- (f) is not the spouse or partner of another person already receiving ReStart.

(2) An applicant who has ceased, after 8 November 2008, to be in full-time work that is self-employment is eligible for ReStart if the chief executive is satisfied that paragraphs (e) and (f) of subclause (1) apply to the applicant and that the applicant:

- (a) is eligible to be granted an unemployment benefit under the Act; and
- (b) has been in full-time work for not less than 6 months prior to that cessation; and
- (c) has made an application for assistance under this programme within 20 working days of that cessation.

(3) Subclause (1)(c) and (2)(c) are subject to clause 7 and 8.

7. Extension of the application period—(1) Any person whose redundancy occurred in the period beginning on 8 November 2008 and ending on the date this programme is approved may make an application for ReStart before 16 January 2009 unless otherwise eligible to apply at a later date.

(2) The chief executive may extend the period of 20 working days within which an application for assistance must be made if in any particular case he or she considers there is good and sufficient reason why the applicant could not reasonably have made application within that period.

8. When both members of a couple made redundant—

(1) If a person (“A”) has been granted ReStart, no separate grant of ReStart may be made to A’s spouse or partner (“B”) during the redundancy assistance period.

(2) B may be granted ReStart if B makes an application for it within 20 working days after A’s assistance ends in accordance with clause 11.

(3) Subclause (2) is subject to clause 7(2).

9. When assistance starts—Grants of ReStart may start to be made on the latest of the following dates:

- (a) The date on which this programme commences.
- (b) The date on which the applicant became eligible to receive it.
- (c) The date the application for it was received.
- (d) If the applicant applies for ReStart at the same time as he or she applies for a specified benefit to which a stand-down or non-entitlement period applies, the date on which that benefit commences.

10. Suspension of assistance—(1) Grants of ReStart to an applicant must be suspended:

- (a) during any period of up to 28 days in which the applicant undertakes full-time work; or
- (b) during the period in which the applicant undertakes an employment trial of up to 90 days, but only one suspension may be made under this paragraph.

(2) Grants of ReStart to an applicant may be suspended during any period in which an applicant is absent from New Zealand if the chief executive considers that during that absence, the applicant will continue to seek full-time work.

(3) Any period in which grants of ReStart are suspended under subclause (1) or (2) does not count towards the calculation of the redundancy assistance period in respect of the applicant.

(4) When a period of suspension under subclause (1) or (2) ends, the chief executive must resume grants of ReStart for any unexpired part of the redundancy assistance period if the applicant remains eligible for the assistance concerned.

11. When assistance ends—(1) If it has not ended earlier, eligibility for ReStart ends not later than the date the applicant dies, or any of the following earlier applies:

- (a) The applicant engages in full-time work for a period of more than 28 days, except in the situation described in paragraph (b)
- (b) if the applicant’s spouse or partner is engaged in full-time employment, the applicant engages in full-time employment for a period of more than 28 days
- (c) the applicant, while undertaking a period of full-time work or an employment trial to which a period of suspension under clause 10 applies, becomes voluntarily unemployed without good or sufficient reason or loses his or her employment by reason of misconduct
- (d) the applicant undertakes a second employment trial within the redundancy assistance period
- (e) the chief executive considers that the applicant is no longer actively seeking full-time work
- (f) the redundancy assistance period ends.

(2) Eligibility for ReStart of a particular kind ends if an applicant has any other change of circumstances that means he or she is no longer eligible for ReStart of that kind (for example, the applicant ceases to be eligible for RePlace assistance because he or she is no longer eligible for accommodation supplement), but without affecting the applicant’s eligibility for ReStart of another kind (for example, for ReCover assistance).

Part 3RePlace

12. Purpose—The purpose of RePlace is to provide assistance to eligible persons to help them meet on-going accommodation costs such as mortgage payments or rent.

13. RePlace assistance—The chief executive must grant RePlace assistance to an applicant who is eligible for ReStart if the chief executive is satisfied that:

- (a) the applicant has not received a redundancy payment exceeding $25,000 (after the deduction of income tax) in respect of his or her redundancy; and
- (b) the applicant is receiving an accommodation supplement under the Act; and
- (c) the amount of that accommodation supplement is:
 - (i) the appropriate weekly maximum amount set out in Part 2 of Schedule 18 of the Act; or
 - (ii) would, but for the abatement on account of the applicant’s income under Part 1 of that Schedule, be that appropriate weekly maximum amount.

