Notification of Review Decision under Section 30R of the Telecommunications Act 2001 of Decision 626

On 27 June 2008, the Commerce Commission ("Commission") made a standard terms determination, under section 30M of the Telecommunications Act 2001 ("the Act"), in respect of the designated access services of Telecom's Unbundled Copper Local Loop Network Backhaul ("Decision 626").

In Decision 626, the Commission indicated its intention to periodically review the Primary and Secondary Links, pursuant to section 30R of the Act, to determine which links will be subject to the regulated UCLL Backhaul Service.

A UCLL Backhaul Service section 30R review was published by the Commission on 30 April 2009 ("Decision 667").

On 3 December 2009, the Commission published another section 30R review of the UCLL Backhaul Service ("Decision 686").

The review focused on reassessing the competitiveness of the 98 Primary and 37 Secondary links identified in Decision 626, and which were the subject of the previous review.

The Commission has concluded that:

- the competitive constraint posed by "near entrant" networks should be considered on a local exchange by local exchange basis based on information about the proximity, the likely costs and the intentions of the smaller networks to connect to specific local exchanges;

- of the 98 Primary Links assessed, 52 of the links are now competitive and the remaining 46 links face limited competition;
- there are no changes needed to the competition status of secondary links;
- Appendix B in Schedule 5 "UCLL Backhaul POI Site Related Information" is replaced with a new Appendix B; and
- prior to the commencement of the next review, the Commission will reassess the competition assessment criteria used to determine if the threshold is appropriate in the current market.

Pursuant to section 30R(5) of the Act, the Commission is required to give public notice of the result of the review.

Decision 686 sets out the result of the review and is available on the Commission's website at

<http://www.comcom.govt.nz/IndustryRegulation/Telecommunications/StandardTermsDeterminations/UnbundledLocalLoopBackhaulService/ContentFiles/Documents/s30R%20Review%20of%20UCLL%20Backhaul%20links%2020091202.pdf>

Date of Decision: 3 December 2009.

Scope of Practice – Midwife

Pursuant to section 11 of the Act, the council specifies the midwifery scope of practice as follows:

A midwife works in partnership with women on her own professional responsibility, to give women the necessary support, care and advice during pregnancy, labour and the postpartum period up to six weeks, to facilitate births and to provide care for the newborn.

A midwife understands, promotes and facilitates the physiological processes of pregnancy and childbirth, identifies complications that may arise in mother and baby, accesses appropriate medical assistance and implements emergency measures as necessary. When women require referral, a midwife provides midwifery care in collaboration with other health professionals.

A midwife has an important role in health and wellness promotion and education for the woman, her family and the community. Midwifery practice involves informing and preparing the woman and her family for pregnancy, birth, breastfeeding and parenthood, and includes certain aspects of women’s health, family planning and infant well-being.

A midwife may practise in any setting, including the home, the community, hospitals or in any other maternity service. In all settings, a midwife remains responsible and accountable for the care she provides.
