Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the notice but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice, which comes into force on 11 July 2022, sets out the fees the Teaching Council has fixed for teacher registrations, the issuing of practising certificates and the granting of limited authorities to teach.

This notice also sets out the levies the Teaching Council has imposed, payable by registered teachers and holders of a limited authority to teach, and applicants for registration as a teacher or a limited authority to teach, for the purpose of funding the Teaching Council's functions set out in section 479(1) of the Education and Training Act 2020.

Except for the retention of the following fee, this notice revokes all prior fees set by the 2015 notice:

A fee of $50.00 (GST inclusive) for applicants who do not have a practising certificate or current limited authority to teach and are employed in a teaching position that requires them to hold one, when the Council receives the application (this is additional to the cost of the practising certificate or limited authority to teach).

From 11 July 2022, the new fees and levies set out in this notice, and the fee retained from the 2015 notice, will apply to all applications received for registration as a teacher or the issuing of a practising certificate or the granting of a limited authority to teach.

This notice is issued under the authority of the Education and Training Act 2020 and the Legislation Act 2019.

Date of Notification in the New Zealand Gazette: 2 June 2022.

This notice is administered by the Teaching Council of Aotearoa New Zealand.
