

Notification of Commencement of Investigation Under Clause 1(5) of Schedule 3 of the Telecommunications Act 2001 into Deregulation of Mobile Termination Access Services

The Commerce Commission (“Commission”) gives public notice under clause 1(6) of Schedule 3 of the Telecommunications Act 2001 (“Act”) that the Commission has commenced an investigation under clause 1(5) of Schedule 3 of the Act into whether Mobile Termination Access Services should be omitted from Schedule 1 under section 66(1)(b) of the Act.

On 25 March 2025, the Commission decided under clause 1(3) of the Act that there are reasonable grounds for commencing the investigation. The Commission’s final decision paper is available on the Commission’s website at: <http://comcom.govt.nz/regulated-industries/telecommunications/regulated-services/mobile-services/Mobile-Termination-Access-Services-review-202425>.

Dated this 25th day of March 2025.

COMMERCE COMMISSION.
