Member's Bill

Call for Nominations for the Waste Advisory Board

The Waste Minimisation Bill currently before Parliament provides for the establishment of a Waste Advisory Board.

The Minister for the Environment is seeking nominations for members of the Waste Advisory Board.

The board will not be appointed unless the Waste Minimisation Bill is enacted by Parliament.

However, the Minister would like to start the process of calling for nominations for potential appointments.

If the Waste Minimisation Bill is enacted, the role of the board will be to provide advice, upon request, to the Secretary for the Environment and the Minister.

The board's advice is to relate to waste minimisation and functions of the Minister and the Secretary for the Environment under the Bill.

Collectively, the board needs to have knowledge, skills and experience relating to:

- the Waste Minimisation Bill;
- matters that are likely to come before the board as a result of its proposed functions under the Bill, such as regulations relating to priority products and the waste disposal levy, decisions on priority products and accreditation of product stewardship schemes;
- community projects for waste minimisation;
- industry (including the commercial waste industry);
- local government; and
- tikanga Māori.

Board members will ideally have leadership, governance and senior decision-making experience.

It is highly desirable that board members have previous experience working on a board.

In addition, it is desirable that board members have knowledge and experience in one or more of the following areas:

- Product stewardship.
- The New Zealand Waste Strategy.
- Product life-cycle analysis.
- Scientific or technical expertise in the environmental harm of waste from end-of-life products.
- Major waste streams in New Zealand.
- International best practice in waste minimisation.

Please forward nominations to the address below.

In a cover letter, please outline the reasons for the nomination and a summary of any relevant knowledge, skills and experience of the nominee.

Please also indicate whether the nominee has agreed to their nomination.

Please attach the nominee's CV and a list of three referees, indicating whether or not referees can be contacted without further notice.

All nominations will be forwarded to the Minister for the Environment for consideration.

Nominations close at 5.00pm on 7 September 2008.

Justice

Financial Transactions Reporting Act 1996

Notice of Intention to Make a Regulation to Define a Qualifying Remittance Card Facility

Pursuant to section 56(2)(c) of the Financial Transactions Reporting Act 1996, I, Clayton Cosgrove, Associate Minister of Justice, give notice of the intention to make a Regulation under section 56(1)(e) of this Act.

The Regulation will provide some relief from the customer due diligence requirements under the Financial Transactions Reporting Act 1996 when a financial institution offers a qualifying remittance card facility.

A qualifying remittance card facility is intended to facilitate low cost remittances through mainstream financial institutions via a two-card remittance transfer facility that uses the banking system's international ATM and EFTPOS networks.

It is intended that customer due diligence will be reduced on the second card holder (who is intended to be based overseas), although not on the principal card holder.

The Regulation will:

- (a) define a qualifying remittance card facility;
- (b) determine when the qualifying remittance card facility is not a facility for the purposes of section 6(1) of the Financial Transactions Reporting Act 1996; and
- (c) specify the requirement for a review of the Regulation and its effectiveness.