14. Amount of assistance—(1) The amount of any grant under clause 13 must be calculated according to the following formula:

$$a = b - c$$

a is the weekly amount of RePlace assistance

b is the weekly amount of accommodation supplement that would be payable to the applicant if:

- (a) the applicant were a beneficiary; and
- (b) the appropriate weekly maximum amount set out in Part 2 of Schedule 18 of the Act were increased by $100.00

c is the weekly amount of accommodation supplement that the applicant is receiving.

(2) If the applicant is a non-beneficiary, clause 2 of Schedule 18 of the Act applies as if the weekly amount of RePlace assistance calculated under subclause (1) were an amount of accommodation supplement assessed under that Schedule.

(3) No grant of RePlace assistance may exceed $100.00 per week.

15. Delayed redundancy payments—(1) This clause applies to an applicant who has been granted RePlace assistance and subsequently receives the whole or part of any redundancy payment that would have affected eligibility for RePlace assistance had that redundancy payment been taken into account.

(2) The chief executive may recover any amount of RePlace assistance paid to an applicant to whom this clause applies that is greater than the amount that applicant would have received had the redundancy payment been taken into account in assessing eligibility as an overpayment for the purposes of section 85A(f) of the Act.

Part 4ReCover

16. Purpose—The purpose of ReCover is to provide an income supplement to families with dependent children in a situation where an eligible person loses both the income from full-time work and in-work tax credits under the Income Tax Act 2007.

17. ReCover assistance—The chief executive must make grants of ReCover assistance to an applicant who is eligible for ReStart if the chief executive is satisfied that the applicant:

- (a) was eligible for in-work tax credits under section MD 4 of the Income Tax Act 2007 immediately before the redundancy occurred or as the case may be, ceased full-time work that is self-employment; and

- (b) is no longer eligible for in-work tax credits; and
- (c) is in one of the following situations:
 - (i) the applicant, or his or her spouse or partner, is the principal caregiver of a dependent child;
 - (ii) in the event the applicant separates from his or her spouse or partner during the redundancy assistance period, the applicant is the principal caregiver of a dependent child.

18. Amount of assistance—The amount of a grant under clause 17 is $60.00 per week for an applicant with up to 3 dependent children and an additional $15.00 per week for each subsequent dependent child.

Part 5

Expiry

19. Expiry—(1) No application for ReStart may be made after 31 December 2010.

(2) This programme expires with the end of the last redundancy assistance period in respect of any applicant granted ReStart on an application made prior to 1 January 2011.

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the programme, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This programme, which comes into effect on 1 January 2009, provides time-limited transitional assistance called ReStart to certain persons who have been made redundant from their full-time work or have lost full-time work that is self-employment and are in the process of looking for other suitable full-time work.

ReStart comprises two separate forms of assistance for eligible persons. ReCover assistance is designed to provide a form of income supplement to people with children who were eligible for in-work tax credits prior to redundancy. RePlace assistance is a form of assistance for people whose assessed rate of accommodation supplement is the maximum applicable rate to help them manage their accommodation costs following a redundancy.

ReCover and RePlace may be granted to a person either separately or together as a package depending on whether the person meets the applicable eligibility criteria. Any ReStart assistance expires at the conclusion of 16 weeks after a grant is first made in respect of either ReCover or RePlace. A grant of ReStart may be suspended because a person undertakes full-time work for up to 28 days, an employment trial for up to 90 days, or is absent from New Zealand while remaining eligible for ReStart. This period of suspension does not count in the calculation of the 16 weeks of ReStart. In these situations, ReStart will resume when the suspension ends if the person remains eligible.

Applications for assistance under the programme will be accepted until 31 December 2010. The programme expires when the last grant is made under it in respect of any such application.

Reserve Bank of New Zealand

Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1989

Policy Targets Agreement

This agreement between the Minister of Finance and the Governor of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand ("the Bank") is made under section 9 of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1989 ("the Act").

