Commerce Commission

Electricity Industry Reform Act 1998

Notice of Exemption—Mark Tume

The Commerce Commission (“Commission”), pursuant to section 81 of the Electricity Industry Reform Act 1998 (“the EIR Act”), exempts Mark Tume from compliance with section 17(2)(b) of the EIR Act in respect of the cross-involvements (as that term is defined in the EIR Act) with Infratil Limited and Powerco Limited as outlined in the Commission’s Decision 682 on his application for exemption.

1. Whilst Mark Tume is involved with both Infratil Limited and Powerco Limited, he shall not participate in any discussions or decision making by Infratil Limited and/or Powerco Limited regarding any of the matters listed below:

- The connection of TrustPower Limited’s generators to both Powerco Limited’s network and any other lines company’s network;
- TrustPower Limited’s use of system agreement in respect of Powerco Limited’s network and any other lines company’s network;
- other electricity sellers use of system agreements in respect of Powerco Limited’s network;
- the supply of electricity by any electricity seller (including TrustPower Limited) to any of Powerco Limited’s network customers; or
- the supply of electricity by TrustPower Limited to Powerco Limited.

In addition, he shall not disclose the outcomes of any discussions or decision making by Powerco Limited on these matters to Infratil Limited, or any shareholder, director or staff member of Infratil Limited (and vice versa).

2. Mark Tume shall provide an annual declaration of compliance with arm’s-length and use-of-system agreements rules to the Commission. Mark Tume shall declare in writing that, to the best of his knowledge, he, Infratil Limited, TrustPower Limited and Powerco Limited are complying with the arm’s-length rules and the use-of-systems agreements rules. The first such declaration shall be by 31 October 2010 and annually thereafter.
3. Mark Tume will confirm to the Commission, in writing, that the prohibited involvements to which this exemption applies have ceased within one calendar month of the prohibited involvements ceasing to exist.
4. This exemption expires when the Commission publishes on its website Mark Tume’s written confirmation that his prohibited involvements have ceased, unless any variation or earlier revocation in terms of section 81(5) occurs before that event.
5. This exemption is specific to the prohibited involvements created through Mark Tume’s involvements in Powerco Limited and Infratil Limited. It does not extend to any other interest or existing or future prohibited involvements of Mark Tume.

The exemption takes effect from the date of publication of this notice in the New Zealand Gazette.

The Commission may vary or revoke the exemption in accordance with section 81(5) of the EIR Act.

Dated this 10th day of November 2009.

Land Transport Act 1998

Notification of Ordinary Rule

Pursuant to section 161(3) of the Land Transport Act 1998, notification is given of the making of the Land Transport (Road User) Amendment Rule (No. 2) 2009 (Rule 61001/5).

This Rule amends the Land Transport (Road User) Rule 2004, which governs the behaviour of all road users, including drivers, riders, passengers, pedestrians and people leading or driving animals.

The purpose of the Rule amendment is to allow a driver to use a mobile phone for any purpose, other than a text message, video message, email, or similar communication, while driving, provided that the phone is secured in a mounting that is fixed to the vehicle, and, if the driver manipulates or looks at the phone, he or she does so infrequently and briefly.

The Land Transport (Road User) Amendment Rule (No. 2) 2009 comes into force on 11 December 2009.

The Rule is available for inspection free of charge at the National Office of the New Zealand Transport Agency, PSIS House, 20 Ballance Street, Wellington.

It can be purchased from selected bookshops that sell legislation or from Legislation Direct, telephone (04) 568 0005.

Public Works Act 1981

Notice of Intention to Take Land for Road and the Functioning Indirectly of a Road—Tauranga Eastern Link Motorway, Western Bay of Plenty District

Notice is hereby given that the Crown, under the provisions of section 23 of the Public Works Act 1981, proposes to take the land described in the Schedules hereto (“the land”).

The land described in the Schedules to this notice is required for construction of the Tauranga Eastern Link Motorway.

The land described in the First Schedule is required for road.

The land described in the Second Schedule is required for the functioning indirectly of a road (segregation strip).

The intended use is in accordance with the designation in the district plan.

The project is required to cater for increasing traffic volumes and to improve the safety and efficiency of State Highway 2 and the local road network.

The owner of the land and those persons with a registered interest in it have been served with notice of the Crown’s intention to take their land and their right to object.

Any other person having the right to object may send a written objection to the Registrar, Environment Court, PO Box 7147, Auckland, within 20 working days after the date of publication of this notice.

If any objection is made in accordance with this notice, a public hearing will be held with the right of the objector to appear and be heard personally unless the objector otherwise requires, and each objector will be informed of the time and place of the hearing.

Any person requiring further information in respect of this advice should contact Graeme Nicholas, The Property Group Limited, Suite 3, 143 Durham Street (PO Box 13591), Tauranga. Telephone: (07) 597 5192.
