAA will allow the Ministry to audit or to commission the undertaking of audits or reviews of the DAA. This could also include attending audits being undertaken by the DAA. The Ministry may or may not notify the DAA of any audit or review.

5. The DAA must immediately notify the Ministry in writing of any significant change to the DAA, including but not restricted to:
 - any change in ownership and/or control of the legal entity;
 - any change in management personnel;
 - any change in pricing;
 - any change to the Auditor Register (refer to condition 8); and
 - any change in the status of any third party accreditation the DAA may hold including evidence of such accreditation and copies of any Third Party Accreditation Audit Reports or notifications in respect of their accreditation.
6. The DAA must conduct as a minimum at least one annual:
 - internal audit that focuses on the DAA’s auditing activities undertaken pursuant to the Act, together with a compliance audit against the requirements of the DAA as set out in the Act; and
 - management review in respect of the DAA’s programmes operated pursuant to the Act.
7. The DAA shall at all times operate an internal appeals system which is documented and conveyed in writing to all clients. Auditable records of the facts and outcomes of all client appeals shall be maintained by the DAA. The DAA must provide these records in writing to the Ministry when requested by the Ministry.
8. The DAA must provide in writing, in a timely manner when requested by the Ministry, the details of the name, auditing qualifications and experience, and, if relevant, the area of clinical or service competency of each auditor or technical expert approved by the DAA to undertake audits pursuant to the Act.

9. The DAA must provide all documentation to the Ministry in the form prescribed by the Ministry.

10. The DAA must hold third party accreditation with a Ministry-approved third party accreditation body.

This amendment comes into force on the day after this notice is published in the New Zealand Gazette.

Dated this 10th day of November 2010.

STEWART JESSAMINE, Acting Deputy Director-General,
Population Health Directorate, Ministry of Health.

Land Transport Act 1998

Land Transport Rules

In accordance with section 161(2) of the Land Transport Act 1998, the NZ Transport Agency, on behalf of the Minister of Transport, gives notice of the Minister's intention to make a Rule that amends the Land Transport (Driver Licensing) Rule 1999 (Rule 91001) (the "Rule"), and advises that the draft Land Transport (Driver Licensing) Amendment Rule [2011] (Rule 91001/7) is available for public comment.

The proposed amendment Rule will promote road safety and give effect to key initiatives outlined in Safer Journeys – New Zealand's Road Safety Strategy 2010–2020. The amendment Rule proposes changes to the licensing and testing processes to improve the safety of young drivers and of riders of motorcycles and mopeds. Other proposed changes will improve the integrity of the driver licensing system and make business processes clearer and easier.

A copy of the draft amendment Rule, with accompanying explanatory material, may be obtained by calling the NZ Transport Agency Contact Centre on freephone 0800 822 422 or is available on the website www.nzta.govt.nz/consultation/driver-licensing-amendment-2011/

The draft amendment Rule is also available for viewing at the NZ Transport Agency's regional offices.

Groups and individuals who have registered an interest in the Rule have been advised of the availability of the draft amendment Rule.

Submissions close on 20 December 2010.

For further information, contact the Rules Team, NZ Transport Agency, PO Box 5084, Lambton Quay, Wellington 6145, or email rules@nzta.govt.nz

Dated at Wellington this 16th day of November 2010.

Tertiary Education Commission

Education Act 1989

Education (Matters That an Organisation That Has a Plan Must Include in a Plan Summary For 2011–2013) Notice 2010

Pursuant to section 159YO of the Education Act 1989 ("the Act"), the Tertiary Education Commission (TEC) gives the following notice:

Notice

1. Title—This notice may be cited as the Education (Matters That an Organisation That Has a Plan Must Include in a Plan Summary For 2011–2013) Notice 2010.

2. Commencement—This notice comes into effect on the date it is published.

3. Notice revoked—This notice revokes and replaces the Education (Matters That An Organisation That Has a Plan Must Include in a Plan Summary) Notice 2008, published in the New Zealand Gazette, 17 April 2008, No. 73, page 2055.

4. Content requirements for a Plan summary—In accordance with the requirements of section 159YO(1), the TEC prescribes the matters that an organisation that has a Plan must include in a Plan summary, as follows:

(i) Plan Context

An outline of the particular factors that the organisation has considered and intends to respond to in its Plan, including:

- Government priorities in the Tertiary Education Strategy (TES);
- mission, role and functions, and how these relate to the outcomes the organisation intends to achieve;
- how it will improve its educational performance;
- the needs of learners, particularly Māori and Pacific peoples and young people under 25 years, and the needs of industry and employers; and
- any key initiatives and/or changes planned in its core activities related to the outcomes the organisation is seeking to achieve through its proposed Plan.

Key background information about the organisation and its operating environment, including a summary of the nature and scope of the organisation's functions and intended operations, should also be included in the Plan Context.

Tertiary education institutions need to include additional information to ensure that the proposed Plan contains a forecast statement of service performance that reflects the full scope of its activities. This fulfils legislative requirements and generally accepted accounting principles.

(ii) Summary of Activity

Information on planned delivery over the period of the proposed Plan. The Summary of Activity should include information about:

- Student Achievement Component (SAC) or Industry Training Fund learner numbers by New Zealand Qualifications Framework level;
- other planned programmes and activities, including learner numbers, funded by the TEC;
- total TEC funding sought;
- planned learner numbers in more detail if requested by the TEC; and
- a brief description of other outcomes, programmes and activities not funded by the TEC.

(iii) Performance Commitments

This part should set out proposed performance commitments and the associated indicators used in evaluating performance. This includes:

- achievement against Government priorities in the TES;
- meeting the needs of learners, particularly Māori and Pacific peoples and young people under 25 years of age, and the needs of industry and employers;
- improving educational performance for SAC or Industry Training funded provision;
- other TEC-funded programmes and activities; and
- any key initiatives and/or changes related to the outcomes the organisation is seeking to achieve through its proposed Plan, as outlined in the Plan Context.

Nothing in this notice requires an organisation to include in its Plan summary information which would:

- (a) disclose a trade secret; or
- (b) be likely to unreasonably prejudice the commercial position of the organisation; or
- (c) prejudice or disadvantage the commercial activities of the organisation.

Dated at Wellington this 15th day of November 2010.

DR ROY SHARP, Chief Executive, Tertiary Education Commission.