The Minister and the Governor agree as follows:

1. Price Stability

- (a) Under section 8 of the Act, the Reserve Bank is required to conduct monetary policy with the goal of maintaining a stable general level of prices.
- (b) The Government's economic objective is to promote a growing, open and competitive economy as the best means of delivering permanently higher incomes and living standards for New Zealanders. Price stability plays an important part in supporting this objective.

2. Policy Target

- (a) In pursuing the objective of a stable general level of prices, the Bank shall monitor prices as measured by a range of price indices. The price stability target will be defined in terms of the All Groups Consumers Price Index (CPI), as published by Statistics New Zealand.
- (b) For the purpose of this agreement, the policy target shall be to keep future CPI inflation outcomes between 1 per cent and 3 per cent on average over the medium term.

3. Inflation Variations Around Target

- (a) For a variety of reasons, the actual annual rate of CPI inflation will vary around the medium-term trend of inflation, which is the focus of the policy target. Amongst these reasons, there is a range of events whose impact would normally be temporary. Such events include, for example, shifts in the aggregate price level as a result of exceptional movements in the prices of commodities traded in world markets, changes in indirect taxes, significant government policy changes that directly affect prices, or a natural disaster affecting a major part of the economy.

- (b) When disturbances of the kind described in clause 3(a) arise, the Bank will respond consistent with meeting its medium-term target.

4. Communication, Implementation and Accountability

- (a) On occasions when the annual rate of inflation is outside the medium-term target range, or when such occasions are projected, the Bank shall explain in policy statements made under section 15 of the Act why such outcomes have occurred, or are projected to occur, and what measures it has taken, or proposes to take, to ensure that inflation outcomes remain consistent with the medium-term target.
- (b) In pursuing its price stability objective, the Bank shall implement monetary policy in a sustainable, consistent and transparent manner and shall seek to avoid unnecessary instability in output, interest rates and the exchange rate.
- (c) The Bank shall be fully accountable for its judgements and actions in implementing monetary policy.

Dated at Wellington this 18th day of December 2008.

Approval of New Zealand Equivalent to International Financial Reporting Standard 1 First-time Adoption of New Zealand Equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards as Restructured in December 2008 (NZ IFRS 1) (Notice No. 96)

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to section 29 of the Financial Reporting Act 1993 (“the Act”), that the Accounting Standards Review Board has approved New Zealand Equivalent to International Financial Reporting Standard 1 First-time Adoption of

New Zealand Equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards as restructured in December 2008 (NZ IFRS 1), submitted to it by the Financial Reporting Standards Board of the New Zealand Institute of Chartered Accountants.

NZ IFRS 1 as restructured in December 2008 is:

- to apply to all reporting entities and groups, the Crown and all departments, Offices of Parliament and Crown entities, and all local authorities (each of which is defined in the Act) other than where expressly exempted by its terms, the terms of any other approved financial reporting standard or by law;
- to apply from 1 July 2009; and
- a Regulation for the purposes of the Regulations (Disallowance) Act 1989.

Earlier application of NZ IFRS 1 as restructured in December 2008 is permitted.

If this standard is applied before the effective date, that fact shall be disclosed.

NZ IFRS 1 as restructured in December 2008 supersedes NZ IFRS 1 First-time Adoption of New Zealand Equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards (as issued in November 2004).

The Board therefore resolves to withdraw NZ IFRS 1 First-time Adoption of New Zealand Equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards (as issued in November 2004) when NZ IFRS 1 as restructured in December 2008 becomes effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 July 2009.

Where early application of NZ IFRS 1 as restructured in December 2008 is permitted for an entity, NZ IFRS 1 First-time Adoption of New Zealand Equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards (as issued in November 2004) is deemed to be withdrawn in relation to that entity upon such early application.

Copies of the NZ IFRS 1 as restructured in December 2008 may be inspected free of charge at the offices of the New Zealand Institute of Chartered Accountants, 40 Mercer Street (PO Box 11342), Wellington and 27–33 Ohinerau Street (PO Box 3334), Auckland.
