In making decisions under Part 10 of the Act and determining what action, if any, to take under Subpart 1 of Part 10 of the Act, the Minister is likely to adopt the following guiding principles:

- Ministerial assistance or intervention should be proportionate to:

 - its duration to date and its likely duration if not addressed;
- Ministerial assistance or intervention should endure for only as long as necessary to resolve the problem and provide for a transition back to normal democratic processes; and
- Ministerial decisions regarding assistance or intervention should be transparent.

(b) Matters likely to detract from the ability of local authorities to give effect to the purpose of local government

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the instrument, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This instrument, which comes into effect on 1 April 2013, amends a Ministerial direction and a number of Ministerial welfare programmes under the Social Security Act 1964.

Clause 4 and Schedule 1:

- adjusts certain rates, standard costs, and limits to reflect a 0.61% increase in the New Zealand Consumers Price Index from the December 2011 quarter to the December 2012 quarter (calculated using the CPI All Groups excluding cigarettes and other tobacco products).
- revokes an obsolete special benefit standard cost (in clause 2 of the Schedule of the Ministerial Direction in relation to Special Benefit) as no youth support payment recipient is eligible for a special benefit.

Clause 4 and Schedule 2 amends the:

- Home Help Programme, to adjust the hourly rate to reflect a 1.85% increase in the adult minimum wage, and to revoke provision for an automatic increase in the rates of home help based on increases to the minimum wage — as the hourly rate is adjusted each year for increases to the minimum wage, provision for automatic increase is unnecessary duplication.
- Special Transfer Allowance Programme 2000 to adjust average regional rents to reflect movements in rentals.
